LEON LE FEBVRE TO WED
 Of interest to Pendleton people is the announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Leon LeFebvre and Miss Rosamond Neumann. Mr. LeFebvre spent a month in Pendleton last winter in the interests of relief for the children of Europe and has many friends here.

The following is from the Portland Oregonian:
 June 1 will be the date for the marriage of Leon N. LeFebvre, Portland representative of the Provident Life and Trust company of Philadelphia, and Miss Rosamond A. Neumann, secretary of the Indorsement bureau of the Seattle chamber of commerce.

The ceremony will be held in Los Gatos, the home of Lewis H. Neumann, a brother of the bride-elect. Mrs. J. H. Neumann, also of Seattle, will be in Los Gatos for her daughter's marriage. Mr. LeFebvre is prominent in social service work and it was through his interest in one of the worthy charities in which he is active that he met Miss Neumann. He is well known in the business circles and is socially popular. The bride-elect is a former University of Washington girl and popular in sorority circles and has a wide acquaintance in the cities about Puget sound. She is beloved not only for her business ability, tact and efficiency that make her a success, but for her social charm.

RECIPE IS SUCCESS
 The recital last night in which Mrs. Bert A. McDonald presented her pupils, Miss Aurora Nelson and Miss Dorothea Dodge, was one of the most keenly appreciated musical events of the past season. Both young pupils played with artistic finish and style, their playing showing unusual talent and careful training. Both give promise of making a place for themselves in the musical world.

The Liebestraum by Liszt, was apparently the most enjoyed of Miss Nelson's numbers. In this she displayed a beautiful singing tone, and the cadenzas were exquisitely clean and delicate.

Miss Dodge played the difficult Impromptu by Rheinhold, brilliantly and with splendid technique and finish, her audience showing special appreciation of this number and the dainty Pastorale by Scarlatti which she interpreted with marked musical taste.

Miss Melie Jack, pupil of Oswald Olson, assisted with several groups of songs. She possesses a beautiful soprano voice of bell-like clearness and sings with delightful ease and assurance. Her intonation was excellent and her work last night reflected careful training.

After her last song, "Evening Brings Rest," she responded with a charming little encore, "Folk Song," by Bussey.

The program follows:
 Pastoral..... Scarlatti-Tausig
 Gavotte..... Bach-Saint Saens
 Dorothea Dodge
 Sonata in D..... Haydn
 Allegro, Largo, Finale
 Aurora Nelson
 Lascia ch'io pianga..... Handel
 O Loving Heart Trust On..... Gottschalk
 Merle Jack
 Song of the Brook..... Lack
 Danse Negre..... Cyril Scott
