Building Is Painted

The Allen-Knight auto. accessory shop on Main street is being painted. The color used is gray with trimming of green.

Pendleton Receives Mention

Pendleton is given a write-up in an attractive new booklet entitled

"The Pacific Northwest and Alaska"

issued by the Union Pacific system. Following is the write up: "Pendleton, Oregon, is an enterprising modern city which holds, in September each year, a noted frontier festival called The Round-Up. The program is made up of races, roping, bucking horse contests, bulldogging steers, and many other equestrian feats of thrilling interest, aimed to enliven and perpetuate the fading romance of the Wild West. This is a community celebration and always draws a large attendance."

Many Swim in Nat.

The attendance at the Pendleton natatorium averages about 100 a day, including children and adults. Because of the warm weather the swimming pool is very popular. The water is changed at least twice a week and oftener when the attendance is large.

Have Scenic Pictures

Two new pictures, finished in colors are being sported at the office of the Commercial Association. One is a scene of the Colorado Canyon, the compliments of the Santa Fee system, and the other is of the Banff Springs and the Bow River Valley, presented by the Canadian Pacific Rockies.

Operating New Service Station

Bellinger and Parker, proprietors of a new service station at the junction of East Court and Webb streets, have opened their place for business. The new building is not completed yet, but the work has progressed far enough to permit transaction of business. The building will be completed some time during the coming week.

To Build House

A house to cost $1,500 will be remodeled by A. J. Best on Bluff street. A building permit for this purpose has been applied for at the office of the city recorder. An application has also been made for a permit to repair a building and construct a garage by M. C. Fine for his property on West Court. The estimated cost is $100.

Harvesting in Middle West

D. C. Mercier received a letter this morning from his father at Portland to the effect that his mother, Mrs. J. R. Dickson has reached the finish and will play in the fifth flight in the women's golf tourney being held there in conjunction with the tournament for the men.

Mrs. Dickson in Finals

Brooke Dickson received a letter this morning from his father at Portland to the effect that his mother, Mrs. J. R. Dickson has reached the finish and will play in the fifth flight in the women's golf tourney being held there in conjunction with the tournament for the men.

Watch For Directory Man

A request has been received at the office of the Commercial Association from the state Chamber of Commerce to be on the lookout for H. E. Kaler, manager of the Farmers' Directory Co. or any of his representatives who may attempt to sell advertising or subscriptions in Umatilla county. It is also requested that any information concerning the man be forwarded to the state organization at Portland.

To Advertise Pendleton

When the Oregon representatives leave soon for the national convention of the Christian Endeavor Union to be held in New York City they will carry with them publicity matter of Pendleton. A request for printed matter giving the facts about Umatilla county was requested by the Portland men. Due to the fact that there are no booklets covering the country as a whole, pamphlets describing Pendleton were sent.

Aged Indian Visits

Kikluse, an Indian, was a visitor in Pendleton to transact business matters today. He does not know his age definitely, but another Indian who accompanied him said he was more than 100 years old. Kikluse is listed as a Walla Walla Indian, but he claims to be a Umatilla. He is blind, but his hearing is in no way impaired. He is getting rather feeble and walks with the assistance of a staff.

Round-Up Offices Opens

Preparations for Pendleton's Round-Up are already under way, and within a short time, activities will be buzzing in earnest. An office has been opened, and the publicity work is started now. Miss Mary Joerger is in charge of the publicity and the office, which is over the store of Hamley & Co., is in charge of Miss Eunice Holt. Work on the posters to be used to advertise the show is now under way.

Hay Buyer Here

Otto A. Owen, president and general manager of the Owens-Peeke Feed and Grain Co. of Astoria, is in Pendleton today. He is here for the purpose of buying hay direct from the growers to be shipped to Astoria. Mr. Owen and Claud Barr are warm friends, the former having been on the board of managers of the Commercial Association there when Mr. Barr was secretary. Tomorrow the two plan to take a trip over the west end of the county when the hay buyer will have an opportunity to get in touch with farmers.

Enthusiased Over New Spring

Members of the water board are enthused over reports being received from the work on the line extension above Thorn Hollow. A line is being run to a spring 900 feet away from the Chaplish spring and so cold is the water from the new spring that workmen find it hard to work in the ditch where the new pipe is being laid. The water is said to be colder than the Chaplish springs water and it is believed the supply will be greater. The additional water supply will be available for use about the first of July and will obviate any need of using any river water during the dry season.

Returns From Montana

Judge C. H. March and J. E. Montgomery returned this morning from the Judith Basin in Montana where they have extensive land holdings. The wheat crop there this season promises to be a record-breaker, they

YOUR SATISFACTION IS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING WITH US IN RUNNING THIS BUSINESS

Most people realize that a merchant cannot give things away; they know he has to make a profit; he isn't in business for his health. In the face of this statement we still claim we are giving you part of our profit by being satisfied with less than is usually exacted. This gains greater volume and after all we get the benefit. But you share in it.

We are pleased to announce the arrival of a new pattern in Dinnerware, made by the McNicolls pottery of this country. You will find a prevalence of grey in the decoration, which is the newest color to be used in dinner ware decoration. It will be a pleasure to show you this pattern. Reasonably priced, quality considered.
