APPEARS IN RISCITAL.

Of interest to the Pendleton friends of Mrs. F. O. Freeman, of Big Piney, Wyoming, formerly Miss Harry Young of Pendleton, is the following from The Kemmerer Republican:

At the Parent-Teachers' meeting at the high school auditorium last Friday evening, Mrs. F. O. Freeman gave a musical recital, never equaled in Lincoln county. Mrs. Freeman is a gifted musician, having spent three years under instructions from Egon Firtl at Berlin, also having done considerable work with Godowsky, the world's master pianist.

Mrs. Freeman's audience was very appreciative, as it is seldom that an opportunity presents itself to hear such an artist.

HONORABLE GUEST HONORED.

Honoring her house guest, Mrs. John McLaughlin of Yakima, Washington, Mrs. Floyd Eddy was a charming hostess yesterday afternoon at her home at 715 111th street. The rooms were decorated in yellow lupine and lilacs of the valley, while the tea table was centered with a large bouquet of red tulips. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework and conversation and later a dainty luncheon was served. The guests asked to meet Mrs. McLaughlin were Mrs. Paul Calhoun, Mrs. Lloyd Haskell, Mrs. Frank Erwin and Mrs. Ernest Collins.

MISS GODDARD WEDS.

Miss Anne Goddard and Herbert McKinley Reed, both of this city, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon by Justice Joe H. Parkes. Miss Goddard formerly resided in Boston and is a sister of Al Goddard. Both she and Mr. Reed have many friends here. Following the ceremony, which was attended by only immediate friends and relatives, a wedding supper was given by Wesley Reed father of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Reed will make their home in Pendleton.

MISS NEWQUIST HONORED.

Miss Ethel Newquist was honored at a "surprise" party last evening at her home, 508 Aura street. Games were enjoyed during the evening and later refreshments were served, the feature of the evening being a birthday cake, decorated in candles, and presented by Miss Newquist's sister, Mrs. John Eggers. Guests for the affair were Miss Inez Ford, Miss Blanch Hensel, Miss Bable Hensel, Mr. and Mrs. John Eggers, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas.

PAST PRESIDENTS HERE.

Two past presidents of the State Parent Teacher Association are in Pendleton for the convention. They are Mrs. A. N. Felts, who speaks this afternoon on "U. S. Government," and Mrs. Doris R. Schilke, a member of the convention committee.

RECEPTION ENJOYED.

Scores of Pendleton people attended the reception given last night at the county library in honor of the visiting delegates to the state convention of the Parent Teacher Association of Oregon.

The program, which opened after the invocation by Rev. W. H. Cox, included talks by Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst, state president; Mrs. Anna Reed president of the Portland Grade Teachers Association; Mrs. J. F. Hill, president of the Portland council; Mrs. W. D. McNary, of this city and George Hartman, mayor of Pendleton. Because of illness, Mrs. David O. Meers, national vice-president, is unable to attend the convention. Delightful musical numbers were given by the high school orchestra, and Mrs. Maude L. Woodyard and Mrs. H. E. Inlow each sang a pleasing solo.

As a charming courtesy, Mrs. Hayhurst was presented with a string of pearls, the gift of the various state associations. The presentation was made by Mrs. W. J. Hawkins of Portland. Both Mrs. Hayhurst and Mrs. Hill wore beautiful corsage bouquets of orchids and roses, presented by the Portland associations.

Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed in the library club room, where punch was served by Mrs. L. M. Spalding and Miss Beth Smith.

This evening the presidents of the associations of the state will be guests at a dinner at Parish hall.

GUEST IS HONORED.

Mrs. F. M. Done, who is the house-guest of Mrs. P. C. Peterson, was the honoree yesterday for a party at which Degree of Honor members were guests. Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. C. E. Williamson, at the Peterson home on Perkins avenue. Twenty-five guests were present and the hours were spent in chatting and needlework. A pretty color scheme was carried out in clusters of lavender iris and lilacs, and later in the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostesses.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrown nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight. "Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can get from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

THE BOOK SHELF

NEW BOOKS OF BIOGRAPHY AT THE COUNTY LIBRARY.

Creel—War, the World and Wilson. Mr. Creel tells why Roosevelt was not given to go to France, why General Wood was kept at home, why a coalition cabinet was not formed, why President Wilson wrote his famous election letter.

In the same frank manner, he discusses the failures and achievements of the American war machine, points vividly and dramatically the clash of selfish interests in Paris, and analyzes the Peace Treaty in a chapter that is a masterpiece of clear thinking and splendid presentation. There are brilliant character studies of Lloyd George, Clemenceau, Orlando and Sonnino. The Shantung question and the Adriatic tangle are discussed from the vantage ground of intimate knowledge. The League covenant itself is analyzed and the whole controversy is considered intimately. Here is the truth from inside by a man who knows.

Husband—Americans by Adoption.

Biographical sketches of famous foreign-born Americans whose lives were symbols of the best citizenship. At a time when the spirit of America is so seriously challenged, the story of such achievements is an inspiration not only to those who cherish the ideals for which America stands, but to all foreign-born citizens who will henceforth call this country "home."

Richards—Joan of Arc.

Mrs. Richards, whose books on Florence Nightingale and Abigail Adams are so popular, here tells the thrilling story of Joan of Arc, a tale of absorbing interest today when all the civilized world is filled with love for France. The story of Joan of Arc's life begins with the period when France was torn by civil strife between the rival Burgundian and Armagnac factions. The king was mad, and was under the power of his enemy, the English, and the peasants and townspeople had little chance to live at all. With misery and horror about her on all sides, Joan of Arc became worried about the future of her country; and then, a vision came to her, and she knew that she had been appointed by God to save France. Mrs. Richards tells, in her most entertaining fashion, how Joan was granted an audience with the new young king, how he gave her power to command his troops, and how Orleans was finally saved from the English. Then follow the events which led to the brave and sainted maiden's undoing at the hands of France's enemy. Joan of Arc has
