soldiers, sailors and Marines of the World War who marched next in line. Some were in civilian clothes and others in uniform, among them Dr. Fred Lueallen, who as a member of the medical corps received a Distinguished service cross for conspicuous bravery. Youngsters in Parade.
Young America was represented by the khaki-clad Boy Scouts and Camp Fire girls who marched, and by the youngsters who rode in the attractive W. C. T. U. float. The Salvation Army, which did great service for America in the recent world war, was represented by members of the local post, with Captain Jennie Conrad in command. The Pendleton fire truck and a long line of automobiles draped in the national colors completed the parade.

As a fitting climax to the parade, the Women's Relief Corps, the Ladies of the G. A. R. and the Daughters of Veterans presented beautiful flags and a large picture of Abraham Lincoln to the Pendleton Boy Scouts. SHERIFF'S FORCE GETS STILLS IN ECHO RAID

One man, two stills, and so much equipment used in the manufacture of moonshine that the big seven-passenger car they were driving was stalled in the sand was secured last night by Deputy Sheriffs E. B. F. Ridgway and W. S. Spears in a foray made by the two men north of Echo.

Leslie Nester is in jail as a result of the raid, and he faces charges of having manufactured intoxicants. He had his still in a cook wagon in the sage brush country north of Echo, up toward the Cold Springs country. When caught, he had just finished filling a five-gallon glass bottle with fresh moonshine. The funnel was still in the bottle when the officers appeared and arrested Nester. He also had 150 gallons of rye mash which he was preparing to run. His sale price was $14 a gallon, he told the deputies.

Sam Samuelson was the other man arrested. He was permitted his liberty under his own recognizance. He had 50 gallons of mash buried in a carefully concealed cave near his house.

Samuelson is a Swede. He told Ridgway and Spears that he had bought his ranch and that the price of wheat had dropped.

"Have to make money somehow," he said. "If you boys leave me alone I'll sell enough moonshine to buy some seed wheat, then I'll quit."

The deputies turned a deaf ear to his plea. They loaded up his still and other equipment into their machine and brought it to the court house. So heavily was the car loaded, that it became stuck in the sand just out of Echo and assistance had to be secured to get over the bad place.

C. M. Dority halls from Springfield. He served four years and two months, and his outfit was Co. K, 13th Maine Infantry. He is hale and hearty despite the many years that he has lived.

It was through the efforts of the Delphian Club that the war veterans were Pendleton roses today in the parade. Mrs. J. T. Richardson, president and Mrs. E. F. Averill, chairman of the committee, were in general charge and members of the club assisted. Every veteran wore a rose. The club also placed flowers in the library auditorium.

Music was a pleasing feature of the Women's Relief Corps memorial service yesterday. Solo by Mrs. B. L. Burroughs, Mrs. Harold Warner, Mrs. Eva Williams and Mrs. Raymond Hatch were much enjoyed.

The distribution of over a thousand flags to Pendleton crowds today was under the direction of Mrs. G. E. Holt, head of the Girls' Honor Guard and the canteen corps during these organizations' war activities in Pendleton. Her assistants today were Mrs. Ralph Hassel, Mrs. H. S. McKenzie, Mrs. Charles Haynes, Mrs. Edwin Schiller, Mrs. Donald Robinson, Mrs. Guy Johnson, Miss Evelyn Sommer, Miss Lena Jensen, Miss Lela Cole and Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice.

Claud Barr, secretary of the Pendleton Commercial Association, found difficulty in persuading some of the more aged G. A. R. men to ride in machines instead of walking in the parade. Most of the men, despite their age, preferred to march rather than ride.

Among the Pendleton motorists who drove carloads of G. A. R. veterans in machines in the parade today were N. D. Swearingen, L. C. Scharpf, Charles Milne, John Simpson, G. W. Evers, W. J. Clarke and Miss Mildred Rogers.

A tribute to the patriotism of Pendleton people was paid today by Mrs. Eva Parhite of Eugene, a member of the Ladies of the G. A. R. and national assistant inspector, who said that she noted great respect for the flags which passed by. Mrs. Parhite has attended 14 state conventions and states that never has she seen greater respect paid the nation's colors than in Pendleton.

Wheat—Present advices from the southern sections of the winter wheat belt to the effect that harvesting is up to two weeks ahead of normal accounted for bearish sentiment and minimized the influence of further rust reports from Nebraska and South Dakota. It is too early in the season to become alarmed over black rust reports from the spring wheat belt, but nevertheless the situation in this territory will bear watching, as a good spring wheat crop is extremely necessary to offset the loss in the winter wheat. Cash prices were somewhat lower but there was better feeling in the cash trade and premiums were a little better than yesterday. The seaboard reported that Germans had taken 750,000 bushels for export, half cash and half credit. Country offerings were fairly liberal especially from Illinois points on basis of 1-2 cent over July for shipment by July 20th.

FORCED TO FIGHT FOR HIS BREATH

Almost Physical Wreck, Raff Builds Himself Back to Vigorous Health.

"I had heard a great deal about Tanlac and since taking it myself I can conscientiously say it is the best medicine I have ever seen in all my experience," said David Raff, 250 N.

DAVID RAFF
250 N. 59th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

59th St., Philadelphia, recently. Mr. Raff has lived in Philadelphia all his life and is well known and highly respected.

"My health was all broken up," he explained. "My stomach was all out of order and gave me so much trouble that I actually dreaded to go to the table. I would simply rather go without eating than suffer the awful misery I knew would follow. I would blast up so with gas that my heart would beat a terrific rate and it seemed sometimes I was being smothered to death. I just had to fight for my breath. My nerves were all undone, I slept poorly and was all the time having headaches that were almost blinding. I lost weight and felt so weak and run-down all over I could hardly do any work."

"Sometimes ago a good friend of mine told me he knew Tanlac would help me and he spoke so positive about it that I took his advice. And I can say right now that Tanlac is the first medicine I ever saw that will do exactly what they say it will. Five bottles have the same as made me all over again. I can eat anything I ever could in my life and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I'm no more nervous than a child, sleep fine and it just makes me feel happy to be enjoying such good health. Tanlac certainly is a great medicine."
