GRADUATING CLASS PRESENTED CLASS DAY PROGRAM LAST NIGHT

Next Event of Senior Week Will be Baccalaureate Sermon at M. E. Church Sunday Night.

Members of the graduating class of Pendleton high school held the first of their commencement exercises yesterday when the class day program was presented in the auditorium.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the program was the class prophecy written and read by Miss Estella Mills. The prophecy was told in a clever and interesting way, having a prediction for each one in the class. The program was ended by the singing of the class song. The words to the song were written by Donald C. Woodworth and the music was selected by Miss Evelyn Mortimore.

The next event in Senior Week will be the baccalaureate sermon to be delivered in the Methodist Church tomorrow evening by the Rev. George L. Clarke at 8 o'clock. The music for the program will be in charge of members of the Methodist choir. Members of the senior class and the faculty will be present. Union services will be held for the event and Rev. John Secor of the Methodist church will be chairman.

Her assailant leaped from behind a pile of building material and shot her twice in the back.

CARNIVAL CLOSES TONIGHT--PROVED DECIDED SUCCESS

Tentative Plans Already Been Launched for Holding Similar Affair This Coming Fall.

TODAY IS COUNTY DAY; RECORD CROWD ATTENDS

Special Program is Prepared for Closing Night; Doors Open at Half Past Seven.

Pendleton business men are so enthusiastic over the success of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Carnival which will come to a close tonight that sentiment has developed which will assure that the event has come to stay as a permanent affair in the annals of the city.

MERCHANTS DONATE VALUABLE PRIZES FOR SHOOT JUNE 12

American Trapshooting Series of Past Six Weeks to be Brought to Close Tomorrow.

The sixth and final shoot of the series of the American Trapshooting Association, registered events which have been held by the Pendleton Trap and Gun club will be staged at Collins park tomorrow. The day's sport will also conclude the merchants' prize shoots which have been held in conjunction with the other affair.

Highest shot in Class A will receive an American Trapshooting association trophy, and the shooter scoring next best will receive a beautiful gold and silver cup presented by the Schaefer Jewelry Store. A national trophy will also be awarded to the best shot in Class B, and the winner of second place will get an automatic Martin reel, donated by J. H. Estes.

In last week's contest for the merchants' prizes, the scores resulted in ties. Dean Schull and Charles Houz lead decided their case by flipping a coin, due to the inability of the former to be present tomorrow to decide the rivalry by further shooting, and Shull won the automatic Martin reel put up by Welch Bros. Clear store. In Class A, Marion Hansell, John McNolin and Guy Matlock were tied, and they will compete tomorrow for the $4 fountain pen donated by the Thompson Drug Co.

The next important shoot given by the club will be the registered Merchants' Trophy Shoot at 150 targets Sunday June 12. Plans are being made to take care of 75 shooters from all over the Northwest on this day. Prizes having values of not less than $50 each have been donated by the following good boosters among the merchants:

Hotel Pendleton, Geo. C. Paer, Bond Bros, Sturgis & Storie, Alexanders, Allen & Knight, Sol J. Baum, J. L. Vanhook, Hamley & Co., Sawtelles, Inc., American National Bank, Coxy Billiard Parlor, Greulich & Matlock Theatres, W. J. Clarke Co., Tallman Drug Co., Peoples Warehouse.

BRITISH TROOPS IN IRELAND ARE SHORTLY TO BE REINFORCED

Additional Forces May be Employed as Mobile Units Shifting From One Area to Another

LONDON, May 28.—(U. P.)—The British troops in Ireland are shortly to be reinforced by several thousand men, has been officially announced. Reports were circulated that the present force of 50,000 would at least be doubled. Practically all the additional military forces, it was said, may be employed as mobile units, shifting from one area to another as the conditions require.

PREMIER ATTEMPTS TO END MINER'S STRIKE

LONDON, May 28.—(A. P.)—The British premier, Lloyd George, initiated another attempt this morning to end the coal stoppage when he addressed a deputation of mine owners and the executive body of the miners' union, urging the necessity of an early resumption of work because of the country's alarming increase in unemployment and the general slowing down of all industries.

It has been eight weeks since work in the mines ceased. The premier's grant of 100,000 pounds to tide the coal industry over the period during which a permanent settlement shall be negotiated, but warned the conference that there was no chance of increasing that amount. He added: "We shall not put a single penny more on the table until we know that the terms of a permanent peace are agreed upon."

CARNIVAL SNAP SHOTS

A big six-foot visitor at the Merchants and Manufacturers' Carnival last night, after being shoved and crowded by the mobs which pressed forward to witness the wedding ceremony, announced to the world that "This is no place for a fellow with corns." There were many hearty yells to the statement.

Three hundred people were served daily by Miss Betty Fitzgerald who is demonstrating coffee for Alexander's department store. Miss Fitzgerald expects that the total served today and this evening will reach five hundred as the Saturday crowds are much larger than those of Thursday and Friday.

The music furnished by the Boys' band of Pendleton was very popular with the crowd. The boys, under the direction of A. W. Lundell, played several selections. They were given special permission to play from school while playing at the carnival. There are over 40 boys in the band.

J. C. SMITH NOT IDENTIFIED AS RESIDENT HERE

Tragedy Result of Jealousy is Theory Held Following Double Killing at 9 A. M.

COUPLE SEPARATED FOR SEVERAL YEARS IS SAID

Shooting Took Place Upon Street, Wife Was Working as Saleswoman in Store.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., May 28.—(U. P.)—J. C. Smith, said to be a rancher from near Pendleton, shot and killed his wife on a down-town street corner. He then turned his gun on himself. Smith is expected to die. He had been separated from his wife for years. She was working in a local store. Smith arrived a few days ago from his ranch. Jealousy is thought to have been the motive.

BODY OF WAR HERO STARTS ON ITS WESTWARD JOURNEY SUNDAY

Fred Kees Will Not be Buried in Pendleton Memorial Day as Was at First Planned.

A telegram received this morning by J. T. Brown from Hoboken notifying him that the body of Fred Kees will not be started on its journey across the continent until after midnight tonight, caused a change to be made in the arrangements to have his funeral services held in conjunction with the Decoration Day services at the cemetery Monday morning.

The parade which will be formed at the court house square at 8:30, will start winding its way to the cemetery at 9 o'clock sharp. Perry Idleman, commander of Pendleton Post No. 23, American Legion, will be marshal of the day. The parade will go west on Court street to Johnson, then north to Water street and west to Main. Two blocks on the main street of the city will be covered, and at Alta the parade will turn. The line of march will be down Alta to Ash, thence to Webb and to the cemetery.

Every ex-serviceman is requested to be in his uniform, if it is at all possible. Those who for any reason can't wear a uniform are expected to be there in "civies". Besides the chief address of the afternoon which will be delivered by Charles W. Furlong, Lt. Col. U. S. R., there will be two numbers by the A. A. O. U. quartet. A profusion of flowers are being collected by the committee to decorate the graves of former servicemen. The veterans of the G. A. R. will have the place of honor, and they in turn will be followed by the Spanish-American War veterans.
