FIGHT PROMOTING METHODS CHANGE SINCE EARLY DAYS

Rickard Used to Have Office in His Hat, But Now He is Captain of Big Industry.

NEW YORK, June 3.—(A. P.)—From pugilistic promoter to a captain of industry, such is the route Tex Rickard has traveled. Gone is the glamor of the early bouts he promoted. The picturesque color scenes which surrounded arrangements at the staging of the Gans-Nelson battle at Goldfield, the Johnson-Jeffries combat at Reno and even the Dempsey-Willard match at Toledo.

In those days Rickard had his office in his hat. Every move of the promoter was made under the watchful eyes of hundreds of fight fans and reporters.

Rickard was the last man to go to his room that night and the first to appear in the hotel corridor in the morning.

Today all is changed. The Dempsey-Carpenter bout is a modern business proposition. Business is not done in front of a Reno hotel, with the distant mountains forming a background. Rickard is reached in a private office, if one has important matters to discuss, only after a gauntlet of secretaries and other office dignitaries are passed.

Mails and telegrams flow into the executive department of Madison Square Garden in an endless stream.

Managers depart hourly to adjacent banks to cache the proceeds of ticket sales. No big mercantile corporation is bustier.

DEMPEY GOT KNOCKED OUT IN JUST ONE ROUND

ATLANTA CITY, N. J., June 3.—(A. P.)—Jack Dempsey, world's heavy-weight champion, was knocked out in one round yesterday.

Dempsey took the count on the baseball diamond back of his training camp when he essayed to pitched for a mixed team of sparring partners and newspapermen against a team composed of theatrical stars. The actors pounded Dempsey's offerings, getting nine runs in the first inning. The newspapermen and sparring partners, however, finally won 28 to 11, in eight innings after Dempsey was knocked out of the box.

When Manager Kearns returned from New York and found Dempsey tearing around the bases he quickly called the champion out of the game because of the danger of an injury. Playing baseball was the only exercise the champion undertook yesterday. After another day of rest Dempsey will resume his training Saturday. As a result of his lay off the champion has built himself up to around 200 pounds, and is eager for another session with the gloves.

TIGERS CLAW ANGELS

LOS ANGELES, June 3.—(A. P.)—Vernon blanked Los Angeles here yesterday, 4 to 0. Dell's pitching and Los Angeles errors were the principals in the Tigers' victory. High hit a homer in the third with nobody on.

HELIK WARNS BUCKS THAT BEATING WILL BE THEIRS SUNDAY

Runners-up in League Set for Stiff Battle When Locals Invade Their Hunting Ground.

There's very likely to be something doing of a lively nature when the Pendleton Bucks go to Helix Sunday to play ball. The Helix gang even admit it. They have sent out a warning to Sid Williams to be ready to take to the bench, because they declare they are going to slam him over the lot.

Whether they go this aforesaid stunt remains to be seen. Sidney has been the most effective twirler in the league for the season, and when it comes to allowing hits he is the personification of stinginess.

Next to the Bucks the Helix outfit is the strongest stick aggregation in the whole league, and if they get lined out right, they may cut loose with some real fireworks. The Bucks will be ready for any emergency.

The lineup will be as usual. Hanley will be playing shortstop for his last appearance of the year. It is thought. The battery will be Williams and Peterson.

SEATTLE WINS ONE.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 3.—(A. P.)—Pitcher Shea blew up in the ninth yesterday and Seattle scored seven runs, giving them the game, 7 to 4. Home runs were hit by Murphy and Middleton in this inning.

FRENCH CHAMBER'S BAR BILL.

PARIS, June 3.—(U. P.)—The French chamber of deputies "has it over" the American house of representatives in at least one respect. It has a bar. And during 1920 the 622 members of the chamber spent over the aforesaid time the neat little sum of 949,147 francs and 29 centimes. Which is the record to date. Even during the hectic year of 1914 the deputies only drank to the amount of 317,063 francs and 21 centimes. And back in 1876, the year the chamber first began to function, the Chamber's bar bill was only 18,544 francs. The reason? They blame it on the exchange.
