ENGLAND HOPES TO WIN IN POLO FROM AMERICAN PLAYERS

Ireland Hit During War, but Promise to Give Good Account of Selves in Games.

LONDON, June 17.—(U. P.)—England, though suffering many disadvantages because of the war, will do its utmost to beat America at the polo cup matches and will have no excuses to plead if it loses. Maj. Vivian Lockett captain of the English side, said in an interview today with the United Press. "We were badly hit during the war," Maj. Lockett said, "first as to grounds, second as to ponies, third as to breeding and fourth as to players. "As to grounds, several of our clubs have had to close because they have had neither player nor money. As to breeding and ponies, breeding was stopped during the war, and many players were forced to sell their ponies. As to players, we have lost men like Captain Leslie Cheape, Captain Noel Edwards, the brothers Greenell and many others killed or disabled. "A polo player is in his prime be-

BRITAIN WANTS U. S. TO STOP CONTRABAND

LONDON, June 17.—(U. P.)—Great Britain will address a friendly note to the United States requesting that the closest possible watch be maintained in future to prevent contraband shipments of arms and munitions to Ireland for use against the crown forces by the republicans has been learned from a high source.

TOO MUCH "BERRY"

NEW YORK, June 17.—(U. P.)—Mrs. Mary Berry recently won a suspended sentence from Magistrate Dale, in the Bridge Plaza Court, by her quick wit when arraigned on a charge of intoxication. The following colloquy took place. "What's your name?" "Mary Berry." "Where do you live?" "Forty-one Berry Street." "What did you get drunk on?" "Berry Wine." "There's a good deal of 'berry' in this case," remarked the Magistrate. Mrs. Berry answered: "Yes, Your Honor, if you'll give me a suspended sentence I'll promise to be 'berry' good hereafter." "Sentence suspended."
