INDIANS ARE INCREASING, 57 LANGUAGES SPOKEN

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 14.—(A. P.)—The American Indians are not decreasing in numbers, according to Dr. Elmer E. Higley, of Des Moines, who was recently appointed Superintendent of Indian Work of the Methodist Episcopal church, who is here attending the conference of American Indian Missionaries.
 "There are more than one-third of a million Indians in the United States, added Rev. Higley, "and fifty-seven distinct languages are spoken."
 "A survey among the Indians has just recently been made by the Centenary officials and shows that not only the full blooded Indians are increasing, but also the mixed bloods, with better homes, medical attention, and better care of Indian babies and with the missionaries taking the gospel of Jesus and salvation, the increase of the number of Indians will continue."
 "Two-thirds cannot understand the American language. Thirteen percent of the Indians are afflicted with tuberculosis, and 80,000 suffer from trachoma. Three out of every five Indian children die before the age of five years."
 "There are 450 Protestant missionaries and 275 Catholic with 516 church buildings with a membership of 42,000 Protestants and 51,000 Catholics."
 "Fully two-thirds of the whole Indian population is yet without gospel privileges whatever, either Protestant or Catholic. The Methodist centenary program plans large enterprises among the red men."
 "The following letter from Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Charles H. Burke, to the Rev. Higley was read at the Conference:
 "The progress that has been made in the civilization of the Indians and their present development would have been impossible if it had not been for the missionaries that were the pioneers in laying the foundation for the religious and educational welfare of these people, and it is my hope that we may have the assistance and cooperation of all missionary societies in our endeavor to hasten the time when all of the Indians in the country may become respectable, self-supporting, Christian citizens."
 "A second conference of Indians will be held at Salem, Ore., on June 27."

THINK 'BIG TIM' IS BRAINS OF P. O. THEFT

CHICAGO, June 14.—(L. N. S.)—With Timothy D. ("Big Tim") Murphy, political boss and labor leader, again under arrest the postal authorities are convinced they have seized the "brains" of the postal bandits operating in the Chicago district, and cleared up the Polk street postoffice robbery on April 6, when $350,000 were stolen.
 In a midnight raid on the home of Big Tim's father, the federal recoverer $112,900 in cash and bonds, Murphy confessed, according to postal authorities, that he was implicated in the Polk street robbery. Murphy has been a picturesque power in local labor and political circles.
