TOURNAMENT VISITORS COME

Members of the Pendleton Golf Club are hosts for visitors to the Tri-State Golf Tournament, which is being held today at the local links and which will continue tomorrow. Luncheon was served today to the guests at the clubhouse and after dinner this evening, they will be honored at an informal dance at the State Hospital. Luncheon and dinner are to be served tomorrow also at the clubhouse.

Among the guests who are here for the tournament are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carr of La Grande, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Larrison, also of La Grande, who arrived here yesterday.

RETURN FROM PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith returned yesterday from Portland where they spent their honeymoon. They visited at Hood River with Mr. Smith's father, B. D. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home at Pilot Rock. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Manilla Wright and the wedding was a recent Pendleton event.

MRS. GLADY RETURNS

Mrs. H. C. Grady returned this morning from Walla Walla where she has been at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Ellen Henderson, who recently underwent an operation. Mrs. Henderson is convalescing nicely.

TEACHERS ARE GUESTS

Honoring the teachers of Hawthorne school, Mrs. W. H. Wyrick, former president of the Hawthorne Parent-Teacher Association, and Mrs. William Wright, new president of the association, were hostesses today for a one o'clock luncheon at the Elks club. Covers were laid for eleven and each guest received a dainty nosegay of flowers. Besides the hostesses those present were Mrs. Gertrude Nash, principal of Hawthorne, Mrs. Weiser, Miss Agnes Carter, Miss Harriet Benjamin, Miss Leota Wagner, Miss Mabel Johnson, Mrs. Hassell, Miss Anna Brown and Miss L. Keane. Following the luncheon, the party visited the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Carnival.

WILL VISIT HERE

Miss Harriett Campbell and daughter, Miss Grace Campbell, will arrive tonight from Portland and will be guests at the home of Mrs. B. Raymond on Water Street.

DATES ARE ANNOUNCED

The dates for the fifty-second annual commencement of Oregon State Agricultural College have been announced as June 11 to June 13, at Corvallis.

MISS SAUNDERS HERE

Miss Josephine Sanders of North Powder, Oregon, is the guest of Mrs. Charles M. Peacock at 209 Garden street.

Prominent local clubwomen, some of them members of clubs for the past twenty-five years and old members of the federation, will assist in receiving the guests. Among them are Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones, Mrs. W. J. Clarke, Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, Mrs. John Secor, Mrs. H. E. Bickers, Mrs. G. M. Tice, Mrs. W. D. McNary, Mrs. H. H. Hattery, Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. J. C. Snow, Mrs. R. Alexander, Mrs. E. J. Somerville, Mrs. S. A. Lowell, Mrs. Alfred Lockwood, Mrs. John Hadley, Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. S. H. Forshaw, Mrs. Charles Gray, Mrs. Charles Greulich, Mrs. J. B. McCook, Mrs. E. F. Averitt, Mrs. Fred Dornert, Mrs. George Gray, Mrs. Mary Dismore, Mrs. W. F. Matlock, Mrs. R. Raymond, Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. B. S. Burroughs, Mrs. Minnie Stillman, and Mrs. C. S. Jerard. Younger matrons who are clubwomen will assist also.

There will be music by Miss Mary Wiley of New York, at the reception. Other musical numbers during the convention will be by Mrs. Maude L. Woolgar, who will sing Wednesday morning; Mrs. E. Inlow, who will sing Wednesday afternoon; Mrs. Charles Bond, on the program for a solo Thursday morning; and Mrs. B. L. Burroughs who will sing Thursday afternoon.

A crag supper, for which the crabs will be provided by the Ladies Civic Improvement Club and the Newport Community club, will be served Thursday evening.

The local clubwomen are grateful to J. L. Vaughan, Crawford Furniture Co., and Cruikshank & Hampton for their co-operation in convention arrangements.

PLAY IS GIVEN

Members of the cast of "The Futurists," presented the play last night at Hermiston under the auspices of the Hermiston Community Club for the benefit of the library. Besides the play, numbers by the Hermiston high school orchestra and other musicians of that place supplemented the program. The performance was most successful and netted $125 for the library fund.

The trip to Hermiston was made by auto in machines driven by Roy Raley, William H. Bennett and Charles Bond. Members of the cast, which included Mrs. J. C. Snow, Mrs. David B. Hill, Mrs. Fred Dornert, Mrs. Charles Bond, Mrs. Roy Raley, Mrs. Will H. Bennett, Mrs. E. B. Aldrich, Mrs. Thomas Vaughan and Miss Beth Smith, with Mrs. Norborne Berkeley, president of the club, Miss Sabra Nasson, county librarian, Mr. Raley, Mr. Bennett and Mr. Bond, were guests at dinner at the home of Mrs. J. T. Hinkle, with the women of the Community Club as hostesses. The attractive country home of Mrs. Hinkle was charmingly decorated with roses and the affair was most delightful. Assisting Mrs. Hinkle were Mrs. C. W. Kellogg, president of the club, Mrs. C. S. McNaught, Mrs. A. Robb, Mrs. C. E. Baker and Mrs. George Briggs. Mrs. George Root and Mrs. Don Campbell formed the committee in charge of the stage setting and they secured some old fashioned furniture which was used most realistically.

The following program will be played at the Victoria concert Sunday afternoon at the County Library:

- Fiddle and I (Fred W. Weathly)-Arthur Goodere)-Alma Gluck-Efrem Zimbalist.

MRS. WINTER TO BE HONORED
The first social event of the state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs will be a reception on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, national president. The affair will be at the county library and local clubwomen are uniting in making plans for the evening.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Winter, Mrs. E. T. Wade, president of the Pendleton Women's Club and a member of the state board of the federation, Mrs. Norborne Berkeley, president of the Current Literature Club, Mrs. G. B. Callahan, president of the State Federation, Mrs. J. T. Hinkle, president of the Delphinium Club, Mrs. H. W. Dickson, president of the Thursday Afternoon Club and Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian.

CHILDREN TOO ARRIVE
Rudolph Crommelin, Jr., age 9, and Elizabeth Crommelin, aged 7, are expected to arrive here about June 10 from Delft, Holland, to make their home with their father, Rudolph Crommelin, at Mr. Crommelin received word yesterday that the children had left Holland. Rudolph and Elizabeth formerly resided here and are very attractive children. Mr. and Mrs. Crommelin will go to Spokane to meet them.

GO TO PORTLAND
Mrs. Frank T. Bond and Mrs. H. E. Wirth will leave this evening on the train for The Dalles where they will join Mr. Wirth and continue tomorrow to Portland by motor.

BANQUET IS PLANNED
Members of the senior class of the Pendleton high school are planning a banquet to be given next Wednesday evening at the Elks club.

ENTERTAIN WITH DANCE

Members of the Jolly Bachelor club of the Pendleton high school and their ladies will be guests this evening at an informal dance for which Dr. and Mrs. David B. Hill will be hosts. About twenty couples will be present.

RECITAL IS SUCCESS

Pendleton music lovers who attended the recital given by the voice pupils of Mrs. S. H. Forshaw, assisted by Joe Hungate, pianist, and Miss Agnes Little, accompanist, enjoyed a delightful evening of music last night at the Presbyterian church.

The program was most pleasing and Mrs. Forshaw's pupils did excellent work. Mr. Hungate is a young musician of rare ability and showed himself a finished performer, his technique and expression being most unusual. Miss Little has mastered the difficult art of accompanying and her music added much to the evening.

PICNIC MUCH ENJOYED

One hundred pupils and friends of the Methodist Sunday school are enjoying a picnic today at the Umatilla Indian agency. The day is being spent in games and at noon a bountiful picnic lunch was served, a great supply of ice cream being a feature. The crowds were taken to the picnic grounds in machines.
