PASTIME SUNDAY AND MONDAY GLADYS WALTON COMING

IN "ALL DOLLED UP" Gladys Walton, the heroine of "Pink Tights," "Rich Girl, Poor Girl" and other recent successes, will be seen at the Pastime Theatre next Sunday and Monday in "All Dolled Up," a story by John Colton produced for Universal under the direction of Rollin Sturgeon.

"All Dolled Up" concerns a pretty little shop girl and a rich spinster whose love affairs become strangely involved. As the story opens the shop girl is seen selling a very frisky trousseau to the spinster who whispers to her that she is to marry Rodolpho, the famous tenor. Poor little Maxzie, the shop girl, smiles ecstatically for the only approach to love which she had experienced was the suggestive advance of the sleek floor walker.

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Elizabeth Meschan Williams, who appears in "The Plaything of Broadway," "Beulah's Second Marriage" and "The Center of the Universe," was the center of a maelstrom of comment last summer concerning the appearance of women in public in bathing costumes.

Miss Williams, one of the best known American women swimmers, was in charge of the municipal bathing beach at Detroit. Daily lessons were given there to women, and to excite interest in the beach and its advantages Miss Williams and city executives planned a mermaid's frock.

Many of Detroit's best known daughters agreed to appear in the frock, which included a parade through the business section of the city. The parade was staged, the participants in costumes a la Mack Sennett, riding on large tracks.

ARCADIE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Members of the sporting fraternity who enthuse at the sight of a thoroughbred racehorse and who, in a period now almost gone, have thrilled at the hair-raising finish of a great metropolitan handicap, will revel in the many spectacular racing scenes which feature "The Home Stretch," Douglas MacLean's latest Paramount picture which will be presented at the Arcadie Theatre for two days beginning Sunday next.

The tense moments of waiting for the start and the murmuring shout of "They're off!" the stirring finish and the feverish excitement of the betting ring will awaken glorious memories of the days when Belmont Park, La-Tonia, Saratoga Springs, Ascot and Epsom were the worshipping shrines of the disciples of Chance.

ARCADIE TODAY

Once every five years there comes a great crook drama. In 1900 there was "Jim the Penman." In 1915 there was "Leah Kleschna." In 1910 there was "Alias Jimmy Valentine."

Now in 1920 comes "Outside the Law," an underworld epic, starring Priscilla Dean and in which appear Lou Chaney, E. A. Warren, Ralph Lewis, Wheeler Oakman, Melbourne MacDowell and Wilton Taylor. Whether this will be another classic of crookdom, of course, cannot safely be predicted. But the favored few who have already viewed this Universal-Jewel feature film, pronounce it a smashing human drama, favored with a romance of the underworld and the mystery of a terrific oriental justice. Arcadie screengoers will have opportunity to form their own opinion of "Outside the Law," when Browning's play is shown at the Arcadie Theatre today.

PORTLAND, June 18.—(U. P.)—Miss Ellen Chamberlain, of Portland, the first woman ever elected to the presidency of the Oregon Pioneer Association, was raised to that office at the election last night.

JAPAN GETS ACQUAINTED WITH U. S. OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, June 18.—(U. P.)—Observers here of the trend of world affairs are becoming impressed with the evident desire of Japan to get acquainted with America. While some rather jingoistically regard this with apprehension, the general opinion among officials and members of congress here is that Japan is taking the right means of making the United States and its people known to Japan and its people, and that, therefore, it is by that much diminishing the danger of serious difference between the two nations.

The evidence of the Japanese desire to get acquainted with America, whatever the purpose may be, is seen here in the presence constantly of a substantial contingent of Japanese newspaper men. The visitors register in the senate press gallery, where foreign journalists inscribe their names, show that during the present and the last session of congress fifteen Japanese journalists looked in on the senate.

This is remarkable when it is considered that from no other nation have there come half so many journalists in double that length of time. English journalists rank next in number, but the register shows fewer than half a dozen of them. That it is apparent to observers here that Japan is sending her trained observers to this country to go among the people, ascertain sentiment and go back home better qualified to interpret American attitudes and policies.

The visiting Japanese do not remain long in Washington. For the most part they stay here two or three days or a week, and then go to other cities. Many of them have toured the country virtually from end to end. Those who while here expressed any sentiments regarding things American, most politely indicated that what they saw pleased and interested them. As to anti-Japanese sentiment, or hostility, they have little to say. One or two of them, however, have stated while here that except for certain localities, they found no such feeling.

That Tired Feeling

Is Just As Much a Warning as "Stop, Look and Listen."

It indicates run-down conditions and means that you must purify your blood, renew your strength and your power of resistance, or be in great danger of serious sickness, the grip, flu, fevers, contagious and infectious diseases. Do not make light of it. It is serious. Give it attention at once. Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. He knows this good old family medicine is just the thing to take in spring for that tired feeling, loss of appetite, debility. It is an all-the-year-round medicine, wonderfully effective in the treatment of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism and run-down after-disease conditions. My husband has taken Hood's Sarsaparilla every spring for years, and it always puts him in shape. He is 58 years old. Mrs. N. Campbell, Decatur, Ill. A mild laxative, Hood's Pills.

The text reads: 'SHOW HER YOUR BANK BOOK The young woman who takes the chance of tying her future with yours has practical, serious problems ahead. No doubt you want to provide for her comfort and happiness but good intentions will not pay for a vacation, a pleasure trip or comforts that mean so much. Show her your bank book because she has a right to know what you have been doing with your money and what efforts you have made to provide for a home. Show her your bank book for your own good. It will bring home to you the need of practical management of your income and time. It will strengthen your resolution to save and provide for her.'
