JOHN CROW, PROMINENT FARMER OF UMATILLA COUNTY, DIES TODAY

Mr. Crow was known as friend of Umatilla Indians and of Presbyterian Mission.

John Crow, Sr., aged 66, prominent Umatilla county man and one of the first farmers of the reservation, died at noon today after a long illness. He had been bedfast for several months. Mr. Crow was born February 2, 1855, near Oregon City. He came to Umatilla county 42 years ago and settled on the reservation. He was one of the county's most successful farmers, and while he was affected by the financial crisis of 1893, he regained his fortune in later years. Mr. Crow was known as a friend of the Umatilla Indians and of the Presbyterian Mission.

PENDLETON'S ANNUAL ROSE SHOW WILL BE HELD SOMETIME IN JUNE

Pendleton is to hold its annual Rose Show some time in June and the showing of lovely blossoms will be under the auspices of the Pendleton Women's Club, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. E. T. Wade, president. The date for the show is indefinite and will depend upon the rose season, but it is thought that the blossoms will be ready by about June 5. The show will be held in the county library. Each year hundreds of choice blooms are displayed and the Rose Show is one of the most pleasing of the events of early summer in Pendleton.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS FIGHT TO KEEP FORD-NEWBERRY CASE ALIVE

MEMORIAL DAY WILL CENTER ATTENTION ON SOLDIER RELIEF

Basis for Americanization of Future Seen in Action to be Taken by Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The coming of another Memorial Day, the proclamation for which has just been issued by the President, is serving to center attention upon the relief measures pending in Congress for the disabled veterans of the World War. As a result, these promises to be much in the minds of those who participate either in speakers or spectators at the Memorial Day exercises. Due to the intensive drive being made in behalf of adequate hospital facilities for the ill, a public sentiment has been built up back of hospitalization and similar measures in Congress which promises to bring results in an short order as is possible.

That the very foundation of successful Americanization movements from now on may be found in the sense of satisfaction developed on the part of World War veterans over a recognition by Congress of their claim upon the sympathies and the support of the American people, is being suggested. The organization of Legion forces in a practical way for the purpose of furthering the interests of the members by being amalgamated by activities within the individual States. In Iowa, for example, the State department has adopted as a slogan, "Service for Our Buddies." This or similar rallying cries are being adopted in other States.

The President, in his proclamation, said in part: "I invite my fellow citizens fittingly to pay homage on this Memorial Day to a noble dead who sleep in homelands beneath the stars, or on foreign fields, but who survive might enjoy the blessings of peace and happiness and to the end that liberty and justice, without which no nation can exist, shall live forever."

CHINESE TONG WARS TAKE SERIOUS TURN

SACRAMENTO, May 21.—(U. P.)—Chinese tong wars took a serious turn when 50 members of the Hip Sing Tong gathered a group of Hing Kong in a general merchandise store at Locke, set fire to the store and began shooting into the burning building. The police and citizens were attracted by the blaze, routed the attacking highlanders and rescued the prisoners from the burning building.

PAPERS WALLS WITH NOTES

GENEVA, May 21.—(A. P.)—Papering the walls with Austrian banknotes proved such a good advertisement for a St. Gall restaurant that other innkeepers have taken up the idea. They have found that the cost is little more than that of good wall paper.

NEWARK, N. J., May 21.—(U. P.)—Mrs. Mabel Connelly, 19 years of age, suicided in a movie theater after Elmer J. Broadwell, also 19, refused her proposal of marriage.

MOST IMPRESSIVE OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY EVER HELD IN CITY IS BEING PLANNED FOR THIS YEAR

Program is in Charge of Pendleton Post No. 23, American Legion and Others.

One of the most impressive observances of Memorial Day ever held in Pendleton is planned for this year when the program will be in charge of Pendleton Post No. 23, American Legion. Cooperating with the legionnaires will be the Spanish American Veterans and the men of the G. A. R. to insure that an opportunity for local people to remember in fitting manner the services of former soldiers and sailors is extended. The program will include a parade in the cemetery in which the place of honor will be accorded to veterans of the Civil War. Other civic and fraternal organizations have been extended an invitation to participate, and the committee in charge has received assurance from organized labor, the Commercial Association and lodges that their memberships will form a column to march to the cemetery.

Chairman Democratic National Committee Urges Committee to Keep Investigation Going

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(U. P.)—Democratic leaders, determined to keep the Ford-Newberry case alive, planned a fight to prevent the senate elections committee investigation of the matter from being abandoned. George White, chairman of the democratic national committee, urged Senator Pomeroy to Ohio, ranking democrat on the committee, to keep the investigation going.

ROOSEVELT HIGHWAY GOES THROUGH CITY

That the Roosevelt highway will be routed through Pendleton was stated today by A. W. Tracey, representative, in a talk before the local auto club at a luncheon at the Hotel Pendleton at noon today. The affair in honor of Mr. Tracey was also attended by a number of Walla Walla men headed by Mayor Ben Hill. From here Mr. Tracey goes to The Dalles and he will be driven down by D. H. Nelson. The route of the Roosevelt highway through this section, as outlined by Mr. Tracey, will be from Spokane to Pendleton via Colfax, Lewiston, Dayton and Walla Walla. From here to Portland the highway will follow the Columbia highway.

CREST OF FLOOD NEAR; EXPECTED IT WILL BE STATIONARY TUESDAY

Columbia River at Lewiston, Wenatchee and Umatilla Continues to Rise Rapidly.

PORTLAND, May 21.—(A. P.)—Possibility that the crest of the flood is near is indicated by a weather bureau prediction that the Willamette, which is flooded by backwater from the Columbia, will be nearly stationary Tuesday, following the predicted stage of 2-1 and 1-10 Monday. The Willamette today is 19 and 3-16, a rise of one and one-tenth.

The Columbia continued rising except at Lewiston, where a drop of six-tenths is reported. Wenatchee is 32, a rise of one and four tenths; Lewiston is 18 5-16; Umatilla, 21 1-10, a rise of one and two tenths; The Dalles, 34 1-16, a rise of 1 7-16.

Lower Docks Under Water. PORTLAND, May 21.—(A. P.)—A full in the rising flood of the Willamette river at Portland is announced by the weather bureau but a warning is issued that the halts are only temporary, and the lower business section along Front street probably will be under water early next week. All commission houses and business firms in the district are moving their stocks. Docks are being cleared of freight. The lower docks are already under four feet of water.

River May Rise. PORTLAND, May 21.—(A. P.)—Forecasters here said that while the river would be nearly stationary Tuesday, a further rise may result if the heavy melting snow in the mountains continues.

FREIGHT TRAIN HELD UP BY 26 BOLD ROBBERS

Bandits Hold Train Crew at Bay With Revolvers, Obtain Valuable Merchandise.

TRAIN WAS DELAYED 46 MINUTES TO REMOVE LOOT

Six Motor Trucks Were Used to Haul Away Goods; Hold-up Was Carefully Planned.

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y., May 21.—(U. P.)—Bandits stopped the westbound fast freight on the New York Central railroad's Sanborn branch near here, held the fireman and engineer at bay with revolvers, robbed the cars of merchandise valued at $45,000, then escaped. About 26 bandits took part in the holdup, and six motor trucks were used to haul the loot.

The train was stopped as it was going up a heavy grade. There were 26 bandits all armed. The crew was easily overpowered. The robbers stopped the train fully 45 minutes to remove the loot. Sixteen cars were broken open. When the train reached Lockport later it was described by railroad men as "half empty." The holdup was well planned, the detective said. A trail was left for a short distance behind the fleeing trucks by bolts of silk and other merchandise which joggled out. Scores of detectives and possees are scouring the country for the robbers, but no clues to the robbers has been obtained.
