RESEARCH CLUB MEETS.

A musical afternoon was enjoyed by members of the Research Club when they met yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. E. McLean with Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Raymond Hatch as hostesses.

The program, which was very pleasing, consisted of a reading by Mrs. Clarence Edmonds Scotch solos by Mrs. Ray Penland, of Helix, and solos by Mrs. James Hill and Mrs. A. H. Crystal. Spring flowers were used as a decoration and refreshments were served during the later hours of the afternoon.

Other than club members, the guests present were Mrs. Mason, Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Penland and Miss Knox, all of Helix, and Mrs. Jesse Tryon, Mrs. J. S. Matthews, Mrs. D. C. Hull and Mrs. Chrystal of this city.

PROGRAM AT CHURCH.

What promises to be a most interesting program will be given by the Epworth League this evening at 8 o'clock. The program is as follows:

- Vocal Duet, "Boyce and Robert Wylie, "Why We Never Married"
- Seven Maids and Seven Bachelors, Reading, "Mable Slicker Plans Solo"
- Love's King "A Tragedy in Four Acts"
- Epworthians Reading, "Boyce Wylie Vocal Solo"
- Marguerite Lemert Dramatization, "Group of Girls Reading"
- Ruth Taylor "Dr. Carver vs. Dr. Knowall"
- Epworthians

The entire proceeds will be given toward a fund for the missionary work of Miss Ruth Warner, in Rosario de Santa Fe, South America.

RETURN FROM SCOTLAND

Mrs. R. H. Thompson and four children have returned to Pendleton after a visit in Scotland and are guests at the home of Mrs. Anna Robertson. Mrs. Thompson and children went to Scotland last July and were joined by Mr. Thompson in December. He returned here a few days prior to his family. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will make their home at 265 South Main street.

WILL SHIP CLOTHES

The members of the Research Club, who have been sewing on clothes for the inmates of the Waverly Baby Home, are completing their work and will ship a box of clothing within the next few days. For this reason, members have been asked to complete the sewing at once so that the shipment can be made.

WILL HEAR ORCHESTRA.

Mrs. F. E. Boyden, Mrs. E. W. McCormick, Mrs. S. H. Forshaw, Mrs. Charles H. Marsh and Mrs. George Hartman motored to Walla Walla this afternoon and will hear the New York Philharmonic Orchestra at the Keylor Grand this evening. They will return to Pendleton tomorrow.

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

The wedding of Miss Rose Jones of Nolia and J. L. Johnson, also of Nolia, was solemnized here recently with Rev. W. H. Cox, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. Guests for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Collins.

MRS. OLIVER ENTERTAINED.
