MRS. NORRIS HERE.

Mrs. Charles H. Norris, formerly of Pendleton, now of Portland, is a visitor in residence during the state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Norris was a prominent clubwoman of this city and is most popular in social and club circles.

MRS. STOCKER RETURNS.

Mrs. Clara Stocker has returned to Pendleton after a visit in Eugene with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Fell. She was accompanied here by Mr. and Mrs. Fell, Miss Esther Fell and their nephew, George Fell, of Prairie City who is attending University of Oregon. The party made the trip here by auto and Mr. and Mrs. Fell, Miss Fell and George Fell spent the week-end here as the guests of Mr. Fell's brother, George Fell, returning to Eugene on Monday.

ARE IN VANCOUVER.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson are now in Vancouver, B. C., according to word received by Pendleton friends. They will go from Vancouver to Victoria and thence to Lake Louise, returning to Pendleton in about two weeks.

HERE FROM PORTLAND.

Mrs. Edith Knight Hill and daughter, Miss Florence Holmes, are among the visitors here for the state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Hill is representing the Portland Oregonian. Miss Holmes is a landscape gardener and a member of the Portland Park board.

CLUB TO MEET.

The Lavender Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Helen Burton, 409 Logan street.

MRS. PERCIVAL DEPARTS.

Mrs. Harry Percival and little daughter, Peggy, who have been the guests of Mrs. Percival's mother, Mrs. Emil Doherty, left yesterday for their home in Canada. Mr. Percival left about three weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Percival and daughter recently returned from a visit to England.

MISS LEDDERLEE HERE.

Miss Pauline Ledderlee, of La Grande, was a Pendleton visitor yesterday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth McGinnis. She was on her way home after spending a short time in Walla Walla.

PICNIC PLACE IS CHANGED.

The picnic supper of the 3W Club of the Christian church has changed its place of meeting from the grove by the railroad bridge to a spot near the Matlock bridge by the Round-Up grounds. The change was made on account of the Twilight league ball game between the Christians and the Episcopals.

RETURN FROM LA GRANDE.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Farley returned yesterday from La Grande where they attended the funeral of A. C. Huntington, Union County pioneer and grandfather of Mrs. Farley. Mr. Farley left the first of the week to join his wife who had been there several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Curry.

GUEST IS WELCOMED.

Mrs. E. E. Vehrs arrived last evening from Elgin to be a guest in Pendleton during the convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. She will be remembered here as Miss Ethel Wright of La Grande, a former O. A. C. student and a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Her husband is a druggist of Elgin.

INTERESTING FOLK HERE.

Among interesting guests in Pendleton during the sessions of the federation of clubs is Mrs. George T. Cochran, who arrived last night from her home in La Grande. Mrs. Cochran, who is the wife of State Water Commissioner Cochran, is chairman of a board of moving picture censorship.

Mrs. Colon R. Eberhart, wife of the joint representative from Union and Walla counties, also arrived last evening and another La Grande matron being welcomed here is Mrs. John Thelton, a past president of the Neighborhood Club of that city, who is a convention delegate.

GUESTS ENTERTAINED.

A group of guests, prominent in Oregon clubdom are being entertained at the home of Mrs. E. T. Wade on Jackson street. Among them are Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, of Corvallis, state president of the Oregon federation, Mrs. W. Bell of Roseburg, second vice president, and Mrs. Colin Elkins of Prineville, of the board of directors.

who arrived yesterday morning. Mrs. Elkins is also well known in Eastern Star work of Oregon. Mrs. Wade is director of convention arrangements.

SENIORS BANQUET.

Members of the senior class and faculty of the high school banqueted at the Elks' Temple last evening as a final social event of the class. Fifty-five of the guests arrived at 8:20 p. m. and found their places at elegantly decorated tables. John Simpson, president of the class, acted as toastmaster. Those responding to toasts were David Swanson, H. E. Inlow, superintendent of the city schools, who was connected with the class members during their sophomore and junior years, Austin Landreth, principal, and Miss Olive Roache, faculty adviser of the class for the year. During the banquet Miss Roscoe was presented with a class pin and an Indian robe by the class as a remembrance and in appreciation of the work she has done for the class during the past year.

The class of 1931 is the largest to be graduated from the Pendleton high school and has won for itself the name of the "Standard Class." Commencement exercises will be held in the high school auditorium Friday evening. Members of the junior class will have charge of the decorations.

RECEPTION BIG EVENT.

For this evening is planned the biggest social event of the state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. It is the reception in honor of Mrs. Thomas C. Winter, president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Winter, who is a charming woman and an excellent speaker, will give her address in the auditorium. Pendleton clubwomen feel particularly fortunate that Mrs. Winter is here as this is her first visit to a western convention. The reception begins at 8 p. m. and is open to the public.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Winter, Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, state president, Mrs. E. T. Wade, a member of the state board, and president of the Pendleton Women's Club, Mrs. Norborne Berkeley, president of the Current Literature Club, Mrs. H. W. Dickson, president of the Thursday Afternoon Club, Mrs. J. T. Richardson, president of the Delphian Club and Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian. There will be music by Miss Mary Wiley of New York, whose lovely voice delighted those who heard her last evening, and other numbers by local musicians. A pleasing feature of the convention is the provision of hostesses for the various sessions. Pendleton girls are assisting also in the role of passers, and among those who have already served are Miss Rosemary Whiteman, Miss Lois McCook, Miss Katherine McClintock, Miss Genevieve Eddy, Miss Edna Murphy and Miss Marjorie McMonies.

MISS SCHULTZ IS BRIDE.

The marriage of Miss Louise Schultz and William Scharn was solemnized this morning at 7 o'clock in St. Mary's church, Rev. Father Van Hoomissen officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and foliage. A large host of friends witnessed the wedding mass.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schultz of this city, wore a smart blue tulle with a light blue georgette hat and a corsage bouquet of white Cape Jaspins. She was attended by Miss Louise Brandt, who was also attired in a blue tulle costume. Emmett Scharn, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bride is a well known young lady of this city and has a large host of friends. She was graduated from St. Joseph's Academy and later entered St. Mary's hospital at Walla Walla, where she took a six months' training course.

Mr. Scharn, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scharn of Kallispell, Montana, is employed by the Ellis Schiller Company of this city.

Immediately after the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party at the home of the bride's parents, plates being laid for sixteen. Many gifts and good wishes were showered upon the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Scharn motored to Stanfield where they took the train for Portland. From there they will visit other coast cities.
