Reports show that of the French military class of 1921 more than seventy-five per cent consists of youths twenty years of age who are fit for military service. This is a high percentage of effectives and the increase is attributed to a decrease in the use of alcohol, the improved living conditions on farms and the spread of sports in France.

PREDICTS DEFEAT OF RADICALS IN COMING ITALIAN ELECTION

Strong Indications That Italy Will Enter on New Era; Devote Time to Reconstruction.

ROME, May 10.—(Henry Wood, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—With the new parliamentary elections on May 15 there is every indication that Italy will enter a new era, where freed from the menace of radicalism and voluntarily giving up her past policy of territorial expansion, she will devote her best energies to international reconstruction, both materially and socially.

This is the electoral program outlined by Premier Giolitti at the moment he dissolved the last chamber and there is every indication that the country responding again to his statesmanship will return a chamber where there will be a big workable majority for carrying out the internal reforms which now constitute Italy's crying need.

The convening of this new chamber on June 11 will mark an epoch in Italy's history from several points of view. First of all, the number of deputies increased to 535 by reason of the newly acquired provinces will give Italy its first chamber representing Italy as a unified whole. These 535 deputies will come from 46 different electoral districts, whereof half a dozen were created out of newly added provinces including Zara, Parenzo, Gorizia, Trieste, Bolzano and Trent.

In the second place, the new chamber will mark that definite epoch which has already been passed by all of the other allied countries, wherein Italy can be said to take up at last the new life created for her by the war.

By the treaty of Rapallo, Giolitti established not only the last disputed boundaries of the new territory acquired by Italy through the war, but established likewise final friendly relations with the Yugoslavs. Italy therefore has acquired the natural strategic frontiers which she has always insisted were indispensable to her national safety and she has established friendly relations with all of the states outgrowing from the breakup of the Austro-Hungarian empire, namely, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Czechoslovakia and Poland. Giolitti also imposed on Italy the giving up of all plans of territorial expansion in Albania and along the eastern Adriatic coast generally.

Radicalism is no longer a danger in Italy and this problem has been settled precisely as it was settled, only more quickly, in France and the northern war countries.

In the new elections, it is expected that both the socialist and popular parties will lose heavily. From the 154 deputies which the socialists elected in the 1919 elections the number is expected from anywhere from 50 to 100.

The broad lines of Italy's internal reconstruction program are the readjustment of the budget so as to wipe out the four billion deficit which still remains; the reformation of Italy's present bureaucratic methods of administration; legal reforms; educational reforms, including not only a greater extension of public education, but the changing of present prescribed courses to meet the needs of modern life; agricultural reforms, including the solving of the problem of the big landed estates, which are not yet under cultivation, and, finally, labor legislation, that will permit of the fullest productivity between labor and capital. This latter includes Giolitti's famous project for the granting to workmen of the right to control or auditing of all the leading industries.

Without question, King Victor Emanuel will confide again to Giolitti the task of forming the new government. At whatever time his government may fall, however, Nitti will without question be the statesman most in view as his successor.

APPROACHES TO WATER FRONT ARE GUARDED BY MOUNTED POLICE

Strikers and Strikebreakers Were Surprised When Halted More Than Block From Dock

BUENOS AIRES, May 10.—(James J. Miller, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—Mounted police, heavily armed, are guarding all approaches to the docks, to prevent clashes between the union and non-union workers. The port is so tightly sealed that recent arrivals are unable to claim their baggage from the customs offices. Strikers and strikebreakers made their way as usual to the docks today, but were surprised when they were halted more than a block from the waterfront. No effort was made to break through the police cordon.

His marriage to Miss Frances C. Lansdale of Wascon county, Minnesota, occurred in 1868. In 1871 he settled in Weston and engaged in farming until appointed postmaster in 1875 by President Hayes. This position he held for many years until his health prevented his continuing the work.

SHRINERS PARADE IS REVIEWED BY HARDING

WASHINGTON, May 10.—(A. P.)—President Harding yesterday reviewed a parade of Shriners held in connection with the 16th annual convention of the national league of Masonic clubs.
Several thousand shriners filed past the executive offices in automobiles and on foot. Two cars collided opposite the president, but there were no casualties.
Smilingly the president declined the invitation shouted at him to "come on and join us," but he demonstrated his familiarity with the rites of the order by giving the grand salute in answer to that extended him. A Shriners seated on a camel almost lost his perch with his approving cry of "at a boy, Mr. President."

MUSICAL TONES ENABLE BLIND TO READ PAPERS

LONDON, May 10.—(A. P.)—Blind persons will now be enabled to read their favorite daily newspaper along with the other members of the family, according to Archibald Barr, emeritus professor of engineering at Glasgow university, who in an address described the mechanism of a British invention for that purpose.

The lecturer explained that the reading was accomplished by producing in a telephone receiver a series of musical notes representing the various letters as these were passed over by the instrument in traversing a line of printing. The sense of hearing, therefore, is employed instead of the sense of sight.

At present the cost of the device is almost prohibitive, but it is hoped soon to make it available to the thousands doomed to darkness through loss of sight.
