The meeting was most interesting, a guessing contest in which Mrs. Alex Manning was the prize winner being a feature. The club members and their families will picnic on Tuesday of next week at English grove, according to a decision made at the meeting.

BANQUET WEDNESDAY EVENING

The most important social event of the coming Grand Army of the Republic state encampment and of the three auxiliaries, the Ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of Veterans and Women's Relief Corps, to be held here June 14, 15 and 16, will be the banquet Wednesday evening at the Christian church. It promises to be most enjoyable and will be in honor of the visiting delegates.

Following the banquet, a camp fire session is to be held with Dr. Fred Liewallen as speaker. Dr. Liewallen, who served over seas as captain in the medical corps, was awarded the Distinguished Service cross for bravery. New officers for the three women's societies are to be elected during the convention. Umatilla county has the honor of claiming the state presidency of the Ladies of the G. A. R., Mrs. Loretta Williams of Milton being the state president.

A traditional significance is attached to the coming convention as Pendleton was the hostess city for the State Encampment twenty-eight years ago when the Oregon organizations of the Grand Army of the Republic were first formed.

POINTS FAR UP RIVER VISITED BY TRADERS

JUNEAU, Alaska, June 10.—(A. P.)—Points more than 500 miles up the Kilyma river of northern Siberia, which had not been visited by traders for four years, were reached last summer by a party of American traders, headed by Captain S. K. Gudmundson, master of the trader schooner Polar Bear, according to word received here.

The Bear left Nome, Alaska, June 27, 1920, sailed around the Siberian coast and past Cape into the Arctic and arrived at the mouth of the Kolyma August 4. The schooner was worked up the river 120 miles and anchored while the traders took a small boat 299 miles farther up.

"We were still 400 miles from the head of the river," Captain Gudmundson said in writing of his trip to a Juneau friend. "We found trading very good as no boat had visited that vicinity in four years and we soon disposed of our wares and loaded up with goods of the country."

Last winter the Polar Bear and its company was frozen in at the mouth of the Kalyma, having failed in an attempt to reach Nome before the ice came.

Her cargo of furs and ivory will be taken to Nome this spring and shipped out to Seattle.

HUNTING IS FINE

SPOKANE, June 11.—(U. P.)—E. S. Dam, a Colville wool grower, says he either has buck fever, myopia, or was plain seeing double when up in the Colville country recently.

What Dam saw was deer, deer, and more deer.

"The hunting is going to be out of sight this year," declares Dam. "I moved a flock of 4000 sheep through that section, and I saw lots of sheep besides my own. But boys, I'm here to tell you, I saw as many deer as I did sheep—and that's some deer. Clean your gun."

IT'S A TOUCHY SUBJECT!

But here's a SUBJECT that will interest all:

LET US FIGURE WITH YOU ON YOUR HARVEST ORDER

As in former years we will run no automobile delivery to the country. We believe that it is an expensive custom, and the only conclusion that can be drawn is that the customer pays for the service. Most every rancher in the county comes to town every so often, so why pay to have your groceries delivered for you?

We have the largest and most complete line of fine groceries in Eastern Oregon. Let us figure with you. We think it will be to our mutual benefit. Think this over.

"ALIMONY" IS CHEAPER

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 11.—(A. P.)—Alimony rates for women seeking divorce must bear their proper ratio to reducing costs in other things, according to a ruling made here recently in the divorce department of the Los Angeles county superior court.

Clothing and food are costing less, the court ruled, many men are earning less and women who seek alimony must confront themselves with the sums suited to the new conditions.

The court announced the new ruling with hesitancy, fearing an influx of petitions for reductions in alimony amounts set a year or two ago.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN CALLS ON WOODROW WILSON

Ex-President Still Retains His Keen Interest in His Party and His Country.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(A. P.)—Chairman George White of the democratic national committee, called upon former President Wilson at the latter's residence today and discussed various political matters and the condition of public affairs. Mr. White refused to state specifically the matters which were taken up.

"I can say this much, however," he said. "Mr. Wilson retains his keen interest in all affairs affecting the welfare of his party and his country and he still has the militant spirit which characterized him as a party leader and a chief executive."

Replying to questions as to Mr. Wilson's physical condition, the chairman
