ARCADE TODAY

Helene Chadwick, one of the most attractive girls appearing before the screen, returning from the island of Catalina, tells a thrilling story of a gigantic fish which she caught. No one believed her! The fieldwork leading woman had been spending several weeks abroad during the filming of "Godless Men," a Reginald Barker production with an all-star cast, one of the most gripping sea tales ever put on the screen.

beautiful lady, all "dolled up" in silks and furs and French heeled shoes. But to prove her story she brought back a picture which told the whole tale. The fish was five feet long, one of the biggest taken in that vicinity in many months. "Godless Men" will be shown at the Arcade Theatre for the first time today.

ARCADE SUNDAY AND MONDAY HERO OF "HALF A CHANCE" ONE IN A THOUSAND

If Mahlon Hamilton had not been six feet tall with a chest expansion to brag about and hardened, developed, well-trained muscles, he never would have been cast for the role of "Sailor" Burke, the rugged, two-fisted hero of "Half a Chance."

On the other hand, if he were not a gentleman of culture and refinement he would not have been cast for the same role, for "Sailor" Burke, prize fighter and derelict of the Barbary Coast, convicted on a frame-up a murderer, by sheer grit, brute force, determination and will power, saved his way to the top of the social ladder. "Half a Chance," at the Arcade Theatre Sunday is said to be the season's most gripping and powerful drama. It is a Robert Thornaby special produced by Jesse D. Hampton for Pathe from the most popular novel of Frederic S. Isham.

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY BEBE DANIELS SEEN IN DASHING NEW COMEDY

Here she is again! The good-little-lad girl, or more properly speaking, Bebe Daniels, the Realist star who scored such a success in "You Never Can Tell" and "Oh Lady, Lady," has completed a third starring picture, "She Couldn't Help It."

Those who know the play and the story "In the Bishop's Carriage," from which this photoplay was adapted, feel that this is the best opportunity the star has yet had to display the great possibilities of the type she has made so essentially her own. Nance Olden is a little orphan girl, adopted by crooks and taught to be a clever pickpocket. She doesn't know the difference between right and wrong until a chance encounter "in the Bishop's Carriage" opens up to her a new world of romance and reformation. There are many comedy opportunities, especially when Nance, afraid of the police, resorts to calling the bishop "father," pretending that she is a school girl who has become mentally unbalanced through over-study. The story is well put together and carries the beholder breathlessly through a series of very entertaining complications. Humor, pathos and drama are blended to form an ideal entertainment.

The ship was sinking. The water was rising. His hands were shackled to the beam. One chance in a million for him.

But his faithful dog, catching the floating key tag in his teeth, gave him half a chance.

You'll be thrilled at the surge and crash of the spectacular shipwreck action. Your blood will tingle at the man to man fight scenes.

Your heart will go out to the man, who with Fate, friends and the world, except his dog, against him, beats his way back up to the high places of life.

You'll be carried away to the squalid underworld, the prize-ring, the water front, the court-room, the roaring ocean, the lonely island and to dazzling society.

It's the Season's Stupendous Sensation. So Powerful it Will Leave an Indelible Impression on Your Heart.
