Will Build Garage.
L. E. Hoover has applied to the city recorder for a building permit for the construction of a garage on his property on Willow street. The estimated cost of the building is $100.

Had Short-Weight Butter.
A farmer's wife whose name was not given, was fined $10 in the court of Justice Joe H. Parkes Friday when she pleaded guilty to a charge of selling butter that was short weight. Two squares weighed 13 ounces less than the required 16 pounds.

Hour Is 8 P. M.
Evening services at Pendleton churches will open at 8 p. m. in future instead of at 7:30 p. m., according to a decision made by the Pendleton Ministerial Association. The morning hour is 11 a. m.

Factory Representative Here.
Charles Edward Smith, special factory representative for the Universal Stove Co., is in Pendleton to assist in holding the demonstrations at the George C. Baer Hardware store. Today is the last day of the three day demonstration.

Prospective Settlers.
A request has been received by the Pendleton Commercial Association from the state chamber of commerce requesting that the local organization get in touch with people in this community who have friends who are interested in Oregon and have signified a desire to settle here. The names are to be used by the state organization in its summer activities to get settlers from the Middle West farming sections. Anyone having names of such prospects are requested to get in touch with the Commercial Association.

Contract Awarded
C. A. Swanson, local contractor has been granted the contract for the erection of a 7 room house, by C. L. Howard, in the Jacobs' Addition. The estimated cost is $7000.

Weaving Displayed
Attractive woven articles, made by the pupils of the lower grades of Lincoln school, are displayed today in the window of Bond Brothers clothing store. Included in the display are dolls' hammocks, caps, etc.

Cuts Tip Off Finger
George Stewart, negro who is employed on the Crow ranch, cut the tip off the fourth finger of his left hand yesterday while cutting up potatoes for seed. He came to Pendleton to have the injured members dressed and will stay here for a few days.

Little Girl Burned
Little Guldiners Snyder, aged three, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Snyder, suffered severe burns on the face, neck and arm yesterday when she upset a pot of hot tea. She is at St. Anthony's hospital. The little girl is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole.

Accountant Considers Location
Information as to the possibilities of Pendleton as a field for a certified public accountant is sought in a letter from the secretary of the national organization of accountants to the Pendleton Commercial Association. The man who is seeking the information would come here for the benefit of his health.

Renovate Rooming House.
The Quella rooming house, recently purchased by Bob Ruda and Frank Chatax, has been given a thorough renovating from cellar to garret. New wallpaper has been done, paint applied, and the whole property brightened up. In the restaurant a new rule has been adopted whereby white help is employed exclusively.

Is Reservation Allottee.
Bula Cox Ingle, who is held in custody at Astoria for having shot A. J. Burns in a rooming house in that city, is an allottee on the Umatilla reservation. Major Swartzlander says the records show an allotment to the woman and likewise to a sister, Edna Cox, who is now dead, to a brother, James Cox and to her mother, Katie Cox. The land has been patented and sold.

Rainfall is 1.98
Rainfall during the month of April was 1.98 inches, according to the report made by Major Lee Moorhouse. The warmest day was April 19, when the maximum was 74. The coldest weather was on the evening of April 5, 6 and 7 when the mercury fell to 25. There were 27 clear days, six partly cloudy and three cloudy. Today the maximum is 66, with a minimum of 50 and the barometer at 29.40.

Fat Cattle Scarce
Fat cattle are scarce just now, say local butchers, who state that but few cattle growers are fattening cattle for market. Poultry is scarce also. The decrease in the price of meat during the past six weeks is estimated, in general at from 20 to 25 per cent in Pendleton retail markets. Dealers state that pork and veal are the most popular meats with Pendleton consumers and that since mutton declined in price, the demand has been less, although this meat sold well when the price was up. There is demand for fish every day in the week, say dealers.

Contests to Be Held.
Pendleton high school seniors will be given an opportunity to win a cash scholarship of $100 from O. A. C., by competitive contests which will be held here with Austin Landreth, principal of the high school, in charge. A new donation to the scholarship fund makes four of the 100 awards possible. Three separate contests will determine the winner. The first will feature competitive essay writing and will be judged on originality. The second contest will be in the form of efficiency tests, and the third will be to determine the student's ability in extemporaneous writing. The principal of the school will determine the students rating highest in the contest, and will forward their papers to the college. The committee on awards will announce the winners soon after the close of the contest. The first contest will be conducted in the various high schools of Oregon in the next two weeks. Any high school student who has been graduated within the last year may also enter the contest, provided he or she has never attended college.

Degree to Be Conferred.
The Master Masons degree will be conferred at a meeting of the Masonic order on Monday evening by Judge George H. Burnst, chief justice of the supreme court. All of the justices who will be here for court, have been invited to attend as have other visiting brethren. Dinner is to be served at 6 p. m. and work will start immediately after dinner.
