I. W. W. LEADER WILL RETURN TO UNITED STATES

William D. Haywood Says He Will Serve His 20 Year Term in Leavenworth Prison.

WILL ATTEND MEETING TO BE HELD IN MOSCOW

Makes Statement That His Bondsmen Will Not Suffer Any Financial Losses.

MOSCOW, May 16.—(Wireless to United Press.)—By William Haywood. "Here is my story. On March 3 I retired to the home of friends in New York. Three weeks later I arrived in Moscow. I shall remain here for the convention of the third international, and other meetings. I will return to the United States without question. If I cannot return before my bonds are cancelled, the government may have its equivalent of a pound of flesh which my friends deposited for my appearance. But my bondsmen will not suffer a financial loss from their cancellation."

"I was awakened by a thunderous pealing of church bells on March 24, and informed I was in Moscow, the capital of the workers republic. The dream of my life had come true. Here children do not tell their lives away but are sent to school. They do not receive penny meals, but the largest and best food supplies in the nation. Women are absolutely free—not nationalized as claimed in the bitter lies told in the United States. Every worker receives a month's vacation annually. Industrially, Russia is making wonderful progress. It is the hope of the world."

L. W. W. Leader to Return. LONDON, May 16.—(Copyright United Press.)—William D. Haywood will return to the United States to serve his 20 year term in the Leavenworth prison, it is declared in an exclusive interview wirelessly to the United Press from Moscow.

The I. W. W. leader, whose disappearance brought bitter criticism from his associates who were also under sentence for hampering the nation's war activities, announced he will return after the third international, and other conventions, to have been held in Moscow. Haywood's bondsmen will not suffer any loss, he said.

Bonds Are Forfeited. CHICAGO, May 16.—(U. P.)—The bonds of Haywood and eight other convicted I. W. W. leaders who failed to surrender at Leavenworth prison, were forfeited by order of the circuit court of appeals. The bonds aggregated $50,000.

JAPAN'S CROWN PRINCE IS ENJOYING VISIT IN ENGLAND'S METROPOLIS

Week is Crowded With Experiences Such as None of His Ancestors Ever Knew.

LONDON, May 16.—(A. P.)—Crown Prince Hirohito of Japan has enjoyed a week in London crowded with experiences such as none of his ancestors ever knew. He has shaken hands with many people, posed before cameras, driven about crowded streets without an escort and inspected museums and art galleries with the public.

Outside Windsor castle on Wednesday he and the Prince of Wales were surrounded by a crowd and could not move until the police pushed the people away. Both took the incident cheerfully.

After a three-day state visit in Buckingham palace, Prince Hirohito moved to Chesterfield house. The Japanese court sent word that the prince's visit was principally for study intimating his father would appreciate it if there should be no more formal functions than necessary.

The prince's constant attendant is Viscount Chinda, Japanese minister of foreign affairs. He is responsible for the prince's welfare. According to old-time Japanese traditions it would be Viscount Chinda's duty to commit Haru-kari should any misfortune befall his charge.

At the close of the lord-mayor's luncheon to the prince, the lord mayor announced there would be no speeches. Hirohito promptly rose and said he could not leave without expressing his thanks, delivering a speech in Japanese.

Some persons commented it was the first time Japanese had seen an heir to the throne in a silk hat and frock coat.

MARKETS ARE STEADY. PORTLAND, May 16.—(A. P.)—Markets are steady.

THESE GIRLS CAN RUN. The annual "co-ed" field day at Syracuse University, New York, proved the girls equals of their boy classmates in athletics. Here's Miss Peggy Goerth beating Miss Helen Wood to the 220-yard line.

LOCAL DAIRYMEN WILL LOWER MILK PRICE ONE CENT ON QUARTS AND PINTS JUNE 1; REDUCTION IS FORCED BY F. H. MYTINGER

Pendleton milk prices will drop a cent on each quart June 1, there will also be a cent off on all pint bottles sold. The action to reduce prices was taken at a dairymen's meeting Saturday and the proceedings at the session were said to have been somewhat heated.

F. H. Mytinger led the move to reduce prices and is said to have announced he would cut the price independently of the other dealers if they refused. A reason advanced by Mr. Mytinger is that he has purchased hay for the coming year at a price one-half as high as he was paying a year ago, consequently he believes it but fair to reduce the milk price.

FATHER AND SON ARE DEAD FOLLOWING DUEL ON MOUNTAIN RANCH

Battle Nag Over Myrtle Riker, Wife of Younger Rancher According to Woman's Story.

KALAMA, Wash., May 16.—(U. P.)—Harvey Riker, the father, and Fred Riker, his son, are dead following a savage duel at the Riker ranch, in the mountains east of here. The battle was over Myrtle Riker, wife of the younger rancher, according to the young woman's story. The men battled for half an hour, she said. The elder Riker freed himself long enough to draw his gun. The son, sensing his father's move, yanked a rifle from the cabin wall. They fired simultaneously, at short range, and fell dead facing each other. The rifle fell from the dead rancher, hysterical, running alone through the mountains to the nearest telephone point.

HOWE'S LONDON CIRCUS PLEASES IMMENSE CROWDS AT ITS AFTERNOON PERFORMANCE; SHOW AGAIN TONIGHT

Disgorging its hundreds of performers and employees, hundreds of perfectly matched dapple gray horses, nine elephants, camels, tigers and other animal species, to say nothing of dozens of ponderous cages which contained restless lions, tigers, polar bears, pumas, wolves and hyenas the Howe Great London Circus trains puffed into Pendleton yesterday afternoon and within a few minutes Main street was turned into a lustrous shimmering thoroughfare as the big wagons were transported to the circus location beyond the Round-Up grounds in West Pendleton.

As the elephants majestically followed the creeping wagons, they in turn were followed by hundreds of small boys, and incidentally their duds, for circus arrivals and days are never complete without watching the big tents being erected. That they were erected in short time can be testified to by dozens of little fellows who were called upon in assisting "the lacing" and as a result these boys will see the circus free of charge. They took to the work with the same vim that others "carried water for the elephants."

A BIG MIXED PROGRAM. The program presented by the Howe Circus is quite unlike that of any other circus playing Pendleton, inasmuch as it is a diversified or mixed program containing both circus and theatrical and animal features, which were presented with a rapidity that was astonishing. There were acrobats, trapeze flying-ladder, tumblers, bareback-riders and leopards all mixed up with a sort of systematic conglomeration with elephants, lions, tigers, bears, wolves, trained pigs, dogs and monkeys to say nothing of novel camel and horse acts which were entirely new. The Howe Dancing Horses presented an equine torphichorean stunts which brought forth the greatest applause. Pendleton is a foremost admirer of good and well trained horses but never has a circus ever presented an act of this nature which can be called equal to the Howe horses.

Taking the program of the Howe Great London Circus as a whole, it is a clean, well-balanced and meritorious presentation of considerable magnitude and it made a favorable impression with the Pendletonians. There will be another performance this evening at 8 o'clock and all those who care for a circus will spend a delightful two hours with Lord Easton R. Howe.

Alien Residents of U. S. Have No Legal Right to Demand Admittance of Relatives.

Government Won in Contention That Increased Assets Must be Considered in Profits.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—(A. P.)—Alien residents in the United States have no legal right to demand admittance of their relatives, the supreme court ruled in upholding a California decision against Yee Wun's effort to bring his wife and two minor children with him on his return to this country from a visit to China. Does Not Invalidate Measure. WASHINGTON, May 16.—(A. P.)—Requirements that the prohibition amendment be ratified within seven years by three-fourths of the states does not invalidate the measure, the supreme court ruled today upholding the lower courts refusal of the petition for writ of habeas corpus asked by J. J. Dillon, of San Francisco. Dillon was arrested while transporting a case of wine. His counsel asserted that section three of the amendment, originally proposed by Senator Harding, placed limitation on the legislative action and was therefore unconstitutional.

BOOTH SPACE IN HAPPY CANYON FOR CARNIVAL IS ASSIGNED THIS A. M.

Slight Alterations in Floor Plans Were Made in Order to Make Room for All.

Assignment to places in Happy Canyon for booth room for the Merchants and Manufacturers' Carnival to be held May 26-27, was made this morning, and the big room was a busy place while the choice was made.

Under the plan that was followed the different kinds of exhibits were first placed in three classes, and then each corner was assigned space in its own division.

Fifty booths with 10-foot frontage will be occupied by mercantile and manufacturing interests of the city, slight alterations in the floor plan had to be made this morning in order to make room for all the concerns, that are participating in the big event. As it is, everyone who wanted space has secured it, but a number of firms wanted double the space they received. A spirit of cooperation prevailed in the changes that were necessitated to give everyone a chance.

All the exhibits were placed in one of the three classes. In the first class was included grocers, meat markets and other perishables. In the second class are included dry goods establishments, men's clothing, ladies ready to wear and shoes. Hardware dealers, druggists, furniture, builders' supplies and manufacturers are included in the third class.

The skeleton framework construction for the booths is about all finished now by the carpenters, and the concerns will be getting busy on the decorating and planning of their exhibits. All decorations will be made by the individual firms. Some new schemes are being developed for exhibits that promise to make the affair a real eye-opener for the people of Umatilla county.

PREFERENCE FOR NAT'L CONTRACT EXPRESSED BY UMATILLA COUNTY WHEAT GROWERS' MEETING HERE

"You Umatilla county wheat farmers are about as hard-headed a lot as I ever ran up against," was the comment of U. L. Burdick, of N. Dakota, one of the 21 men composing the board of directors of the United States Grain Growers' Corporation, when he addressed a body of more than 50 members of the county farm bureau at the Elks hall Saturday afternoon. The meeting was held to gauge sentiment among the membership as to what action should be taken toward joining, or refusing to join the ranks of the Oregon Cooperative Grain Growers' Association.

As a result of the meeting, a "middle of the road" policy was adopted, local farmers expressing themselves overwhelmingly in favor of the contract offered by the national organization which gives them a wider latitude in disposing of their crop. The Oregon organization calls for a 100 per cent pool, and the national contract gives three alternatives, direct sale, sale of consignment, or pooling. Thirty-three farmers in attendance at the meeting declared by voting that they liked the national contract and would sign it, but only six voted to sign the state organization's contract if they were denied the right of signing the national contract.

Bureau Backs Bennon. Reference to "steam roller" tactics which delegates to The Dalles meeting of the day before declared was practiced on the Umatilla county farmers gave rise to a discussion about it. The attitude of the local men as to their fairness, and on a motion presented by Dave Nelson, the body unanimously voted its confidence in Fred Bennon for his refusal to commit the wheat farmers of this county to joining forces with the state growers' association at this time under present conditions.

Mr. Bennon made a report of the meeting of the executive committee's which was held prior to the open meeting in which wages for hay hands were set at $2.50 a day, with no change in the present monthly rate of $50. He also reported that arrangements have been made with the Standard Oil Co. whereby that company will ship in a good grade of distillate for use during harvest season at a cost of 22-1/2 cents a gallon at Pendleton. The committee recommended that orders be signed for delivery from the company at present furnishing the supply of distillate now being purchased by the Farm Bureau direct, and that these orders be held in abeyance until it is

EMULATES EXAMPLE OF PAUL REVERE AND GETS 12 DAYS IN CITY JAIL

Because he got drunk and tried to emulate the example set by Paul Revere by riding a horse at breakneck speed over the streets of Pendleton, Tom Sheway, an Indian, now languishes in the city jail.

The Indian seemed to get a lot of inspiration from his "joke" in fact he was so confident of his ability to show the world the meaning of speed that his performance was a direct challenge to Traffic Officer William Lyday. The challenge was accepted, and the Indian on his horse led "Bill a merry chase" clear out to the county hospital, where he was finally overtaken. Twenty-five dollars or 12 days was the sad story told the offender when he faced Judge Fitz Gerald this morning. Circumstances compelled him to accept the latter.

(East Oregonian Special.) ECHO, Or., May 16.—Paul Bowman of Echo was shot in the leg, with a shotgun, by E. F. Sommers about 9 o'clock last evening. Early in the evening a man was seen peeping into a window of the Bell home. Mrs. Bell did not recognize the man. Later the performance was repeated and Sommers who lives across the street was called upon. With shotgun in hand Sommers called upon the man to stop and when the man started to run Sommers fired.
