Lampkin Is Now Home.
F. W. Lampkin, who is recovering from a broken leg, is now at his home on High street, having left the hospital yesterday. Mr. Lampkin is getting around some on crutches now but is not leaving the house.

Al Feels The Pulse
Pendleton was chief of policeless Wednesday. Chief Al Roberts was in Portland to confirm a rumor that he had heard to the effect that he had been eliminated from the race for United States marshal.—Oregon Journal.

Wants to Locate Here.
A letter from P. W. Quinn, who has been working in Morenci, Ariz., has been received at the offices of the Commercial Association. Quinn gives his occupation as bookkeeping, and due to the impending closing down of the mining company in whose employ he now is, he desires to find a place in Pendleton if possible. Two years' experience in his work and ability to furnish bonds and references are noted in the letter. He says he had three years' service in the army during the recent war.

Rainfall Is .65.
The rainfall last night and this morning reached a total of .65 of an inch. The maximum temperature today is 68, the minimum 56 and the barometer registers 29.36.

Rain Is Welcome
Farmers are welcoming the heavy showers of rain which fell last night and this morning. The stands of wheat are unusually thick this year and plenty of moisture will be needed between now and harvest, to prevent burning.

Funeral Is Held.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Anna Top, aged 69, was held yesterday in Freewater at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. K. Noerdhoff. She was born in Marion county, Iowa, April 4, 1852, and died at Freewater on Wednesday. Interment will be made at Lynden, Washington, tomorrow.

Meeting at Weston
Arrangements for better potato seed production and seed certification will be made at a meeting of Weston Mountain potato growers tomorrow evening. W. S. Carpenter, of the farm crops department of O. A. C., and Fred Benison, county agent, will go to Weston to hold the meeting and will interest growers in better potatoes.

Pilot Rock Men Here.
A delegation of Modern Woodmen from Pilot Rock was here last night to attend the meeting of the Pendleton lodge. O. H. Action and Jack L. House were two Pilot Rock men who were included in the class that was initiated. Others who were here from the south end of the county include G. F. Jones and Wilbur and Walter Jones, Frank Howe, Grant W. Bailey and Oscar Beck.

Local People Honored
Several local people were honored at the recent state I. O. O. F. and Rebekah convention held in Albany. R. F. Kirpatrick, retiring grand patriarch, was made representative of the sovereign grand lodge for a term of two years. Mrs. Nettie Whetstone was made president of the Rebekah assembly and S. F. Bowman was chosen deputy grand master of the I. O. O. F. E. E. Sharon, formerly of Pendleton was elected grand scribe for his twenty-eighth consecutive term.

Delegates Want Rooms.
Applications for reservations for rooms during the coming state convention of the Grand Army of the Republic which will be held in Pendleton continue to pour in at the office of the Commercial Association. The number who are seeking places indicates that the attendance is going to be large, and up to the present very few of the requests for reservations have been filled. Claude Barry, secretary of the association, desires to get in touch with residents who will co-operate in seeing that the visitors are properly cared for during their visit here. Any information about rooms should be telephoned to the office as quickly as possible.

HOW MANY MEN COULD MAKE A PASSING MARK SPELLING THESE WORDS

Fifty words that struck the linotype man as rather difficult to spell are included in the list that was submitted to eighth grade students of Oregon this year as a part of the examination they must pass to secure their diplomas.

HELIX HIGH SCHOOL ENJOYS DAY'S OUTING

(East Oregonian Special)

HELIX, May 20.—The Helix high school students and faculty spent Friday at Bingham Springs. The day was ideal and a grand outing was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Alma Boff and children of St. Johns, Wash., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hutchinson.

There was a large attendance at the commencement exercises of the Helix high school which was held Thursday evening in the Christian church. Dr. W. H. Bleakney of Walla Walla delivered the address to the graduates which was enjoyed by all. Musical numbers were given by the primary grades, the 8th grade girls and the girls from the high school. The following were the members of the class: Benjamin Nelson, Myron Shannon, Marie Kupers, Elva Bledsoe, Lloyd Davidson, Randolph Cook, DeLoe Robertson.

Miss America Hutchinson who has been teaching near St. Johns, Wash., the past year has returned to Helix.

Friends are glad to know that Dr. J. Griswold has recovered from his recent illness.

The Helix baseball team defeated the Weston team on the local diamond Sunday. The score being 12 to 4.

Miss Elva Bledsoe, who has been attending Helix high school the past year has returned to her home at Wapato, Wash.

Mrs. W. H. Dale and daughter Miss Irena were Helix visitors Thursday and attended the high school graduation exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shannon and family left Saturday by auto for a tour of the Willamette valley. They will visit Eugene where their son Myron, a recent graduate of the Helix high school, expects to enter the University next fall.

Miss Lila Ault, teacher in the local high school left for her home at Enterprise Saturday.

W. E. Potts and son Edward were Walla Walla visitors Monday.

Mrs. Matlock of La Cross, Wash., is a guest at the home of her daughter Mrs. Geo. Piper.

Miss Elora Clements, teacher of the 5th and 6th grades in the local school left Saturday for her home at Salem.

M. D. Smith local merchant, is a business visitor in Portland and Seattle.

Mrs. D. Kendall has returned from a visit with friends at Pasco, Wash.

Miss Elva Alexander who has made her home with her sister Mrs. Odney Richardson the past year and attended the local high school left for her home at Midvale, Idaho, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kern formerly of Helix now living in California have been recent visitors in Helix.

Miss Leoni Dausner who has attended the Helix high school the past year left Wednesday to join her mother near St. Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Penland attended the annual association of the Baptist churches of Umatilla county held at Milton-Freewater on Sunday.

Helix people are looking forward to Chautauqua week which will be June 15-22 inclusive. A good program is assured.

PARIS, May 20.—(A. P.)—Plays are to be presented in that part of Syria over which France was given a mandate by the League of Nations, as a part of the French propaganda there.

Shake Into our Shoes

Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes and sprinkled in the foothold. The Plattburg amp Manual advises men in training to use Foot-Ease in their shoes each morning. It prevents blisters and sore spots and relieves painful, swollen, marling feet and takes the sting out of corns and bunions. Always use Allen's Foot-Ease to break in new shoes.

THE PIPE-FITTING ART

We have mastered. No matter how intricate the job may be, our experts will solve the difficulty and turn out a highly satisfactory result. The best proof of this is the work we are doing daily on the most important sanitary plumbing contracts in the city. You can be sure the job and the equipment will be first class when we handle it.
