 What has become of the automobile thieves who used to steal cars? I've been reading the papers pretty carefully and every time I hear of a car being stolen I've hurried around there and left mine in that very spot. But up to date nobody has offered to take it. What would you advise me to do?

The new typist determined to make a good impression upon her chief, she turned up half an hour early and began tidying up the room. When that was done she examined her typewriter, discovered it in a shocking condition, found a bottle and gave it a thorough oiling. While about it she examined all the other typewriters in the office and oiled them, too. There is nothing, she thought, like making oneself indispensable! Her chief arrived. He looked around him with an air of satisfaction and crossed to his desk. Then his smile changed to a frown. "Miss Smith," he said, "have you seen my cough mixture?"
