BRITISH WOMEN ARE AGAINST EXCESSIVE EXERCISE FOR GIRLS

Campaign in Interest of Motherhood is Started by Prominent English Women.

LONDON, June 9.—(A. P.)—A campaign in the interest of motherhood and against the ill-effects alleged to result from girls going in for athletics has been started here. A resolution was passed at a meeting of managers of girls' schools and of women who claimed to have made a study of physical culture protesting against the present system of physical education for girls as injurious to future generations. A small committee was formed to draw up and circulate a manifesto on the subject.

Several letters favoring the movement were read. Sir James Crichton Browne, author of books on mental and nervous diseases, wrote: "Physical exercise and training are as necessary to girls as to boys, but these must have regard to physiological and developmental considerations. To ignore sexual differences is to court disaster in the long run."

"Women who develop masculine instead of feminine instincts," wrote Dr. Arabella Kenely, "do this at the cost of the male potential which is transmitted by the father to the daughter in trust for the male line. Athletic women produce female offspring mainly and seldom have sons. When sons are born to them, they are apt to be puny and delicate, or generally emasculate or of inferior type. The cultured classes, who are mainly afflicted by athletic training are falling to provide sons of the fine physique and the manly talents and initiative which have set our Anglo-Saxon race in the van of evolution."

Miss Cowdray, the principal of a girls' high school, who moved the resolution of protest, said that the girls who had been trained to play hockey, cricket and football suffered at childbirth. Sometimes the child suffered, sometimes the mother and sometimes one of them died. Eighty percent of the girls she had known who had been trained to become gymnastic mistresses had been incapacitated for motherhood.

A girl had a large store of vital and nervous energy which she could draw upon, if normally developed at the great crisis of motherhood. That strength was a deposit account but if she used it a current account, as a boy could afford to do, her children would pay the bill. She believed that the Victorian girl was a better mother than the modern athletic girl.

Miss Radmar, director of the d'Exville Michau School of Physical Development, said that the feet were the only part of a girl's body that need be made strong. A woman's body should be elastic and strong chests and big muscles meant inelastic chests and bodies. Drill apparatus should be done away with.

Mrs. Roger Watts pleaded for the teaching of poise. "Let us go back to the Greeks," she said, "to the system which was the most wonderful ever known."

GEORGIA AND ARMENIA ARE PEACEFUL UNDER RULE OF BOLSHEVIK

TIFLES, June 9.—(A. P.)—Georgia and Armenia seem to have a period of quiet now that Bolshevik rule is definitely established. The governing power, while ostensibly in the hands of local revolutionary committees is said to depend upon secret Russian committees.

Bolshevik troops at Tifles, Batum and Erivan apparently are on their good behavior. They are trying, it is said, to convince Americans and other foreigners that the Baku outrages are not to be repeated. So far there have been few executions. Most of these were for food speculation.

Probably half the people of the cities are without money and are being fed at Bolshevik soup kitchens. The dollar, worth 5,000 rubles three months ago, is quoted now at 12 times that value.

Restaurants and nearly all stores except those selling food, are closed. In general foreigners have not been bothered, although palaces and the property of the wealthy have been requisitioned.

Despite the fact that 25.9 per cent of the world's savings are in this country, only eight per cent of the total number of the world's savers are American. One of every five inhabitants of France has a saving account.

CAN'T DO THE WORK

It's too much to try to work every day against a constant, dull backache, or sudden darting pain in the small of the back. Be rid of it. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Your neighbors recommend them. Ask your neighbor!

Chas. Phipps, 418 E. Railroad St., Pendleton, says: "I strained my back, doing heavy lifting about a year ago and suffered from backaches. I had an awful sore spot over each kidney and wasn't able to do any work for a time. My back was weak and my kidneys acted irregularly. The secretions were highly colored, too. Specks came before my eyes and confused me. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and two boxes cured me of the backache and put my kidneys in good condition. The dizziness left, too."

CANNED GOODS LEFT IN FRANCE BY U. S. ARMY IS BOON TO HOUSEWIVES

Many Articles, Pork and Beans for Instance Were Virtually Unknown to French People.

PARIS, June 9.—(A. P.)—The vast stock of canned foods left in France by the American army and now being sold to the public is proving a boon to the French housewife.

She is now able to go to her usual grocery store and buy canned goods—really canned in America, and containing labels in real English—at a price which is sometimes 200 percent cheaper than the same variety of food canned by the French.

String beans, salmon, tuna fish, corned beef, potted ham, combinations of vegetables and meat of various kinds and many others are now obtainable from the stock of things the American army left behind and sold to the French government.

Many of these things, pork and beans, for instance, were virtually unknown to the French until the American army came to France. All are products of the best known American packers and it is striking that the average French housewife says American canning methods are better than the French.
