HEADS OF BROTHERHOODS WILL MEET NEXT FRIDAY

Vote Will be Taken; if Men Reject Slash Then Proposal Goes to Vote of Membership.

CHICAGO, June 28.—(U. P.)—A rail workers strike loomed when it became known that shop employees all over the country voted overwhelmingly to reject the 12 percent wage cut of the United States Railroad Labor Board order for July 1.

The shop employees' decision to oppose to a wage decrease surprised the labor leaders, who believed the cut would be accepted by a small margin.

The attitude of the four big railroad brotherhoods will not be known until its heads meet next Friday.

The present rail crisis was precipitated when the railroad labor board voted to cut the salaries of railroad employees a total of $400,000,000 in an attempt to wipe out the $600,000,000 increase of last year.

COLLINS HAS BOUGHT 700,000 BUSHELS FOR JULY-AUGUST DELIVERY

A million bushels of new crop wheat has been contracted for at $1 per bushel or prices ranging in that vicinity, says H. W. Collins, prominent local grainman.

The wheat purchased by the Collins organization has all been for export and will be handled through the company's export connections.

Wheat contracted for is confined to grain that can be delivered during July and August.

The sale of so much wheat in advance of the harvest is almost unprecedented here in this section.

It is the view of Henry Collins that the condition of the crop at present justifies the yield will be the highest ever known here.

The warehouse will be designed to care for grain tributary to Rich and the project calls for a new road connecting Rich with the old hill road to Poho.

"Worst in Three States" In their conversations with tourists, the two young fellows talked to about every sort of visitor one will find in a free park.

"How do I like this camp?" Well, I'm getting along all right in Pendleton, but this camping site is the worst I've struck in three states, I guess.

"Not much of a camp ground," he replied to a question as to how the Pendleton tourist park compared with others he had visited.
