OLD PITCHERS FIND GOING ROCKY DURING THIS STRENUOUS YEAR

Many Veterans Are Waking up to Find Their Places Have Been Filled by Youngsters.

NEW YORK, June 2.—(Henry L. Farrell, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—Old pitching bones have had a lot of tough going this season. Youngsters, unknown and untried, are slipping into the rental robes of the old kings of the mound.

"Lefty" Cooper, Fred Toney, "Babe" Adams and "Red" Faber are the only veterans showing anything close to their old form.

Alexander the Great is doing bench duty for the Chicago Cubs with a sore arm and Jim Vaughn, his big teammate, isn't delivering as expected. Dutch Beuther, sensation of the 1913 pennant dash of the Cincinnati Reds, is a disappointment in Brooklyn and his old staff mate, Hod Eller, is out of the game under suspension.

Burleigh Grimes, Sherry Smith and in fact all of Uncle Robb's All-star pitching staff cracked and Brooklyn is falling down in the pennant race.

Ferd Schupp and Bill Doak, of the Carus are out of form. Scott Perry has fallen by the wayside with the Athletics. Bob Shawkey has been useless to the Yankees and Tris Speaker is having his trouble with his stars, Coveloskie, Babby and Mails.

Arthur Nehf, the $25,000 beauty of the New York Giants, hasn't been as effective as Bill Ryan, a rookie pitcher from the International league.

Water Johnson's work with the Washington Senators makes it seem that the old star is almost through. Joe Bush hasn't shown anything for the Boston Red Sox and George Daus has done the Tigers very little good. Dick Rudolph had to give up after a brave effort and is now working with the Braves as a coach.

Managers blame the cold, rainy weather of the early season for the failure of the old wings to get in shape. But while they are waiting for the coming of the hot rays clubs with good young hurlers may get out for a lead that will be hard to overcome.

The Pittsburgh Pirates are getting the best pitching of the year. "Lefty" Cooper is in his best form. "Babe" Adams looks as young as ever and Glaner, Zahn, Ponder and Yellowhorse are delivering.

"Uncle Joe"

If it weren't for the missing stogie, this man might be taken for Uncle Joe Cannon. He's "Uncle Joe" Shea, veteran railroader of Indianapolis.

THREE HOME RUNS.
SACRAMENTO, June 2.—(A. P.)—Three home runs helped the Senators defeat Seattle here yesterday, 7 to 2. They were made by Cook, Pick and Conpton. In the sixth inning a fan hurled a torrent of abuse at "Rox" Middleton, who was conversing with the wife of Manager Bill Rodgers and "Rox" secured a bat and charged up the grandstand. He was restrained by several players. The fan was ejected from the park amidst jeers.

USED FIVE TWILERS.
SALT LAKE CITY, June 2.—(A. P.)—San Francisco used five pitchers yesterday afternoon in an attempt to stay the Bees, but the effort availed them nothing, Salt Lake winning 14 to 6. The locals hit Scott freely in the early innings and continued on Crumpler and McQuaid. Thursday was driven to cover in the seventh and Swartz held the visitors harmless. Ellison, Siclin and Cravath hit home runs. Swartz doubled with the bases full in the eighth.

PASSED THE UMP.
LOS ANGELES, June 2.—(A. P.)—Los Angeles defeated Vernon, 6 to 5. The Angels took the lead in the second and in the sixth clinched victory by making three runs on two singles and two triplets. The Tigers rallied in the seventh but could not overcome the Angels' lead. Niehoff and Killifer were thrown out of the game for disputing with the umpire.

OAKS BEAT BEAVERS.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—(A. P.)—Arlight pitching by Alton in all but the first inning, when Portland scored

HUNGARIANS TRY TO STOP HAND SHAKING

BUDAPEST, June 2.—(A. P.)—Sympathy for England has always been very strong in Hungary but the last two years it has been approaching anglophobia. Attempts have been made lately to transplant to Hungary the conventionalities of British society.

A "League for the Propagation of British Etiquette" has been formed, which is trying to reform some modes of Hungarian intercourse.

The league first concentrated its efforts to abolish the customary shaking of hands and long conversation inevitably following the casual meeting of two persons and to replace it by a simple "How do you do?" With this object the members of the league are strolling the whole day along the streets, yearning for opportunities to instruct the public in the new way of greeting and parting.

When any unsuspecting friend, with the smiling anticipation of a conversation on his face, hears the anglo-manner, stretching out both his hands warmly, the member of the league stiffly bows his head, cries "How do you do?" and hurries away before the thunder-struck individual has time to recover.

"We have done our best for the introduction of this good old English manner of greeting, but with little result," stated Baron John Bornemizsa, president of the league. "Somehow short greetings do not agree with our society. I just met a friend and when passing him, I said the new 'How do you do?'"

"Would you believe that that man stopped me, clung to my coat sleeve and with wet eyes expressed his gratitude for my interest in his personal welfare and entered into a detailed of our league approached, and unostentatious description of his ill health."

"At that moment, another member pious of any harm said his cheerful 'How do you do?' I escaped, leaving the Hungarian clinging to my colleague's sleeve, reciting the same tale from beginning to end.

"No," concluded Baron Bornemizsa, "my hopes are not very bright that the short manner of greeting will prove a success in my country."

HARDING'S UTTERANCES INTERPRETED TO BE 'REBUKE' TO HARVEY

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(A. P.)—President Harding's utterances at Public, Va., Sunday and his memorial day address yesterday were interpreted in the senate today by Senator McKellar democrat, Tennessee, as a "re-buke" to Ambassador Harvey for his address at the Pilgrim society dinner in London.

"Drawing what he termed a 'deadly parallel' of the remarks of the president and Mr. Harvey, Senator McKellar asked that they be printed in the Congressional Record to show the 'contrast.'" He also urged that Mr. Harvey be recalled.

Senator McKellar declared that portions of the Harvey speech constituted a libel on the American government and every patriotic citizen.

GEORGE WASHINGTON STEAMER IS DAMAGED SLIGHTLY BY BLAZE

HOBOKEN, N. J., June 2.—A small fire of unknown origin last night slightly damaged the steamship George Washington, which twice carried former President Wilson to France and back. The steamer is in drydock here undergoing repairs. The blaze which broke out on the hurricane deck was extinguished in less than an hour after its discovery. Dry dock officials said the damage could be repaired within two days.
