"From this list it will be noted that more than 2,000,000 were mere boys. Of the above number, 67,028 were killed in action, 43,012 died of wounds received in action, 224,536 died of disease, more than 5,000 of accidents, while various other causes bring the total to 359,528. As an interesting sidelight we learn that 211,411 Union soldiers were captured, 16,463 of whom were paroled on the field."

Tired Mothers. It's hard work to take care of children and to cook, sweep, wash, sew and mend besides. Tired mothers should take Hood's Sarsaparilla—it refreshes the blood, improves the appetite, assures restful sleep and helps in many ways.
