Price Coyote Offering
A new round for coyote bounty payments to one man was established yesterday when Jim Billy, an Indian, presented the scalp of 44 coyote pups at the office of the county treasurer and received in payment $132. The pups are worth $3 each dead.

Carmichael Case On
The first court sitting of the Carmichael divorce case in which Mable Carmichael is seeking to have the decree recently granted George R. Carmichael annulled was opened this afternoon in circuit court. The contentions of Carmichael's first wife is that she was coerced into agreeing to the action for divorce in the fear that she would be mistreated by Carmichael. Voluminous offerings in the shape of affidavits have been filed since the case was introduced and sensational developments are expected to result from the hearing.

COMMITTEES ARRANGE SNAKE RIVER BRIDGE DEDICATION PROGRAM

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 5.—The program for the dedication ceremonies for the new bridge across the Snake river to be held at Burbank Friday has been completed by joint committees from Pasco and Walla Walla commercial clubs and the Franklin and Walla Walla county commissioners.

Approved signs will direct the motorists to the parking places, according to the plans. These will be located between the Burbank hotel and the river. Full details for the parking of cars have been worked out by the sheriffs of the two counties.

The program at the bridge will take place following a parade which will start at the Burbank hotel. It includes speeches by Governor Hart, E. V. Kuykendall, state director of public works; James Allen, state highway commissioner; Dr. E. B. L. Penrose, president of Whitman college; Dr. M. E. Eaton, pastor of the Pasco Methodist Episcopal church; E. J. Cantonwine of the Walla Walla county board of commissioners; and H. L. Oles, chairman of the Franklin county board of commissioners.

On the covered platform which has been put up at the bridge, will be the Walla Walla high school R. O. T. C. band of 16 pieces, which, with a quartet of picked voices from the Whitman college glee club, will furnish music for the occasion. The Whitman quartet will sing through megaphones.

Plans for an airplane demonstration are being worked out by "Tex" Rankin, Walla Walla aviator, who operates one of the Curtiss army planes. Rankin will inspect the bridge site and if possible will pilot his plane under and over the bridge.

Ernest Bashor, Pendleton man, is a petitioner in bankruptcy, and his case has been referred by the district court to Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald as referee. In his petition Bashor gives his liabilities as $2,218.75 with assets at $290. His assets consist of household goods and one milk cow. The hearing has been set for May 13.

Many Building Permits
Applications for building permits during the month of April aggregated a total valuation of $212,969, the report of City Recorder Thomas Fitz Gerald, given last night to the city council, showed. Fines collected amounted to $431.50. Twelve burial permits were granted, and permits for the construction of 212 feet of sidewalk were granted.

Children are Examined
Seventy-one children were examined at the children's conference held at Weston during the past two days. It was discovered that in many cases children needed a doctor's care. The conference was conducted by Mrs. Edith G. Van Dusen, home demonstration agent, and Miss Laverne Lane, of O. A. C. nutrition expert, the following doctors being present: Dr. Smith of Athena; Dr. McKinney, of Weston; Dr. C. O. Wainwright, Dr. Johnson and Dr. James Best of Pendleton. Much of the success of the conference was due to the work of Mrs. L. I. O'Hara, chairman, who was assisted by Mrs. W. M. Peterson, Mrs. Newton O'Hara, Mrs. C. E. Pisk, Mrs. W. S. Price, Mrs. Albert O'Hara, Mrs. Emory Stages, Mrs. Joseph Wurzer, Mrs. James King, Mrs. Charles May, Mrs. Frank Snyder and Mrs. Goodwin. One hundred fifty people were present and so enthusiastic are they a children's clinic will be held in the fall. Mrs. Van Dusen and Miss Lane will be in charge of a conference at Hermiston tomorrow and Saturday and conferences at Pilot Rock May 12 and 13.

CHURCH MUST WORK TO BEAT MODERN DEVIL

NEW YORK, May 5.—(Harold D. Jacobs, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—"The devil is working 245 days a year; the church has got to work to beat the devil," Rabbi Aaron Eisenman declared in an interview with the United Press.

The young rabbi, who recently arrived New York with a sermon in which he declared "our social environment is rotten" and characterized vampires as "new devils," summed up present conditions as follows:

"Religion may be regarded as practically a failure, unless it gets down off its pedestal and mingles with the people on a common ground. The church must be liberated and humanized, and its representatives must preach less along doctrinal and theological lines and more upon everyday life.

"People are turning away from the church because it is too undemocratic, and because it lives too much in past centuries, rather than the present. Clean and wholesome pleasures and recreations should be encouraged by the church. The people are going to dance, play cards and attend the movies anyway, so why not give them these things with the sanction and supervision of the church?"

Rabbi Eisenman declared there is but one solution to present day moral laxity—religion and its attendant moral training. He said he regarded the great number of divorce scandals as the worst of modern evils, with immorality, dancing, salacious movies, immodest dress, gambling and vampires—both on the screen and in real life—close behind.

"The world apparently has made no moral or intellectual progress over the ancient Egyptians and Assyrians," he said.

"We are living in a generation just as money-mad and material as ever; a generation perhaps more sensual than ever, because it shows its sensuality in every form. It is displayed in the craze for immoral dancing, in the demand for immoral plays and movies; in the lack of modesty in conduct, dress and demeanor, and in the painted, powdered, rouged, salmoned and varnished faces of our women and girls.

"This is an age of vampires. There are countless devils who go about seeking to destroy homes and robbing women and children of their husbands and fathers. Even our conversational eventually becomes salacious. Among our women, among our girls of 16—who know more about life in their adolescence than our grandmothers did at 49—this has become an accepted fact.

"From top to bottom, through and through, our society is rotten." Eisenman pointed to the Salvation Army as a religious organization which "gets results" through hard work and democracy, and cited Billy Sunday who is not afraid of courting ridicule to "save souls."

"The trouble with most of us is that we are too timid," he said. "We are afraid of rolling up our sleeves and doing something that might be regarded as undignified. True religion always has dignity, regardless of what guise it is in.

"The devil is working all the time. If we are going to beat him we have got to work just as hard, or harder."

Essentials
"Hiram," said Mrs. Cornstossel, "have you made improvements in the place so as to render it attractive to the summer boarders?"

"All the improvements that are necessary," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "I've bought a lot of jazz records and some new needles for the phonograph."

FOREIGN TRADE BUREAU ESTABLISHMENT FAVORED

CLEVELAND, O., May 5.—(A. P.)—Establishment of an independent

Evening Gown

"Louise Du Pre of the Pan Film Corporation has chosen for her Lucille evening gown tones of gray. The lace is silver, the foundation silver cloth. Crystal shoulder straps and panel back and front is used.

government bureau for the extension and expansion of foreign trade was sponsored by J. Walter Drake, of Detroit, in an address today before the national foreign trade council in annual convention here. Mr. Drake said in part:

"The weakest point in America's industrial development is foreign trade. It is unfortunately true that relatively only a small proportion of American producers have realized the vital nature of foreign sales as a balance wheel for domestic trade. The result of this has been that in a national way this country has not developed an established foreign trade policy.

"The business can no more continue without government participation than could a private business abolish the sales organization when the season's output has been sold and trust to finding a new market each year for its product without sales service and effort. There must be a single department of the government in charge of all foreign trade service. There should be established a government training academy which would rank with West Point and Annapolis, to be devoted exclusively to the preparation and education of men for the government foreign service.

"Today, as we face the competition of European countries for the foreign market of the future, which to them means almost life and death in their national existence, it is impossible to ignore the perilous situation in which this country finds itself in respect of the organization and equipment demanded in such a competition.

There is only one way in which this situation can be corrected. A proper and adequate organization of the government service is vital and, if necessary, such a broad general measure put on the statute books as will serve as a basis for a full and complete organization of all government activities in foreign trade."

Mother's Day

Next Sunday is the day set aside to give special thought to your mother. Custom has decreed that this day be observed with the giving of some gift expressive of your love.

Jewelry—The gift that lasts—is most appropriate for such an occasion. No matter how small your gift may be it will be symbolic of your love.

If of jewelry it shows that you desire your remembrance to be the best possible and to be of enduring beauty.

Snake Best Friend, She Says

"A snake is your best friend," says Miss Elizabeth Remington, of New York, member of the Reptile Study Society. "With only two exceptions—the timber rattlesnake and the copperhead—there isn't a snake in America that can bite you or injure you in any way. A snake will eat the vermin on a farm without touching green things; he will kill every rat and mouse in the cellar; he will purge a well of infection and will protect your household at night by driving away dosely pests. Never kill a snake."

BADGE FOR 'MOTHER'S DAY' WILL BE WORN INSTEAD OF FLOWERS

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—(A. P.)—Everybody may wear the same kind of a Mother's Day badge this year, as Anna Jarvis, founder of Mother's Day, which this year is on Sunday, May 8, has designed one to take the place of flowers worn in the past.

The new badge has a white carnation on it and the name Mother's Day International Association of Philadelphia.

"Not any person or society will be authorized to solicit funds for any cause in connection with the name or celebration of Mother's Day.

"Any person or organization using the name of Mother's Day or its celebration on printed or manufactured goods, and endeavoring to obtain money for charities or anything else through them, should be discouraged by the public and reported to the proper authorities.
