WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED

Of interest to Pendleton people was the marriage of Miss Elvira Christine Coleman of Pendleton yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian manse with Rev. George L. Clark officiating.

The bride wore a blue tulle, with corsage of pink sweet peas and roses, and her hat was of silver gray. Mrs. Thomas Robertson was matron of honor and Lawrence O'Sullivan was best man. Only a few friends and relatives were present. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman left for Spokane for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home at the Downey apartments.

The bride who is a girl of great charm, is the daughter of Mrs. A. M. Coleman. Mr. Coleman is well known in musical circles in Pendleton and has won success on the stage as a Scotch comedian. During the war, he served overseas as a member of the 143rd Field Artillery.

Honoring the bride, Mrs. Thomas Robertson was hostess yesterday at a one o'clock luncheon preceding the ceremony. A color scheme of yellow was used and roses in this shade centered the table at which covers were laid for the honoree. Mr. Coleman, Mrs. Coleman, Miss Bessie Robertson, Miss Frances Robertson, and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson.

MISS TAYLOR WEDS

Miss Lucille Taylor, of Athena, became the bride of Philip Allen Yenny on Saturday afternoon at the home of

MISS CHENEY WEDS.

Miss Ada Cheney, formerly of this city, and George M. Campbell, of Bakersfield, California, were married in that city on Saturday evening, according to word received today by local friends. The ceremony was performed in the Christian Tabernacle with Rev. Fife officiating, the ring service being used.

The bride wore a lovely wedding gown of white georgette over white satin and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Mae Campbell, sister of Mr. Campbell, was bridesmaid and Henry Voorhies was best man. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Fife. During the ceremony, the Flower Song and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played.

Later a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride, covers being laid for thirty guests. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are now at Yosemite park on a wedding tour and will return later to make their home in Bakersfield.

The bride, who is a charming girl, spent her childhood in Pendleton, going later to California where she attended school. She has often visited in Pendleton. Mr. Campbell during the war spent two years in France as a member of a machine gun company and rose to the rank of lieutenant during his army service.

MISS JOHNSON WEDS.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Harriette Johnson, formerly of this city, and Frederick Lawrence Lester, of Portland, was received in Pendleton today.

The wedding occurred on Saturday evening in Portland at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. J. Burke, with Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner officiating. The bride chose for her wedding gown a frock of bisque colored satin, the skirt of which was trimmed with rows of tiny ruffles. Her hat was of navy blue.

Miss Johnson, who is the daughter of H. P. Johnson, a niece of Mrs. J. P. Robinson of this city, she is a girl of attractive personality and has many friends in Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Lester will make their home in Portland.
