Weakness Prevails On Portland Market

(From the Oregon Journal.) There was only a fair run of 195 cars of livestock in the North Portland alleys at the opening of the week and seven of these were direct shipments to outside killers. Hogs were practically unchanged, cattle were weak, 25 cents lower, while early sales on sheep were steady. In the cattle market killers sliced 25c off the prices generally, but in spots the market was 50c off, with a similar drop in the price of calves. Prices in the steer division were quoted at $7.50 during the morning but there was almost a lack of good quality of ferings. A few sales were made a fraction above the top.

Reversals Feature Market After Advance

NEW YORK, June 28.—(A. P.)—Saturday's irregular recovery was extended 1 to 2 points at the opening of today's stock market, but reversals in which many advances were more than canceled occurred before midday and a heavy tone ruled at the close.

The more vulnerable issues comprised oils, motors, steels, equipments, sugars, shippings, textiles and mail order shares. Reaction from best prices ranged from 2 to 5 points, metals alone holding part of their advance.

Higher type rails, notably transcontinentals and coolers, also were reactionary under lead of Canadian Pacific and Reading, but secondary or reorganized properties were relatively steady. Sales amounted to 465,900 shares.

New advices over the week and were mixed. Favorable influences were a heavier movement of grains to market and a reduction in the number of idle freight cars.

Motor stocks were again under pressure. Record low prices were quoted for crude and refined products, notably sugar and rubber. Mexican oils sagged.

The money market was featureless, call and time rates being unchanged. Moderate strength in foreign exchange was ascribed mainly to prospects of early settlement of the British miners' strike.

Dealings in bonds were light but steady to firm for the most part, including liberty issues and convertible rails. Internationals also showed irregular improvement, but Cuba Cane Sugar is weakened with the stock. Total sales, par value, $10,650,000.

Predicted Heavy Receipts Forces Wheat Price Down

"Foot Rot" Now Disease in Wheat

SPOKANE, June 28.—More than 2000 acres of wheat fields in Spokane county are affected by a disease new to this section, known as "foot rot," according to County Agent O. V. Patten, who has been conducting an investigation with experts of Washington state college. In some districts 40 to 60 per cent of the wheat stems were diseased, the county agent reported. The infectious cuts the stems off at the ground and leaves the crop worthless, except for hay, he said. The investigations throughout the county have not been concluded.
