Real Storm at Sea Shown in William Farnum Picture

One of the most thrilling sights possible on the screen is the sinking of a ship in a storm—even if the storm is "made to order." But there are storms—and storms. Those who were concerned in the making of the storm scene in "The Scuttlers," which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre today declare they got the thrill of their lives.

Even William Farnum, the popular William Fox star, who has been in many thrilling scenes, says this scene surely made his red blood run fast, and the cameraman who photographed the picture are willing to sign a statement that they want no more thrills of this calibre.

The action took place outside of San Francisco on board a 250-foot ship, taken over by the Fox company for the purpose. J. Gordon Edwards was directing the picture. The day was rather mean and threatening, but this gave the grey light necessary for the scenes. Mr. Edwards intended to pump the storm from the ocean in the customary motion picture way; but the vessel had hardly pushed its way beyond the three-mile limit when rain began to fall, and a high wind dashed the waves over the ship. At first Mr. Edwards, as he balanced himself on the rolling deck, thought it would be well to return to port.

"Just the kind of weather we want," Farnum insisted. "Put an umbrella over the camera, Gordon—and this ought to be corking stuff."

So a shelter was made for the camera and the storm scenes taken. Little rehearsal was needed. The real action was there. The company didn't try to act. What the members endeavored to do was to keep on their feet. Their faces, too, expressed the right emotion. One man became too realistic. He got seasick and had to be taken out of the line of the camera.

USE OF ROADWAY AS DUMPING PLACE FOR TRASH ANGERS COURT

People of Pendleton or vicinity who have been using the roadside from the Lee street bridge to the top of the hill for a place to dump rubbish and trash have incurred the displeasure of the members of the county court, and if they are caught in the act of repeating the performance prosecution with stiff fines will be meted to them.

That is the attitude taken by members of the court following an investigation made yesterday following a complaint by the Lee street club that the roadway was being littered. The inspection disclosed that the complaint was well founded.

The material already on the ground will be either burned, or hauled away. Judge Schanep declared today, and anyone who uses the place for a dumping ground will do so at his own risk with that assurance that if he is caught a stiff punishment will be his reward.

ITALY SEEKS COAL FREEDOM IN U. S.

NEW YORK, May 20.—(U. P.)—America's hydraulic-electric plants are to serve as a model for Italy's gigantic undertaking of the electrification of her state railways.

For the purpose of studying the principal American installations as a basis for the Italian project a commission of leading Italian technicians are now traveling in the United States.

Italy's decision to electrify her rail ways and all industrial plants possible is the result of the first great economic lesson learned by Italy during the war.

As absolutely no coal exists in Italy, she is at the present time the slave of whatever foreign country can provide her with coal. Similarly any country, such as France, England or Germany, that cared to cut off Italy's coal supply could reduce her to subjection in a few weeks without firing a single gun. The effect on Italy's finances of being obliged to buy coal abroad is equally disastrous especially on her exchange. Hence Italy's decision to establish at the earliest possible moment her economic independence by the transformation of her almost unlimited hydraulic possibilities into electrical energy.

The first project for the electrification of the state railways provides for six thousand kilometers. As a matter of fact the great bulk of the railways in northern Italy are already electrified and the carrying out of the above program practically the entire state system beyond the menace of any foreign coal power.

The mission which will study the American hydraulic installations and which will spend several months here is composed of Engineering Professor Guido Semenza of Milan as chief of the mission; Engineering Professor Gian Giacomo Ponti of Milan; Marchese Ferdinando Cusani Confalonieri of Milan; Engineer Commendatore Cesare Scatelli colonel of engineers and director of transportation of the Italian general staff; Engineer Commendatore Carlo del Bevilacqua, representing the Italian state railways.

The principal electrical plants in the United States will be visited and studied.

DON'T MENTION IT, SAYS ENGLISHMAN

LONDON, May 20.—(U. P.)—An attempt to amend American history will be made at a conference of Anglo-American Professors of History, to be held here in July.

Among the subjects to be discussed is a proposal that Americans should eliminate from their public school histories all passages which exaggerate the old antagonism between Britain and the United States and the causes of the War of Independence. It is believed here that most Americans are of the opinion that the British example should be followed. For several years British public school histories have been purged of all references likely to cause offense.

Over thirty teachers of history are expected to come from the United States to attend the conference, and Professor Earle B. Babcock, head of the American University Union in Paris, will represent the New York University.

ATE DOG AND LIKED IT.

BEIHERT, Colo., May 20.—(U. P.)—A banquet at which baked prairie dog was the principal item on the menu was served to 26 citizens of Beihert recently, in honor of officials of the White Cloud Mining Company here. The prairie dog dish was augmented by trimmings of mashed potatoes, gravy and salad. Persons who had seen prairie dogs for years, for the first time realized what good meat they had been passing up.

ODESSA SEEMED LIKE MADHOUSE TO WOMAN WHO MADE ESCAPE

Mrs. Anna Keiser Left Country as British Subject and Went to Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 20.—(A. P.)—Mrs. Anna Keiser, of Philadelphia, who recently arrived here, after having been allowed to leave Odessa as a British subject, says that in leaving that city she felt as if she were escaping from a madhouse. Odessa now is ruled by the Bolsheviks, Mrs. Keiser is the widow of Eli Keiser, formerly of Philadelphia who died in Odessa and she is the daughter of Mrs. B. Miller of 1555 North Irving Avenue, Chicago, to whose home she hopes to return.

"I want to spend the rest of my time until Bolshevism falls telling what terrible people they are," she said. "It is a crime in Soviet Russia to criticize. If any of us complained of being hungry we were taken before a tribunal and the officers who are trying to do away with intelligent people and were then thrown into prison to die of typhus and hunger."

"I got along partly because I wasn't afraid. After my husband died I didn't care what happened to me. I lived by giving lessons in English. Once, when women without working papers, mostly widows and daughters of well-to-do families were being gathered together and sent to the farms and garrisons to clean up for the soldiers, the guards tried to take me. MILITARY NECESSITY BOWS TO SENTIMENT

HONOLULU, T. H., May 20.—Even military necessity bows before sentiment. This was exemplified here recently when military road under construction back of Schofield barracks, twenty-five miles from Honolulu, took a detour to avoid an ancient Hawaiian landmark.

The road was being constructed through the Kolekole pass of the Waianae range when it came to an ancient Hawaiian sacrificial stone which balances on the almost knife-like edge of the pass. The stone was in the way of the engineers, but, under orders from Major General Charles G. Morton, in command of the Hawaiian department of the army, the route was altered to pass the sacrificial rock and leave the remainder of ancient days intact.

COMMITTS SAME OFFENSE. CALDWELL, Idaho, May 20.—(U. P.)—Harold Weeks, paroled for a week following his conviction on a charge of stealing his father's car, tired of the monotony and proceeded to break parole by the simple process of stealing the same car again.

He will be taken to St. Anthony by Deputy Sheriff Bigger. The Weeks family car will remain in Caldwell.

REMEMBER to ask your grocer for Calumet Baking Powder and be sure that you get the Indian Head on the orange label.

Then forget about bake day failures. For you will never have any. Calumet always produces the sweetest and most palatable foods.

It never varies in quality—And now remember, you always use less than of most other brands because it possesses greater leavening strength.

Now Remember—Always Use

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

BEST BY TEST

There is no waste. If a recipe calls for one egg—two cups of flour—half a cup of milk—that's all you use. You never have to re-bake.

Calumet is absolutely sure. In any baking—any time, whether the can has just been opened or whether it is the last spoonful.

Contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by U. S. Food Authorities—and is the product of the largest, most modern and sanitary Baking Powder Factories in existence.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
