OFFICIAL CALL MADE.

The official call for the 21st annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs to be held here May 21, June 1, 2 and 3, has been sent out to subscribers over the entire state. The outline of work as suggested to the state and clubs is presented under the heading of six departments, as follows: American citizenship, applied education, fine arts, legislation, press and publicity, and public welfare.

Oregon club women's attention is called particularly to child welfare, Mrs. Fred Schinke of La Grande is chairman for this state.

At the convention, ten minutes will be allowed for the reports of standing committees.

Resolutions will be read and acted upon each day. All resolutions must be in the hands of the Resolutions committee before noon Wednesday.

All officers, delegates or alternates and chairmen of standing committees will be provided with rooms and breakfasts by the hostess clubs.

DINNER IS GIVEN.

Miss Ada St. Peter, coach for the Junior play, "Green Stockings," presented recently at the high school, and members of the cast, enjoyed a dinner Saturday evening at the Wistaria.

"Stags" names were used for the place cards at a table centered by brilliant red tulips. As a courtesy to Miss St. Peter the students presented her with an attractive gift.

Those present at the affair were Miss St. Peter, Miss Ruth Snow, Shirley Hovel, Miss Emily Dahmer, Miss Marguerite Humphrey, Arthur Frankum, Millard Kennedy, Claude Snow, Miss Irma Dale, Frederick Tohrman, Richard Lawrence, Miss Edna Murphy, Charles McLean and Byron Warner.

MISS VAN NUYS HONORED.

CLUB HAS MEETING.

Of more than usual interest was a meeting of the Current Literature club on Saturday afternoon in the county library with Mrs. J. U. Temple as hostess, the occasion marking the final meeting of the year in the club calendar.

The subject for the afternoon was "American Fiction" and the theme was developed by Mrs. George Clark, who gave a criticism of Herzog's "The American Novel" and a review of one of his books, "Linda Condon." Mrs. C. S. Jerrard, who reviewed Booth Tarkington's "Tarnish," and Mrs. Thomas Vaughan who gave a reading from "Gray Dawn," by White. Pleasing musical numbers included solos by Mrs. Will H. Bennett and Mrs. James Hill.

During the business session, Mrs. Norborne Berkeley, retiring president, gave a report showing the achievements of the club during the past year. Mrs. Berkeley, Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. J. E. Burchill and Mrs. Jerrard were elected as delegates to the state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs to be held here May 21, June 1, 2 and 3. The club is planning a picnic which will be held next week if the weather is fair.

The club rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of lovely dogwood blossoms, Scotch broom and trilliums, the whole color effect being exceptionally charming. During the social hour Mrs. Nancy DeSpain and Mrs. J. E. Burchill presided at the tea table and the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Charles Bond and Mrs. James Welch.

New officers of the club for the ensuing year are Mrs. Snow, president; Mrs. Vaughan, vice president; Mrs. Jerrard, secretary; and Mrs. Welch, treasurer, while the retiring officers are Mrs. Berkeley, president; Mrs. Snow, vice president; Miss Beth Smith, secretary and Mrs. James Welch, treasurer.
