KANSAS IS MOBILIZING GREAT OFFENSIVE ON EVE OF OPENING OF WHEAT HARVEST, 35,000 MEN OUTSIDE OF STATE WILL BE EMPLOYED

SALLINA, Kas., June 11.—(J. L. O'Sullivan, U. P. Staff Correspondent) Kansas is mobilizing a great offensive on the eve of the opening of wheat harvest. Thirty five thousand men from outside the state will be given work for a month taking care of a crop of approximately 5,800,000 acres. Sufficient labor is now signed to handle the crop with minimum delay. Hundreds of harvest bands who started cutting wheat crops in Texas and Oklahoma on the first of June are working northward to furnish a large proportion of the men needed to fill the demands of the farmers in the state. Prairie Schoolers Used. The day of the prairie schooner has come again, transporting the army of men to the wheatlands. Due to the increased railroad passenger rates since the war.

BODY OF MRS. LEACH MAY BE EXHUMED FOR EXAMINATION PURPOSES

YAKIMA, Wash., June 11.—(A. P.)—The body of Mrs. Courtland Leach of Sunnyside may be exhumed, in order to examine other vital organs than the stomach and determine finally whether or not evidence of poisoning exist. Mrs. Leach died about 10 days ago almost without warning, and with symptoms which caused the belief that she had been poisoned. A preliminary report received today from the state chemist stated that the stomach did not show any traces of alkaloidal poison, and was nearly normal in appearance. Officials here have no evidence of a motive for murder and say suicide was out of the question.

WRANGLES' ARMY WILL BE SENT TO SIBERIA

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(A. L. Bradford, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—Four thousand troops, the remnants of General Wrangles anti-bolshevik forces will be sent to the Vladivostok area in Siberia to join forces there with the opposing soviet, according to official advices. This information was given to the allied officials at Constantinople by the general staff of the Wrangles forces, which were severely defeated in southern Russia by the bolsheviks. The Wrangles staff denied the forces here being moved to Siberia under Japanese support. This development is considered significant, as it is believed no part of the Wrangles troops will be sent such a long distance without outside aid.

'EMPIRE CREST' IS STRAIN SUGGESTION

Several suggestions for a new name for Cabbage Hill have been received by the East Oregonian. One suggestion made by a prominent business man is that whatever name be chosen that the "Hill" be dropped and the word "Empire" substituted. Mrs. Susan Darr of Adams writes suggesting the names "Meeker Heights," "Meeker View," "Meeker Observatory" or "Meeker Hill." Her desire is to honor the name of Ezra Meeker who aided in remarking the Old Oregon trail. C. P. Strain, now in California, writes that since the hill overlooks a mighty empire that it have a name in keeping with the importance of the view. He suggests "Empire Crest," "Crest Lookout," "Golden Empire Crest," "Empire Gate" or "Threshold of the Golden Empire."
