NEW YORK'S BLIND WILL SOON TAKE VACATION

NEW YORK, May 25.—(U. P.)—The blind people of New York City are getting ready for their summer vacation. Perched high above the gleaming river at Cornwall-on-Hudson in the midst of eight acres of richest Orange County farm land, stands a big old fashioned house with broad verandas. It is called the River Lighthouse and is the playground of the sightless, maintained by the New York Association for the Blind.

Beginning June 15, groups of blind persons are conducted there by sighted guides for twelve day visits throughout

Climbing Elephants Is Easy!

It's in the blood of sailors to clamber up and down masts and hatchways. They can't resist it even on land. This group on leave in New York, went to Coney Island and couldn't resist the chance to "go aloft" on elephants.

The River Lighthouse is one of four projects maintained by the New York Association for the blind. There are also the Burns Workshop for men, the Boarding House for Men and the Lighthouse, an industrial school for

"You Save Money" says the Good Judge

And get more genuine chewing satisfaction, when you use this class of tobacco.

This is because the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often.

And a small chew gives more real satisfaction than a big chew of the ordinary kind ever did.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
