Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

THE GOLFER AND HIS CADDIE

It was a little caddie boy one pleasant summer day Who drew a well known business man to bear his clubs away.

He nagged and cursed the little chap until his heart was sad, And roundly blamed him every time a shot he made was bad.

BANNING COMMERCIAL SIGNBOARDS

ADVERTISING signs along state highways must go. The state highway commission has so decreed and the general public will applaud.

GOVERNOR'S CAPTAIN IS SUSPENDED ONE YEAR

SEATTLE, June 2.—(A. P.)—Suspension for one year of the license of Captain H. H. Marden, pilot of the steamship Governor, which was rammed and sunk off Point Wilson, April 2, with the loss of eight lives, announced today by the local board of the United States steamboat inspection service, disposed of the last of the charges brought against officers of the Governor in connection with the investigation of the disaster.

WOMAN SICK FOUR YEARS

Was Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Steen, Miss.—"I was all run down and nervous with female trouble and my sides pained me so at times that I could hardly walk. I suffered for four years with it. Then I saw your advertisement in the papers and I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel stronger and am able to do most of my housework now. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use this letter if you care to do so." Mrs. W. H. BLAKE, Route 1, Steen, Miss.
