

News Notes of Pendleton

CALENDAR OF EVENTS
 June 27-August 1—Summer Normal School.
 July 10 to 18—Ellison-White Chautauqua.
 September 22, 23, 24—Annual Pendleton Round-Up.

Attend Westland Meeting.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Green and son Carroll were in Westland last night where Mr. Green made an address at a school meeting on "Formation of a Union School District."

Here On Inspection Trip
 Dr. Donald J. Jessop, chief surgeon

of the O. W. B. & N. with headquarters at Portland, was here this morning on a trip of inspection which he is making over the line. It is his ambition to get into touch with the physicians for the road in the different towns.

Reading Is Light

With the coming of the summer season, there is less demand for books at the county library, say librarians. The demand is for fiction more than for other books but with the opening of the summer normal school the library expects many busy days.

Returns From Corvallis

Elvin Selbert returned last evening from Corvallis where he is a student at the Oregon Agricultural College and will spend the summer with his mother Mrs. A. D. Selbert at 515 Marie Street. This is Mr. Selbert's second year at O. A. C.

Road Not Marked.

A tourist who left Pendleton this morning at 7 o'clock for La Grande, passed through Mission shortly afterward and then after losing his way returned to Mission at noon, says D. C. Bowman, of the Mission Store and Mission highway service station. Mr. Bowman states that the motorist, because there were no signs to guide him, took the left road in the vicinity of Deadman's hill and lost his way. Mr. Bowman says travelers are frequently misled because the roads are not plainly marked.

Want Rooms for Teachers.

Just 50 rooms for the use of teachers who will be in Pendleton for six weeks during the summer normal school have been secured up to date by the Pendleton Commercial Association, and the Civic club which is co-operating in the work of securing lodging places for the pedagogues during their stay here. At least 75 more rooms will be needed. The school opens June 27, a little more than one week hence, and persons having rooms are urged to get into touch with the Commercial Association offices at once.

Hears From Relatives.

Henry Taylor received word today that his niece, Mrs. Sylvester Carpenter and Mr. Carpenter were safe, having made their escape from the May apartment house in Portland during the fire. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter escaped with the clothes on their backs and rescued their little Spitz dog. Mr. Taylor visited at Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter's apartment a week ago. The apartment was on the second floor near the elevator and Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter were out in plenty of time. They came to Oregon recently from Denver.

Expected Here For Visit

W. P. Leader of Dowagiac, Mich. is expected to arrive tomorrow for an extended visit with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Leader at the Hotel Pendleton. From here, he will go to Los Angeles to attend the national convention of the Elks. This is Mr. Leader's first trip through the West, and his enthusiasm over the scenery he has already seen is making him a staunch lover of the country. During his visit here, his son is planning to take Mr. Leader on a three-weeks motor trip to Crater Lake, up through the Bend country and other places of interest.

Will Moore Elected.

Will Moore, of Pendleton, was chosen as hold-over member of the home committee, at the Portland session of the grand lodge of Masons yesterday. Frank S. Baillie, of Baker lodge now a Portland resident, was elected grand master. Other officers chosen were George C. Brown of Salem, deputy grand master; George T. Cochran of La Grande, senior grand warden, and Oliver P. Coshov of Roseburg, junior grand warden. John B. Cleland of Portland was re-elected to the office of grand treasurer and James F. Robinson, also of Portland was re-elected grand secretary.

Physicians Elect Officers

The officers elected by the Pythians at a recent meeting of Damon lodge No. 4 will be installed at the first meeting during July. Those who were elected are: chancellor commander, R. R. Hammersly; vice-chancellor commander, W. D. Humphrey; prelate, H. W. Wagner; master of the work, H. C. Mangold; keeper of records and seals, J. H. Gwinn; master-at-arms, Guy Johnson; master of exchequer, W. L. Gadow; inner guard, Charles Dalley; outer guard, Sam Johnson; trustees, Fred Koepfen, J. H. Morris and J. W. Maloney; delegates to grand lodge, D. E. Snyder, James Williams, William Purchase, Charles Howell and J. H. Morris.

Officers To Depart

Captain Jennie Conrad and Lieutenant Mrs. Moye, of the local post of the Salvation Army, have been transferred to Wenatchee, Washington. New officers will be in Pendleton by July 5. Captain Conrad expects to leave here by June 26 and Lieutenant Moye early in July. Both have done good work in Pendleton and their departure is regretted. Captain Conrad has held many jail services and has a letter written by Neil Hart, who shot Sheriff Phil Taylor, saying that he accepted Christianity and repented of his deed. Shozo Shibata, Hawaiian who murdered a Japanese here recently, wrote Captain Conrad last week and declared that he had accepted the faith.

Paper To Be Read

A paper by Miss Sabra Nason, county librarian, will be read at the sessions of the American Library Association to be held at Swampscott, Massachusetts, June 29-26. Miss Nason will not attend the convention and as she was asked to read a paper it will be read by some other visitor at the convention. The paper will be on the relation between a county library and its branches. As the Umatilla county library is considered one of the finest in the state, Miss Nason has excellent opportunity to give the facts concerning county library work.

"Topped with flaky Cocoanut"
Vogan's Moire Whip 5¢

"MIGHTY GOOD," you'll say, when you try this new Vogan confection. But you'll probably never guess there is a real story back of it—of how many experiments were made in the shining Vogan kitchens to create an individual really different from all the others!
 The creamy whipped centers had to be just right. Only an expert could select chocolate good enough. Then the whole was topped with flaky, snow-white cocoanut. But, after all, the proof's in the eating!
 Your candy-taste will tell you instantly that here's a real treat—that never before was so much flavor and goodness crowded into a little purple box and sold for 5c!
 Just ask any one of these dealers for Vogan's Moire Whip!
