HOSPITALITY APPRECIATED

That courtesies extended to the civil war veterans and their ladies while they were here for their encampment were appreciated is shown by a paragraph on the subject in General Orders No. 1 by the new department commander, a copy of which has been received here. The orders sets forth results of the Pendleton meeting and says:

"The good people of Pendleton extended a right royal welcome to the comrades and the affiliated organizations. All who were privileged to be present will cherish all their days, pleasant memories of their sojourn in the fair city of the Unatilla, and its kindly, patriotic people."

WILL VISIT PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKay (Erlie Duff) are visiting at the Duff ranch near Pendleton as guests of Mrs. McKay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Duff. Mr. and Mrs. McKay have been attending Columbia College during the past year. Mrs. McKay was formerly a member of the Pendleton high school faculty.

PREDICTIONS OF WAR WITH JAPAN CONSIDERED

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(U. P.)—President Harding, Secretary of State Hughes and members of the cabinet are considering predictions of war with Japan and the charges that the British design to bring on such a war. The charges being considered were contained in a telegram from Thomas F. Millard, an American writer in the Far East.

INDIAN WOMAN

Bennett is a well known police character. He has been in jail numerous times, and of late he has caused the police a great deal of annoyance. He is not implicated in the attack of the woman except as a witness, the authorities declare. He has a bad reputation with the officials, but he has never been in serious trouble before.

LETTERS FROM VETERANS LOCAL OPTION PLAN PLEASES GEORGES MUCH TRIED IN SWITZERLAND

MANHASSET, N. Y., June 27.—(A. P.)—Georges Carpentier will go into the ring Saturday with only one thing in mind—a determination to wrest the world's championship from Jack Dempsey, Gus Wilson, the challenger's chief trainer, declared today.

"There will be no snap for Jack Dempsey," he said. "He will have to be more than a great fighter to beat Georges. Never before has Carpentier displayed such determination. When he talks of the fight he grits his teeth and clenches his fists, and remarks: 'He shall not beat me. Something tells me I can defeat him and I shall do it. His hardest blows will not find me and those that he lands I know I can stand.'"

The challenger attaches much sentiment to the thousands of letters received daily from war veterans and other Americans.

"They want me to win," he said. "I will not disappoint them if every bone in my body is broken."

The Frenchman takes a great deal of interest in the mail, because he likes to hear the many good things the American public has to say about him, said Wilson.

JAPAN'S CROWN PRINCE MAY ASSUME INITIATIVE

TOKIO, June 27.—(U. N. S.)—The Crown Prince of Japan will return to Tokio late this summer. The first heir to the Japanese throne to travel in foreign parts, he is already attracting the attention of political dopsters as one who may take part, if not direct, as did his grandfather, the Emperor Meiji, in the affairs of great nations. The heir-apparent to the throne of Japan has thus far been a self-assertive, likable young man, one who has been watched by a strong-minded Empress and guided by at least fair counsellors. His determination to be rid of some of the "guidance" given his father has been shown notably in two affairs; first, his refusal to listen to demands made by Prince Yamagata, political leader and near-dictator, that the Crown Prince give up his bride to be the Princess Nataka, a daughter of Prince Kuni, old Satsuma clansman and rival of Yamagata. Second, he refused the entreaties and attempts of questionable political leaders, to stay within the boundaries of the Japanese Empire.

No young man of twenty years could take the trip now being taken by the Prince and fail to return home a man of strength and ideas. Returning home when politics and conditions demand a leader forced to officiate for his imperial father on many an occasion, opposed by leaders, yet of positive make-up—are there not in these circumstances an opportunity for a "king to be a king?"

Meanwhile, Prince Yamagata's resignation is held in abeyance, and the political undercurrent in Tokio becomes more troubled.

White "L" or buckskin law shoes are the only proper ones to wear with pale organdie dresses. Some of the smartest models are frequently decorated with pipings of black patent leather. The double strap fastening is the most popular this season.
