'BLOODY 19TH' WARD CLAIMS ITS FIFTH VICTIM IN LASPISA

He Was Considered Logical Political Successor to D'Andrea, Slain Political Chief

CHICAGO, June 27.—(U. P.)—The identity of the assassin of Joseph Laspisa, the latest feud victim of the "Bloody Nineteenth" ward is still a mystery to the police. Laspisa, a close friend of Tony D'Andrea, the political chieftain of "Little Italy," was shot dead yesterday in an automobile by two men hidden in the bonnet. Laspisa is the fifth victim assassinated in "Little Italy" during the last few months. He was considered the logical political successor to D'Andrea.

WHEAT PRICES SLUMP IN TODAY'S MARKET

A weakness in the Chicago wheat price is apparent in today's market, July wheat closing at $1.28 and September wheat at $1.23 3/4. On Saturday, July wheat closed at $1.59 1/2 and September at $1.25 1/2. Following are the quotations received by Overbeck & Cooke, local brokers:

Wheat.
	Open.	High.	Low.	Close
July	$1.30 1/2	$1.30 3/4	$1.28	$1.28
Sept.	1.26	1.26	1.23 3/4	1.23 3/4
Corn.
	Open.	High.	Low.	Close
July	.62 1/2	.62 1/2	.61 1/2	.61 1/2
Sept.	.62 1/2	.62 1/2	.61 1/2	.61 1/2

Wheat—Started steady but buying power was again lacking and the market developed considerable weakness on scattered selling of a general character. About the only item of news conducive to ease in the futures was a decline of one cent in local spot premiums. Crop news and statistics were quite bullish, while for the first time this season Canada complained of the crops making poor progress in certain sections due to dry weather. Southern Illinois and Indiana, as well as Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri reported harvesting of wheat delayed and considerable damage being done by excessive rains. The decrease of 1,229,000 bushels in the visible supply was somewhat of a surprise considering the liberable movement. Minneapolis and Kansas City quoted choice milling wheat strong and from 5 to 10 cents higher with a good demand. The prevailing trade lethargy which is responsible for the weakness in the market cannot be expected to permanently overshadow stronger bullish influence.

Portland Cash Market.
1 hard white, $1.33; 1 soft white, $1.31; 1 white club, $1.29; 1 hard winter, $1.17; 1 northern spring, $1.17; 1 Red Walla Walla, $1.15.
