PASTIME TODAY

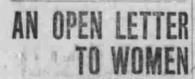

The lure of the sea has nowhere been so promounced un element in the making of a photopiny on it has b in the production of "Nebody's Girl the special attraction which will be mon at the Pastine theater today with Billie Rhodes as the star.

The sea with its over changing moods has always exerted an influence ever writers and painters and this Dire ner by the camera. It provides many of the finest bits of scener background that have ever been men in a motion picture.

From the time the picture opens with a raft drifting in toward the deso late shore of pevil's band on the caim ses that follows a storm, until the final scene where Inflie Rhodes cal the avistor in his machine guide the government cutter to the hidden of the sunagefers; the change with a startling suddenness that leave spectators enchanted with their beauty and variety. Much credit should be given to the cumeraman who preserved the heauty of the accurat Nobody's Girl" is said to offer a real treat to those who love the sea and a beautiful love story, perfectly told.
