KIPLING'S "OUTLAWED"
Richard Kipling seems to have scored again with his elaborate picture production of Alvin J. Neitz's "Outlawed," for the enthusiasm of the large audience which witnessed its premier at the Pastime Theatre can be taken as a criterion. Starting out with the advantage of having a really clever plot and one that cannot be figured out in advance even by the most ex-boy is in love, and then by the girl herself. With such delicate psychological finesse has this powerful situation been approached—the father conscious that he has deceived his one close friend and confidant, the son knowing only that the girl's love has been taken from him, and the girl heartbroken and furious at being, as she supposes, the duppe of the two—that the resulting scene is an innovation in its dramatic strength. Other of the many unusual situations running through "Beau Revel" have been finely conceived and executed. Leslie Stone and Lloyd Hughes are in the leading men's roles.

perienced picture fan, this exceptional picture moves along at a rapid pace through five full reels of exciting action and furnishes enough thrills, heart interest and suspense to satisfy the most exacting audience. With the picturesque little town of Sierra Madre as its locale and a secret band of desperate cattle thieves as the prime movers in furnishing the excitement, the stage is set for interesting happenings, as soon as the drama opens. A beautiful girl, played by the charming Carlyn Wagner, soon discovers that her own father, through some secret pledge, is not the respected citizen he is thought to be, but is in reality the right hand man of the leader of the bandits. A U. S. Marshall appears on the scene and in order to be in a position to help her father if he is captured, the daughter uses her charms to make the guardian of the law her devoted admirer. What is her surprise, however, after she has not only succeeded in making the stranger fall in love with her but has also fallen desperately in love with him, when she learns that her lover is just as strongly involved with the desperadoes as is her father. How the criminals are brought to justice, the honest men come into their own and the broken hearts are mended, makes an exceptionally gripping drama, while the opportunities afforded for his spectacular effects are taken advantage of with excellent results.

CLINTON, Ia., June 9.—(A. P.)—Two hundred boy scouts of this city are preparing for the time of their young lives as they will leave here on June 20th; bound for the wilds of Yellowstone Park.

The trip is unique in the annals of youthful entertainment. It is being conducted by fifty business and professional men of this city who will be hosts to the youngsters.

Camps will be made each night en route, the entire party tenting in the open. The personnel of the hosts will include doctors, nurses, a moving picture outfit and wireless equipment. The trip will consume more than a month of travel, starting June 20 and ending July 20.

"ARK" GOES DOWN

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 9.—The "ark of the church of the living God," a vessel built by J. E. Lewis, negro evangelist, with the declared intention of carrying a party of missionaries to Africa, was lying at the bottom of Los Angeles harbor today, having sunk shortly after its launching late last night. The evangelist and two assistants were thrown overboard when the craft capsized, but reached shore safely. Lack of ballast was declared to be the cause of the trouble. Lewis spent three years building the ark, doing most of the work with his own hands.

CATCHING SHARKS NEW VENTURE IN BUSINESS

VICTORIA, June 9.—(A. P.)—With the supply of raw material unlimited, an industry new to this country is flourishing at Parker Island, between Galiano and Mayne Islands on the Gulf of Georgia. It is the business of catching sharks, and a week's catch at the beginning of May ran to eighty, with an average weight of over a ton each. Mr. Nelson McDonald of this city, who operated the first shark-catching machinery on the island, declares there will never be a shortage as there are millions in the waters surrounding the island. "In fact the further north you go the more sharks you will find and from here to Alaska are the feeding grounds," Mr. McDonald said. "Taking them from the bottom of the sea is a business. Norway has a hundred of such industries. The only real hook for catching them, which works on a swivel, comes from there and the so-called cod-liver oil, which invades the markets of the world, is really shark liver oil, manufactured in Norway."

Stacklines parents Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hamster. Mr. and Mrs. John Muir of Birch creek visited relatives in Athena Sunday. TRANSPORT STILL "FOR SALE." MANILA, P. I., June 9.—(A. P.)—The veteran army transport, Crook, which was offered for sale by the quartermaster of the Philippine army, is still on the market, no bids having been received for the craft in response to advertisements. The reason assigned for lack of bids is a surplus of ocean tonnage for the freight now offering. The Crook was formerly a British ship, having been built in Scotland in 1882. She was known as the Roumanian until purchased by the United States at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. Her gross tonnage is 4,126. It is also planned to sell the transport Warren which operates regularly between Manila and China ports. The Warren was once the German ship Scandia of the Hamburg-American line. She was built in 1889 and purchased at the breaking out of the Spanish war, in 1898.

DARLING BABY BRIGHTENS HOME

Children's Laughter a Pleasing Sound

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. Before my next one was born I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old, and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says 'That is a very healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show these few lines to anybody."—Mrs. C. W. BENZ, 131 3rd Avenue, Altoona, Pa.

Mrs. Janssen's experience of interest to childless wives. Millston, Wis.—"I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are fond of children, and for a considerable time after we were married I feared I would not have any. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it strengthened me so I now have a nice, strong, healthy baby girl. I suffered very little at childbirth, and I give all the credit to your medicine, and shall always recommend it highly."—Mrs. H. H. JANSSEN, Millston, Wis.

Mrs. Held of Marinette, Wis., adds her testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She says:

Marinette, Wis.—"I was in a nervous condition and very irregular. My doctor advised an operation. My husband brought me one of your booklets and asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It overcame my weakness so that I now have a healthy baby girl after having been married nine years. I am glad to recommend your medicine, and you may use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. H. B. HELD, 320 Jefferson St., Marinette, Wis.

There are many, many such homes that were once childless, and are now blessed with healthy, happy children because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored the mother to a strong and healthy condition, as it acts as a natural restorative for ailments as indicated by backache, irregularities, displacements, weakness and nervousness.

Women everywhere should remember that most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones—they are not caused by serious displacements or growths, although the symptoms may be the same, and that is why so many apparently serious ailments readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it acts as a natural restorative. It can be taken with perfect safety and often prevents serious troubles.

Therefore if you know of any woman who is suffering and has been unable to secure relief and is regretfully looking forward to a childless old age, ask her to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it has brought health and happiness into so many homes once darkened by illness and despair.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.
