COUNCIL ORDERS FEED YARDS IN CITY CLEANED

The condition in which corrals and feed yards are maintained in Pendleton was a subject for discussion by the city council last night. Consideration of the matter was caused by complaints received a week ago from residents who declared that the condition of some corrals was very unsanitary and unsightly.

The report of the police committee last night showed that the yard on Matlock street, which was the subject of complaints a week ago, was thoroughly cleaned. Conditions are very bad, the report showed, in the corral of Harvey Bazell, and the old Henry feed yard is not keeping its corral clean. The street commissioner was authorized to take drastic action to see that sanitary conditions are assured by the management of the place. The new budget-law, applying to cities, was explained by H. J. Warner, city attorney. A great deal of work will be necessary to put the plan into effect, and the council members are acquainting themselves with the provisions of the measure, preparatory to its use in the city government.

Ordinance No. 79 providing for the paving of parts of Washington street, Perkins avenue, and on Grant and Lincoln streets was passed under suspension of the rules, and authorization was given for advertising for bids.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so softens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight. "Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

2 MEN ARE ARRESTED FOR FAKE HOLD UP

PORTLAND, June 15.—(A. P.)—W. S. Hirdsell and J. A. Jones are under arrest charged with holding up men playing cards last night in rooms of the Union International Brotherhood of Hoolmakers. The police charged Jones was in the room, and Hirdsell walked in clad in overalls, wearing a mask, held up the crowd and ordered Jones to search the men. Hirdsell became frightened after four dollars was obtained, said the police, and fled, later returning without his overalls and mask. The police said they found a note in Jones pocket telling the hoolmakers the holdup was a joke and the money would be returned.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE BEGUN

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(A. HAY THINKS CUSTER WAS KILLED BY MEN DISCIPLINED BY HIM

W. H. Hay, formerly a member of Co. E, 6th Illinois Cavalry and the only veteran of the regiment in Oregon, has an explanation of a possible cause of the death of General Custer that is not usually given in the historical accounts of the death of the picturesque figure in American military annals. Mr. Hay served under Custer in Texas.

"An order against foraging food was given while we were in Texas," he said in talking about his service. "There were two boys in our outfit who wanted some meat and they went out and got a sheep and paid for it. Custer caught them, though, when they were returning to camp, and he refused to believe that they had bought and paid for the animal."

"The pair were punished by being suspended by their thumbs with only their toes touching the ground. They were held in this position for 12 hours. When they were released, they swore that they would get even with Custer. All trace of them was lost until a regiment of the outfit was held in Nebraska, and the men were there, on the outside, looking for Custer. They were living with the Sioux Indians. I have always believed that they made good their threat and that the bullets that killed Custer came from rifles held in the hands of his former troopers."

Custer was a regular martinet, and those boys hated him enough to kill him, and they followed him long enough that I am of the opinion that they finally shot him when his forces were massacred at the 'Little Big Horn.'
