Hand Is Broken Perry Idleman has an alibi for his alleged poor showing in several ball games of late in the fact that he car-ried around with him a broken hand for two weeks. He discovered that a bone had been broken when an X-ray of his right hand was taken yesterday, and the picture disclosed that one of the small bones near the wrist had been fractured. The bone was beginplayed in two Twilight League games after the bone was fractured, and now after the bone was fractured, and new his chief function is to warm the bench ind "rag the umps."

Pickups Win Game

A game of ball that was scheduled be between the Presbyterians and Methodists last night in the Twilight League resolved itself into a con est between the Methodists and dekup aggregation. The "strays" won he game, but the Methodists claim, and Friedly and Stordivant catchers that if it had not been for rotten umring they would have fared a lo better. The final score was 10 to 1. batteries were Traylor and Ulrich pitchers and Thompson and Sturdivant | Coffee" is being demonstrated today in atchers, for the Methodist and Me-linuis, Hayes and Johnson, pitchers, by Miss Betty FitzJorrell, Miss Fitz
