D. OF H. ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Lee Brown and Mrs. Otto Nelson entertained the members of the Degree of Honor yesterday afternoon at their home on Johnson street. Cut flowers and potted plants formed the decorations. The afternoon was spent in music, sewing and chatting, with a unique guessing contest as a diversion, the prize being won by Mrs. Charles H. Conroy and the consolation prize going to Miss Lizzie Peterson.

The members welcomed Mrs. Brady of Spokane lodge who has come to Pendleton to reside and also Mrs. J. W. Brown of Portland.

A delicious lunch was served late in the afternoon by the hostesses who were assisted by Mrs. Harry McFarland.

Pendleton homes, where rooms and breakfast will be provided. Some local hostesses are planning to entertain their guests for luncheon and dinner as well.

MRS. McDONALD RETURNS.

Mrs. E. J. Murphy received word today that her cousin, Mrs. Magie McDonald, and her two children, have returned from a trip to Scotland. They were met at Washington, D. C., by Mrs. James McCall, formerly of this city and the party went from there to West Virginia to visit at the McCall home, Mr. McCall being Mrs. McDonald's cousin. Mrs. McDonald will return here later.

BIRTHDAY DINNER GIVEN.

A birthday dinner was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howers in honor of Mrs. Howers' birthday. Cut flowers decorated the table where a birthday cake, lighted with candles, was a feature of the menu. Guests were Miss Viola Terrell, Miss Elizabeth La Hue, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mentzer, Donald Mentzer, and Herbert Craver.

P. T. A. TO MEET.

The high school Parent Teacher association will meet tonight at the county library. H. E. Inlow will speak and Mrs. Charles Bonney will give a report of the P. T. A. convention. The freshmen of the high school will give several numbers and Mrs. Shirley Rew will be on the program.

RECITAL TO BE GIVEN.

Mrs. C. E. Heard will present her pupils in piano recital Monday night, June 6th at 8:15 at the Presbyterian Church.

MRS. BISHOP TO ARRIVE.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop will arrive this evening from Salem to be the guest of her son Chaucey Bishop, during the state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs to which Mrs. Bishop will be a delegate.

The state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs to which Mrs. Bishop will be a delegate.

DINNER DANCE GIVEN.

A delightful social event of last evening was a progressive dinner dance at which thirty Pendletonians were guests.

Mrs. Kenneth McRae, Mrs. L. D. Ideman and Mrs. Perry Ideman were hostesses for the first course, at the home of Mrs. McRae where cut flowers were used for decorating. Mrs. M. L. Akers, Mrs. C. S. Cole and Mrs. Alger Fee entertained the guests for the salad course at the home of Mrs. Akers where cherry blossoms were a beautiful decoration.

At the D. L. Johnson home, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. L. E. Twitcheil, Mrs. Ivan Dimick and Mrs. D. C. Brown were hostesses. Here the dinner course was served, with California poppies decking the table.

Dessert served by candlelight amid a profusion of roses, was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. W. R. Wyrick with Mrs. Wyrick, Mrs. Jack Winer, Mrs. W. S. Reichert and Mrs. C. J. Hanson as hostesses.

Later several hours of dancing were enjoyed at the J. N. Scott home, the hostesses being Mrs. Scott and Mrs. H. Struve. Tulips were used in decorating. Receiving the guests at the door and presiding at the punch table during the evening were Miss Margaret Scott and Miss Pauline Scott, young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Scott. They were charming in frocks of fluffy white.

LEAVE ON WEDDING TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson arrived this morning from Portland and will leave this evening for a month's wedding trip through Canada and a visit to Banff. Their wedding was an event of Tuesday evening in Portland at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. N. L. Williams, with Rev. Taylor, of Grace Memorial Church, officiating. Only immediate relatives were present.

SHOWER IS GIVEN.

Honoring Miss Louise Schultz, whose marriage to William Schorn will be a June event, a number of friends called at the schorn home last evening for a surprise "shower." The honoree received many charming gifts, after which refreshments were served.

WILL LEAVE FOR LEXINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson and son, Jimmie Ferguson, will leave on Saturday for a motor trip to Lexington, Nebraska, and to Iowa, where they will visit for several months as the guests of relatives.

MRS. STORIE TO BE HOSTESS.

Mrs. Anna Storie will entertain the ladies of the Riverside Needle club Friday afternoon at her home 114 River Drive.

CALLED BY ILLNESS.

Mrs. Ray Farley left last night for La Grande where she was called by the illness of her grandfather, A. C. Huntington.

CLUB TO MEET.

The Delphian Club will meet in regular business session Friday afternoon in the Committee room of the County Library.

HUGE CROWD.

enlargements are on the walls together with attractive posters advertising Jontel. Samples are being distributed of some of the products. An attractive color scheme of lavender, yellow and white makes the booth a place of beauty.

Taliman & Co.

Showcases on either side of the space occupied by Taliman & Co. demand attention on account of the display of toilet articles. Perfumes and other necessities of millady's comfort are to be seen. In addition, there is a Stradivari phonograph which is to be seen and heard. This machine is sold by the company.

Pendleton Trading Co.

A miniature grocery store is on display by the Pendleton Trading Co. In the front is a glass case which contains cuts of meats with a refrigeration compartment concealed in the lower section. The back part of the booth is occupied by canned goods. To the left there are pyramids of vegetables arranged to appeal to the eye. On the right an appetizing array of olives and relishes of different kinds make their appeal.

Merchant Tailors

A booth artistically arranged to resemble the office of a tailor's shop is the offering of the Merchant Tailors' Association. Potted palms give the place an air of dignity and on busts that rest on a table are to be seen goods displayed by the merchants who belong to the newly formed organization.

J. L. Vaughan

Different styles of fixtures in the electrical line are shown by J. L. Vaughan in his space, and the attractiveness of the lamps, chandeliers, etc. are likely to make the beholder thankful to the genius that has harnessed electricity and made it of service to man.

Different effects are brought out in the booth which make it one of the most attractive in the big room.

D. D. Phelps

Another booth that smacks of modernity is the display of bathroom fixtures shown by D. D. Phelps. The booth represents a modern bathroom, and the white enameled tub, drinking fountain, drain and other facilities are attractive in the extreme. A shower attachment is also shown in connection with the tub.

Telephone and Telegraph

One of the neatest displays of the carnival is the scene portrayed in the space occupied by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. The back wall of the booth is a painting representing a bird's-eye view of a part of Umatilla county with a telephone on the front corner marked "Pendleton." The different towns on the map and the instrument are connected with streamers of blue and white ribbons. A legend on one of the side walls is "Let your voice take the trip."

Economy Drug Co.

A novel effect is gained by the Economy Drug Co. with the display of photographs of different styles that is made. The booth occupies a corner space, and it is not enclosed except for a double chain line that swings from the pillars. Pictures of Galt-Curci, John McCormack and Caruso adorn the walls.

Smythe-Loungan Co.

A painting of a peacock, resplendent in all the colors of his natural plumage, is the background of the Smythe-Loungan Co. booth. The side walls and ceiling of the booth are black, and the legend over the bird, which advertises the brand of cork handled by the company, is "A Bird Well Known in Winter."

All desire stops. Shortly the habit is completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't release you from all craving for tobacco in any form, your druggist will refund your money without question.

A miniature butcher shop with fixtures necessary to the management of the business is seen in the space that has been attractively arranged by Downey's.

Umatilla Flour and Grain Co. At the Umatilla Flour and Grain Co. booth, not only can the eye be satisfied, but the appetite may be appeased as well. Samples of the products turned out by this home manufacturing concern, which also uses Umatilla county crops, consists of different kinds of commercial feeds for the stock man and poultry raiser, as well as human foods. A small electric oven is kept busy taking samples of foods that can be made from the products of the company.

Pendleton Baking Company Pastries are being baked by the Pendleton Baking Co. in the oven in their booth, and the products turned out by the company are on display. Both a baker and demonstrator are present and they explain the merits of "Made in Pendleton" goods.

Pendleton Cash Market Candies and confections that are hard to resist, either for children or the older folk, are arranged in the Charles Co. booth. The shelves that occupy the sides have candies both in glass containers and in packages, and box candies are shown in the glass case at the rear. All the candies shown are manufactured by the Walla Walla Candy Co. of Walla Walla which was recently purchased by the proprietors of the local store.

Gray Bros. Grocery Co. At first glance, when the visitors enter Happy Canyon and see the display of Gray Bros. Grocery Co., he could very easily imagine that he had stepped into a big grocery store in a large city. The triangular booth is partially enclosed with a glass case which contains products for the home table. The shelves on either side are neatly arranged with canned goods of different kinds.

The E. O. In the space occupied by the East Oregonian Publishing Co. the Miller Feeder job press is a near-human machine that immediately attracts attention of the carnival guest. This machine automatically feeds itself and keeps going until its material is exhausted when it rings an alarm that calls for more. Samples of job work turned out by the job department, framed posters showing the extent of the big "E. O. Family" in Pendleton and Umatilla county, and old files that are open to the public's inspection are other attractions.

Peoples Warehouse Groceries No more neatly arranged booth is to be seen in all the rounds of the carnival than the grocery department of
