PASTIME TODAY

One likely reason for the record smashing success of J. Warren Kerrigan's latest Brunton production, "Outside the Law," a W. W. Hodkinson release which comes to the Pastime Theatre today is the perfection of its casting. It is plainly seen that no expense has been spared in this picture to give Kerrigan a remarkable support and even the minor characters are delineated by well known players of the stage and screen.

ALTA TODAY

"Gilded Lies," the Belmont picture feature which comes to the Alta theatre today for a run of two days, starring Eugene O'Brien, is said to be one of the most absorbing dramas of modern financial greed ever written.

While Keeble McCarty, a young explorer, is risking his life in the cause of science, his fiancée, Hester Thorne, marries a promoter of great wealth and questionable reputation. Hearing the news of her seeming disloyalty while he is still in the frozen North, McCarty returns to New York, determined to be revenged. Knowing the character of the husband, Martin Ward, he believes this will be a simple matter. However, when he discovers that Hester was forced into the marriage by her unscrupulous aunt, and believed her fiancé dead, his hatred turns to sympathy.

The marriage proves to be a hideous nightmare to Hester, and before fate delivers her into the hands of her faithful lover, she suffers the very dregs of humiliation and suffering.

Martha Mansfield plays opposite Eugene O'Brien, and others in the cast include Frank Whitson and George Stewart.

"OUTSIDE THE LAW" NEW PRISCILLA DEAN FILM

Priscilla Dean's first feature since "The Virgin of Samboul," is to be shown at the Arcade Theatre today. It is called "Outside the Law" and is the work of Tod Browning, who has directed Miss Dean in all her big screen successes, and who wrote her latest story as well as supervised its production. From all advance reports it is the crowning achievement of the popular Universal star and her author-director.

More than $250,000 was expended in the production of "Outside the Law," and the cast is a roster of Who's Who in cinema circles. Besides Miss Dean there is Lon Chaney as a Frisco gambler, Wheeler Oakman plays a dapper gentleman crook, E. A. Warren a rare Chinese characterization, and Ralph Lewis as master-gambler, while Melbourne MacDowell, Wilton Taylor and Stanley Goethals, a clever child actor, are other principals in the cast.

Lon Chaney will be seen in two of the strangest characterizations of his career in this photodrama. One of the roles played by this king of all character actors, is that of "Black Mike" Silva, evil genius of the underworld. The identity of the other role is kept a secret by Tod Browning and Universal as a challenge to screen goers, as Chaney's make-up in this part is unbelievable and impenetrable even by his personal friends.

CHAIRMAN OF SHIPPING BOARD TAKES OATH

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(U. P.)—Albert D. Lasker was sworn in as chairman of the United States Shipping Board today. The first step taken was the liquidation of the $1,000,000,000 United States mercantile marine. The first action taken by the new board was the placing of $2,250,000,000 on the debit side of the ledger, drawing a red line through the figures, representing the depreciation cost in price of the 1700 government owned vessels. The remaining $150,000,000 to serve as the approximate basis for the disposal of the ships.

An airplane, acting as a cable layer, held and put into service a six-mile stretch of land telegraph cable in eight minutes in Sweden. Six minutes were spent in flight and the other two in making connections.

AMERICAN FLYER SAYS MOST OF YOUTHS OF RUSSIA ARE BOLSHEVIK

Schools Are All Red; Educational Program Prescribes 'Revolutionary Conscience.'

RIGA, June 17.—(A. P.)—Most of the younger generation of Russians are Bolsheviki, says Captain Merion C. Cooper, of Jacksonville, Fla., the American flyer who was captured by Russians while serving in the Polish army and recently escaped from a Moscow prison. He attributes this to the Bolsheviki educational system, under which Communism is taught in the schools.

"The schools are all red," he said, "and the educational program prescribes that the first thing to be developed in the mind of the child is the 'revolutionary conscience.' In prison, I saw, several times, children visit their parents, the latter being anti-Bolsheviki. The children were 'reds' and accepted their parents' importunate philosophical wondering how they could go against the parents they had been taught to adore in the classroom."

Writing with this system of educating the children, says Captain Cooper, is the wonderful propaganda system by which the Bolsheviki attempt to convert the adults.

"Their Communist lecturers work over in the prisons, trying to convert the prisoners," he continued. "They even tried it on me. There were lecturers or classes held very frequently. If a man said he was converted and could convince the prison committee of the fact, he generally was released."

Further in the line of skilled propaganda was the excellent treatment of the Polish war prisoners just before they were returned to Poland, under the repatriation agreement of the Polish-Russian peace treaty. Before each bunch was repatriated all of the soldiers in it were given new clothes and new shoes, being well fed for several weeks, so that when they arrived in Poland they looked well fed, well dressed and, in short, were walking advertisements for the Soviet government.

Generally, Captain Cooper said, conditions in the prisons were very bad from the standpoint of diet, but that he received no personal ill-treatment.

HERE'S THE BEST WAY → USE CALUMET BAKING POWDER BEST BY TEST

It's pure in the baking. Calumet never fails to produce the sweetest and most palatable of nourishing foods.

It has more than the ordinary leavening strength. You use less of it. That's one reason it is the most economical of all leaveners.

Another reason is—it is sold at a moderate price—you save when you buy it.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Waffle Recipe
2 1/4 cups sifted pastry flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1 tablespoon sugar, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 2 eggs beaten separately. Then mix in the regular way.

Each "pony" is numbered. The gambler places his bet on a certain number, a string is pulled and the "horses" are off. When they stop, the one nearest the red flag is the winner. For roulette there is a circle three-sixteenths of an inch wide on the outer edge of the dial. The gambler bets on his favorite number, the wheel is spun and the number nearest the red flag takes the money. The whole device is very realistic—but if you get caught with a pocket Havre De Grace or a pocket Monte Carlo in your possession, you will probably take a long vacation.
