

People Here and There

C. W. Paulus, Pilot Rock banker, was here today on a business mission.

Hubert Smith, Lawrence Woodworth and Ned Strahorn have returned from the University of Oregon and will spend the summer vacation at their homes.

Lyman Rice has gone to Portland and Salem. While in the capital city he will confer with the members of the soldiers' aid commission of which he has been designated a member representing the ex-service men.

J. P. Walker, clerk of W. O. W., has returned from Portland where he attended Rose Festival and the State Pioneer Reunion. He motored down with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brown of Walla Walla but returned on the train. He visited other Willamette valley points. During his stay in Portland he was a guest at the home of his niece, Mrs. Eugene McMullen of Rose City Park. He stopped off Friday at The Dalles and visited two or three days with his two nephews who farm out from The Dalles.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

To Repair Building

An application to make repairs on a building on Willow street has been made at the office of the city recorder by Anna G. Ireland. The estimated cost of the work is $150.

Sue on Note

Judgment for $1,723.95 is sought in a suit that has been instituted in circuit court by the Pacific Grain Co. against H. G. and R. L. Casteel. The plaintiff claims that the amount is due on a promissory note. Peterson, Bishop and Clark are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

County Clerk Returns

R. T. Brown, county clerk, and Mrs. Brown have returned from Portland where they have been for a week on a vacation. The weather is cooler at Portland than here, according to Mr. Brown.

Fined $250 By Judge

Hayden Alderman, a resident of the Athens district, was fined $250 this morning by Judge I. M. Schanper when he pleaded guilty to a charge of having intoxicating liquor in his possession.

session. He paid the fine. He was recently caught by members of the sheriff's force in a raid.

Marriage Licenses

The following licenses were granted at the office of the county clerk: James Hinkle Dunlap, contractor, and Iva Ellen Johnson, both of Pendleton; James T. Robinson, a merchant of Sunnyside, Wash., and Mary W. Robinson of Pendleton; to Hiram Sherman Mitchell, a newspaper man of Ferndale, Wash., and Martha Claire Raley of Pendleton.

Paving Is Completed

The stretch of road between Pendleton and Walla Walla north of Weston which has been closed during the past ten weeks on account of paving construction has been thrown open to traffic following completion of the work. The road was traversed for the first time Sunday. Six miles was included in the stretch which has been finished. The entire road between Pendleton and Walla Walla is now paved.

The case of William Boquet and Jimmy Madden, the first charged with maintaining a place as a public nuisance, and the later with possessing intoxicating liquor, were continued this morning when they were called for trial before Judge I. M. Schanper. The continuance was taken to enable counsel to secure copies of a recent decision covering such conditions made by the supreme court. Both men are under bond of $250.

Locust Hill Grass Burns

Another fire that was confined to grass was extinguished last night by the fire department of Locust Hill. The blaze had its origin by intent, residents deciding to burn off the hill. Danger to property is likely to follow such practices, Chief Ringold declares, and he says that no fires should be made, especially during the evening hours. Sparks from the blaze can easily be carried to the roof of a house which is likely to smoulder for hours before being discovered, according to the chief.

Coal Thief Fined

Charles Lafferty, resident of Stanfield, was found guilty of stealing coal from the O. W. B. & N. in his trial this morning before Justice Joe H. Parke. On account of the dependency of his family, he was shown leniency by the court. A fine of $25 was assessed to him. The coal was stolen in April. The case was worked up by Thomas F. Mcneely of Stanfield and G. A. Bushie, special agents for the railroad company. Lafferty served time last fall after running amuck in Stanfield.

LABOR SHORTAGE IN ISLANDS IS SERIOUS

WASHINGTON, June 21.—(A. P.)—Walter F. Dillingham, head of the delegation from the Hawaiian legislature, told the house immigration committee today that industrial and political control of the islands would soon pass to the Japanese unless the present agricultural labor shortage was relieved. The emergency demanded immediate action, he said, and urged the lifting of immigration restrictions on alien labor.

GOVERNMENT GETS

Recalls Old Tale.
The Cape Hatteras ship mystery recalls the strange case of the Mary Celeste. In 1872 two sailing vessels were discovered in mid-ocean, all sails set, the captain's table set for dinner, cards strewn on the tables in the crew's quarters, and the captain's sons toys lay scattered about the cabin. What became of these on board has never been explained.

SOCIETY

FEDERAL FARM.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—(A. P., S.)—A bill providing for a loan of $20,000,000 by the treasury to the federal farm loan board for loans to farmers has been introduced in the senate by Harris. The bill directs that no federal bank shall loan at higher than 6 per cent.

BRIDE IS HONORED.
Mrs. Clarke Dunlap, a bride of the week, was honor guest at a linen shower on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Mary Marshall. Decorations of pink and white were used. In the serving of refreshments the hostess was assisted by Mrs. James Pearson and Mrs. Raymond Hicks.

MEETING AT TUTUILA.
Members of the Presbyterian Missionary Society will hold an all-day meeting tomorrow at Tutuila Mission. Car owners are being asked to be at the church at 10 a. m. So that transportation may be provided. The party will leave the church at 10 o'clock.

N. OF W. TO MEET.
The neighbors of Woodcraft will meet this evening at 8 p. m. in Eagle Woodman Hall. A report of the meeting of the district circle held recently in Condon will be given.

LEAVE FOR IDAHO.
Mrs. F. Windsor and three children returned to their home in Rexburg, Idaho, last evening after spending the winter with Mrs. Windsor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowman.

LITTLE SON BORN.
Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Kononen are the parents of a nine pound son born last night at the home of Mrs. Lulu G. Smith.

LEAVES FOR WALLA WALLA.
Mrs. Edna Sturdivant left today for Walla Walla. She will return tomorrow.

TAD'S TID BITS

(By I. N. S.)

It doesn't seem so very long ago that we sat by the ringside in the hot sun at Reno to watch Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson fight it out for the big honors.

That was on July 4, 1910. The grim reaper has taken a heavy toll from the world of sports since that time, however.

That hot day at Reno we saw many a face that will be missing at Jersey City on July 2.

Among those who have passed away are "Big Tim" Sullivan, the stakeholder; Billy Jordan, the announcer; Billy Delaney, who was Johnson's chief handler; Nat Goodwin, Bob Vernon, Frank Gotch, Tom Corbett, Eddie Smith, Mike Murphy, the great trainer; four great writers, W. W. Naughton, H. E. Keough (Hek), Jack London and C. E. Van Loan; three ex-champions, John L. Sullivan, Bob Fitzsimmons and Stanley Ketchel.

Before the battle, the movie men lined up a big bunch of sporting celebrities in the ring for a pose. In the line-up were men who were or had been champions in their respective classes. Tommy Burns alone survive the line-up.

There will be another bunch of champs and ex-champs in the ring at Jersey City, but we doubt if this bunch will compare in point of popularity with the peers who stood at Reno.

It's One Thing or Another.

After Jess Willard was toppled a Toledo by Jack Dempsey, some wise sporting men said that Willard's lack of roadwork was the real cause for his flop. They declared that no fighter could be right with the merry trip along the dusty highway.

At Reno, after Jeff was dropped, we asked Bob Fitzsimmons what he thought was the trouble with Jeff.

Bob leaned his big elbows on the bar at the Golden Hotel and said, "Jeff left all his fight on the road. He ran too much. The ability of the winner is rarely taken into consideration."

The Inquiring Reporter.

George Tritt, the foreign correspondent of the Margate City Free Lance, was a visitor at Carp's joint yesterday. While in the dining room of the little cottage he piped a picture of Georges and Jim Corbett standing side by side.

"I know this fellow with Carp," said Tritt, pointing to Corbett. "He is a ham actor."

Some one said it was Jim Corbett, the fighter.

"He was a fighter, eh?" said Tritt with surprise. "Is that so?"

"He was heavyweight champion of the world," said Willie Lewis.

"Is that so?" piped Tritt, with his gap wide open.

"Yes, he kicked the great John L. Sullivan," added Lewis.

"Is that so?" chirped Tritt again.

Half an hour later he was at the telegraph station at Great Neck.

"Rush this to the Margate City Free Lance," said Tritt to Sam Mason, the operator, as he handed him the big story of the day.

PAINS IN SIDE AND BACK

Caused by Woman's Ills and Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Grafton, Pa.—"I was troubled with inflammation and pains in my sides and back. After doctoring with different doctors and not getting relief, I had almost given up hope when my sister told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and knowing that she had really been helped by it, I purchased it. I was unable to do my work at that time, but after taking several bottles of the Vegetable Compound I can now do anything about the house or farm that a woman should do. I have a four months old baby that is the healthiest and biggest baby for his age that I have ever seen. I am willing for my letter to be used for a testimonial to tell other suffering women how much your medicine has done for me, as I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound all the praise."—Mrs. BLAIR L. FISHER, R.D. 1, Box 37, Grafton, Pa.

Working early and late—lifting, carrying, and the heaviest of household duties—is it any wonder that it results in aches and kindred ills. But every woman who suffers as Mrs. Fisher did should profit by her experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

smith, who has refereed any number of big fights, among them some in which Dempsey himself participated, thinks that Jack will win with ease over Carpenter.

Eddie is a good judge of boxers. He was a boxer himself in the older days, and was the tryout man for the old California Athletic Club.

It was Eddie, who took both Young Griffo and Bob Fitzsimmons into a private room and gave them tryouts before they were matched by that exclusive club. He has never forgotten those tryouts.

In the coming fight, Grancy says, Jack has every physical advantage over Georges and should nose him out. He adds that Carpenter, who has been fighting fifteen years, can't have improved much.

To soothe the Harvard undergraduate who is nervous over the approaching examinations, music in ten-minute doses is to be provided each morning in the university chapel. The choirmaster has made the announcement that a program of light classical selections is to be offered.

RESTAURANT MAN COULDN'T EAT HIS OWN FOOD
"It's pretty tough for a restaurant man to have stomach trouble. My customers were always telling me I ought to eat in a good restaurant. The fact was I couldn't eat a thing that didn't blow me up and no medicine or doctors helped me. I tried everything recommended and at last Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I assure you I didn't have to look any further. Since taking it I have been a well man." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Druggists everywhere.
