PRESIDENT'S WIFE SENDS TROWEL ON ITS TREE MISSION

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(U. P.)—At the tomb of William McKinley, at Canton, Ohio, was the first place outside of Washington where the trowel used by Mrs. Warren G. Harding, wife of President Harding, in planting the Ohio tree was again put to work at tree planting. Mrs. Harding planted the Ohio tree on the American Forestry Association's miniature Road of Remembrance, lined with trees from the states.

The trowel was sent by Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the association to Mrs. William D. Caldwell, president, and Mrs. Mary A. March, corresponding secretary of the Lincoln Highway Memorial Association of Stark County, who made the first request for it. Another of the many requests for the trowel has come from Mrs. J. F. Weimann, state president of the United States Daughters of 1812 for Arkansas.

Mrs. Harding, who hopes the trowel will plant many trees, sent the following letter to Mrs. Caldwell:

"The White House, Washington."

"My Dear Mrs. Caldwell—

"The American Forestry Association has just informed me of the request of your association for the little trowel I used to plant the Ohio tree on its miniature Road of Remembrance.

"This of course is particularly pleasing to me especially since the trowel will be used in planting trees in honor of William McKinley.

"If the little trowel will inspire more tree planting, I shall indeed be deeply gratified and I hope that it travels far in that good work.

"Wishing your plans all success,

(Signed) "Florence Kling Harding."

For its long journey across the country the trowel has been placed in a walnut box and marked as follows: "This Trowel First Used by Mrs. Warren G. Harding, April 26, 1921, American Forestry Association."

A book upon which each organization is to record the date of any memorial tree planting at which the trowel is used is inside the cover. The trowel is then to be returned to the Association's headquarters in Washington.

Another trowel used here at the same time is marked with the name of Mrs. Medill McCormick, wife of the senator from Illinois, will be used in the same way, particularly in the state of Illinois, where much planting of memorial trees is planned for this fall.

The Roads of Remembrance idea is being pushed everywhere. Mrs. William W. Richardson, Virginia librarian of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Hampton, Va., is completing plans for a Road of Remembrance into Yorktown.

In Wisconsin, the Chambers of Commerce are well along on a memorial highway plan connecting the two cities. Centering at Elgin, Ill., a three cornered plan has been put under way for planting ten thousand trees along the Lincoln highway by the chambers of commerce of various towns, the Association says.

"Opportunity for memorial highways and a great educational campaign on tree values are found in Roads of Remembrance," said Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the Association today.
