51 SHOOTERS COMPETE IN REGISTERED TROPHY AFFAIR BY GUN CLUB

High Records Made by Troch, Poston and Dimick and Baer Gets Consolation Trophy.

Fifty-one shooters were present yesterday and competed in the different events staged by the Pendleton Rod and Gun Club at Collins Park for which rich prizes aggregating $1,000 in value were donated by the merchants of Pendleton.

The Devine fishing rod and hunting shoes offered by Sol Baum's Sporting Goods Store for high amateur run was won by P. Troch of Vancouver, Washington. He broke 146 out of 160 birds.

The high professional average prize was taken by H. Poston of San Francisco who succeeded in breaking 124 out of 140. The trophy in this event was a Morocco black leather hand bag given by Bond Bros.

The long run trophy, a Waltham watch given by Swtelle's, Inc., was awarded to Z. Dimick, a Walla Walla man. He broke 113 out of 150.

The consolation low average prize, an electrical peccolator, sugar, creamer and tray given by John Vaughan, was won by Geo. C. Baer.

In the Pendleton introductory which consisted of four events of 15 targets each, Frank Troch was the winner in Class A, breaking 59 out of 60. He was awarded the bath robe and Indian robe donated by the American National Bank. In Class B, L. A. Drummond of Lewiston won, 55 birds out of 60 being smashed. The prize in this event was a complete smoker's set given by the Cozy Billiard Parlors.

The Greulich and Matlock trophy, an Illinois watch was won by L. B. Romane of Walla Walla with a record of 59 out of 60. The solid leather suit case offered by Hamley and Co. for Class D was tied for. Charles McKean of Walla Walla and James Estes of Pendleton each breaking 55 out of 60. In the shoot off Estes won.

In the second event, J. B. Troch of Portland broke 35 out of 40 and won the Aneco camera presented by Tallman & Co.

In Class B, J. M. McNurlin annexed the Winchester 1912 model rifle offered by the Geo. C. Baer Co. with his mark of 39 out of 40. In Class C, J. D. Ankeny of Walla Walla secured Alexander's trophy which was a wardrobe trunk. He broke 38 out of 40.

In the Round-Up Special of two events of 25 targets each there was no winner in Class A. In Class B, M. Zenger of Walsburg, Wash., won the beautiful traveling bag offered by the Peoples' Warehouse with a perfect score of 50 broken. In Class C the First National Bank trophy, a Pendleton Woolen Mill bed blanket and Indian robe was tied for by C. J. Hamilton, J. R. Daley, M. W. Hansell and O. Stephens. C. W. McKern won the auto camper's complete outfit offered by the W. J. Clarke Co., breaking 49 out of 50.

An Illinois watch offered by Sturges & Storie as prize in the Pendleton Rod & Gun Club consolation event was captured by J. F. Hayes who slaughtered 25 straight birds at 21 yards. Second prize was taken by H. J. Stillman who broke 24 thereby winning the Hotel Pendleton solid leather gun case. Shooters individual records were as follows:

ANGELS TAKE SERIES. SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—(A. P.)—Los Angeles won both games from San Francisco yesterday, the first 4-2 and the second 3-1. Nichols' infield out in the ninth scoring Carroll who had tripled, gave the Angels victory in the first game. In the second contest the southerners bunched hits in the first inning and gained a lead which the Soles were unable to overcome. With today's double victory Los Angeles won the series from San Francisco, losing three games out of the seven played. The Angels defeated San Francisco in a previous series this season also.

SPORT GAS

(BY THE STAFF)

All right, Mister Spell, our Bucks are looking for new worlds to conquer. Get somebody else.

Sid Williams had a streak of mighty tough luck yesterday.

Ugh huh, he fanned only 17 Herminston batter.

Phelps didn't do so bad, himself, and the funny part of it is that he fooled Pendleton's heaviest hitters. Frinstanen, Dick Hanley took a couple of retirements via the strike-out route, and Dick usually bingles if there's any bingles to be made.

Of course there's no reason why one man should be the goat all of the time, but the sporting ed. comes forward with the observation that if somebody could have got a picture of our Bill Cary yesterday when he got caught off of first, Mona Lisa and September morn would have another rival.

Ad Huey's stock rose several notches yesterday. His batting eye has been weak this season, but he did the little stunt yesterday that brought home a couple of tallies.

And Woods should be able to stick around.

At study of the records shows that Pete managed to get hits yesterday at two critical times.

It's a sad state of affairs in Pendleton sportdom that makes it necessary for the Bucks to go away from home to get a decent gate. That's the way things stack up, though.

Don Under, Pendleton boy who is playing shortstop for New Orleans in the Southern League is going good. Last week's Sporting News shows him batting .225 for the week. He is leading off in the lineup.

Nick Williams, who was here with the Moose Jaw team for training last spring, has handed in his resignation as manager and will return to his home in Oregon. Moose Jaw is next to the bottom in the league with a record of 4 won and 18 lost.

Homer Hayworth, Portland boy who used to catch for the Pendleton Bucks in the days of the Western Tri-State, is still laid up following a recent accident. Homer is catching for four north in the Texas League. About two weeks ago there was a shooting scrape on the streets of Portland between two Texans. Homer gathered in the crowd (that was seen to the fight) and a bullet from the gun of one of the gunners pierced his leg. He won't be able to work again for another fortnight.

BEES DROP TWO.

SACRAMENTO, June 12.—(A. P.)—Both games of a double header were taken by Sacramento from Salt Lake City Sunday, the morning game by a score of 3 to 2, and the afternoon game 5 to 0. The afternoon game was one of the fastest played here this season. Prough, pitching for Sacramento, was never in danger.

OAKS AND TIGERS SPLIT

LOS ANGELES, June 12.—(A. P.)—Oakland took one game of the two played here Sunday with Vernon, thus gaining the series. The morning game was taken by the Tigers 2 to 1; the afternoon game by the Oaks, 4 to 2. Neither game brought any features to the fore, the unusually small Sunday crowds apparently causing apathy the diamond.

BOARDMAN FARMERS HAVE FINISHED HAYING BOARDMAN, Ore., June 12.—The school board finished the work of the year today with the election of Miss Gladys Price of Corvallis as teacher of domestic science and the election of a janitor for the ensuing year. But two bids were received for this work. W. D. Barnes, of Kelso, Wash., was chosen, his bid being $115 per month an against $150 per month from the other bidder. Haying is well under way in this community, the first crop of alfalfa being about all down. There has been a little rain but nothing serious and the crop is good and going into the stack in good condition. Most of the harvesting is done by contract as not all the settlers have complete haying outfits as yet. M. B. Signs, principal of the Boardman schools, and family take up their residence in Portland for the ensuing six weeks to attend the U. of O. summer school.
