

People Here and There

Cecil Cosper, expert accountant, who maintains offices here and at Walla Walla, was in Pendleton yesterday.

Al Hendricks, O. W. R. & N. special agent, who has spent four months in New York and other points in the east, was in Pendleton yesterday. He was on his way to his home in Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schifflet, Mrs. Louis Cruikshank and Mrs. C. A. Vurpillat have returned from Portland, where they spent a week visiting. The trip was made by motor, and Mr. Schiffer reports the roads as being in excellent condition. A great deal of building is going on in Portland especially in the way of residences.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Campbell have arrived in Pendleton from their home in Los Angeles. Mr. Russell has accepted a position with the J. C. Penny Co.

Judge H. J. Bean is the first of the justices of the supreme court to arrive in Pendleton for the May term which opens Monday. He arrived in the last night.

Some time ago Yum Sumpkin, Umatilla Indian, died while on his way to Washington, D. C., to act as delegate from the Indian tribes of this region. Sumpkin was asphyxiated when he attempted to blow out the gas in an Eastern hotel. Three Indians, Cap Sumpkin, cousin of the deceased Yum Sumpkin, and Jim Kanine, delegates from the Cayuses and Walla Wallas, and Albert Minthorn, interpreter, who left yesterday for Washington on tribal business, decided to take no chances and each took out an insurance policy before leaving Pendleton.

WHAT PENDLETON GRADE SCHOOLS ARE DOING

Washington School.
Billy Rhodes, of the first grade, will leave next week for the east with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rhodes. The first three grades have sent several useful gifts to a sick boy friend who is in Portland.

All the grades are at work on May baskets, which are a part of the art work.

Flaming Morris, fourth grade pupil, is ill with chicken pox.

Mrs. Nona Shrivaz, fourth grade teacher, has returned to school after a few days illness.

Paul Stilwell, of the seventh grade, has passed the Curtis test.

Frieda Pahl, eighth grade pupil, received some experience in teaching during the week as she taught the second grade for half a day during Miss Johnson's absence.

Mrs. Hays has been absent from school because of illness.

Hawthorne School.
The new drinking fountain installed at Hawthorne is greatly appreciated not only by the pupils but the passing public. It has proved an innovation in the drinking line.

The school is now back to the regular schedule of calisthenics having changed the program slightly before the track meet.

Third grade pupils are greatly interested in studying animals and their homes this week. During their art

"I'll never get into trouble again, Judge," the prisoner said after sentence had been pronounced by Judge Gilbert W. Phelps.

Writes Big Check.
Miss Grace A. Gilliam, county treasurer, has written checks aggregating $169,858.36 which have been sent to the office of the state treasurer at Salem. The checks cover one-half of Umatilla's share of taxes to the state for this year. Last year, one-half the payment due the state was $98,368.66.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Good Fishing Expected.
Unless a heavy rain falls tonight, fishing in Meacham and Squaw creeks should be good, say anglers. The water is fairly clear today in these creeks but is very muddy in Birch and McKay creeks.

Food Inspectors Here.
Three dairy and food inspectors are in Pendleton inspecting dairies, milk stations, restaurants, hotels, stores, meat markets and slaughterhouses. They will make report soon as to conditions in this city.

Old Resident Dies.
William McGregor, aged 67, for the past 35 years a resident of this city, died last night. He was engaged in blacksmithing in Pendleton. Mr. McGregor is survived by his wife. Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Monday morning from the Folsom chapel.

Small Blaze in Garage.
A small blaze which broke out yesterday afternoon in the Ed Walker garage on Garden street was quickly quenched through the efforts of the fire department which responded to a still alarm. The small truck was used. The fire started from a gasoline torch which ignited some oily cloths being used in cleaning cars. Fire Chief William Ringold again gives a word of warning regarding the danger of the open flame and gasoline.

Will Visit Salt Lake.
J. E. Akey, manager of the J. C. Penny Co. store here, T. H. Rembold, also of the local store, B. C. Emmel, of the Athens branch and W. J. Maynard, of the Milton branch, will leave here Monday morning for Salt Lake City for a conference with J. C. Penny. Penny store men from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, California, Nevada, Wyoming, Utah and Montana, will be present, and after a day's conference with the head official will spend a week with the buyers from the New York office.

Boys Enjoy Hike.
The Boy Scouts greatly enjoyed a hike last night to Tutuilla mission, under the direction of Rev. J. M. Cornelison, who acted as host at the manse. The boys made the six mile hike in an hour and a half, and after eating supper, rolled up in their blankets and slept on the manse floor. The boys in the party, who hiked home this morning, were Laverne Pearson, Harold De Wilde, Floyd Howdyshe, Rupert Graham, James Simpson, Norris Graham, Gilbert Jones, Eugene Gray, Thomas Downs, Bruce Hawks, Cecil Barnett, Verne Dale, Gordon Keane and Karl Rinehart.

Trot Out Your Candidates.
It has been said that the busiest thing in the world is a one-eyed man at a three-ring circus.

For second honors we nominate a tongue-tied woman at a chatter party. Are there any further nominations before we begin balloting?

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank our many kind friends for their help and sympathy during the recent illness and death of our beloved son and brother Lawrence and also for the beautiful floral offerings.

periods they have made a doll house of four rooms and furnished it completely with hand made furniture.

Chalmers King was dropped this week and is leaving for Omania, Nebraska.

The lower grades have completed several varieties of very pretty May baskets in their art work.

Desmond and Harold Robinson are leaving Pendleton for La Grande this week.

All the pupils of the seventh grade, which is under the direction of Miss Leota Wagner have secured their book reports from the county library. There are 43 in the grade.

A very interesting debate was carried on in the seventh grade this week. The subject was "Should Ireland have her independence from Great Britain?" The affirmative side won. Edward Kremer led this debate.

Lena Seckler, Gwendolyn Bass, Gertrude Warren, Charlotte Isaac, Eleanor Porter and Stella Morton of the fifth received their book reports this week.

The score in the hygiene contest begun in the sixth grade, between the girls and boys is now fourteen to ten in favor of the girls.

Harry Riteson brought to school a piece of comb filled with larva of the bee for inspection by the physiology and agriculture classes.

The eighth grade pupils whose standings were sufficiently high to permit them to take the May state examinations were Margaret Huhm, Mary Moran, Florence Cowell, Wilma Orsburn, Irene Harbell, Forrest Harrah, Wilkes Worth, Charlie Isaac, Clayton Bickerdike, Lawrence Harwood and Robert Peaceck.

Lincoln School.
The first grade pupils are studying birds this week and are enjoying it.

Kathryn Furnish, Prudence Gray, Nadine Spilwood, Edwin Cruikshank, had an average of A in all their studies last week in the third grade.

Richard Geise is absent from the fifth grade this week.

Vivian McCallister visited in the fifth grade, also three mothers, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Leedy, Mrs. Krant.

The fifth grade pupils are giving the musical program for parent-teachers meeting Friday afternoon.

Sixteen children in the fifth grade received their Palmer Method buttons for the first 25 drills.

The favorite game of the boys of Lincoln school is hop scotch, William Cruikshank being the champion.

A new pennant was given to the eighth grade which was made by Mrs. John Greulich for last year's track meet championships.
