COCKSHURE SPIRIT IN CHAMP'S CAMP MIGHT PROVE A BOOMERANG

Corbett Declares That Whole Outfit Has Decided Jack Will Win; Georges is Calm.

By JAMES J. CORBETT.
(Copyright 1921 by the International News Service.)
NEW YORK, June 28.—This is "wind-up week" at Manhasset and Atlantic City. Champion Jack Dempsey and challenger Georges Carpentier have but four days to prepare for the big fight at Jersey City, July 2. They are practically through training now. I am told that neither will do more work—just enough to keep on edge—and Thursday will be the last day on which either will don a glove.

Both the champion and his challenger are in good condition. I have seen both men inaction recently. Dempsey looks fine. His stomach looks good, too. I think he has trained seriously. I will know more about that—everyone will—after a round or two.

Carpentier is in fine shape and his morale is better, I believe, than that of the champion. I'd bet my life on Georges' condition and I think he will enter the ring highly conditioned. In fact, the closer the day of the fight approaches the lighter hearted Carpentier seems.

I've read some talk about Dempsey's wind not being the best. If this is true I have failed to notice it. Working out under the hot sun in Atlantic City is no easy thing for a fellow when he works fast, as Dempsey has been doing. Under such conditions he cannot get enough air breathing through his nose, and he does quite a lot of breathing through his mouth. I used to do the same. I think nearly every fighter does.

Carpentier, for instance, boxes a lot with his mouth open.

This means nothing in particular except that he cannot get enough fresh air through his nose. And you can be sure in the mix-ups neither Jack nor Georges will leave the lower jaw hanging open to receive the shock of a swiftly propelled punch.

The atmosphere around the two camps as the day of the fight draws near is as different as day and night.

At Airport the fight is over now. Manager Jack Kearns, Dempsey, Trainer Teddy Hays—everyone in fact—has settled that question in his mind. The Airport camp is rather cocksure. This is not the best thing in the world, even though the vast majority of critics also have settled on Dempsey as the winner. It means that the champion and his handlers may be over-confident and I'll tell the world that I know from experience what over-confidence sometimes does to a fellow.

Carpentier's camp is just the other way round. Everyone from Georges down is willing and eager to get all the advice they can. They are not cocksure but they are not doing any unnecessary worrying, either.

DISCOMFORTS ARE LOTS OF GEORGES' PARTNERS

MANHASSET, N. Y., June 28.—(A. P.)—In six rounds of sparring yesterday Georges Carpentier gave all of his tricks a tryout, much to the discomfort of Chris Arnold, Buffalo lightweight; Joe Jeannette and Paul Samson, a 200-pounder who joined the staff yesterday morning.

Georges boxed each two rounds, starting with Arnold. Chris started at him full speed, but his blows failed to land cleanly. Arnold said Carpentier was the hardest thing to hit he has ever seen. While they worked Georges rained snappy but steamless blows on Arnold's body.

With Paul Samson, Georges had a slugfest match, and though he pulled his punches he had the big fellow groggy and was compelled to ease up. In his two rounds with Jeannette the challenger worked for the perfection of his right uppercut which seemed even more vicious than his short overhand right.

This morning the challenger went on the road for about two hours and took things easy, but he worked hard when he came to the gymnasium for half an hour of exercise before lunch.

Extra precautions for the protection of the challenger were taken by Manager DesChamps. Two armed guards were placed on duty at the camp and will maintain a patrol night and day until Saturday.

THREE PEOPLE DIE WHEN THEY EAT TOAD STOOLS INSTEAD OF MUSHROOMS

ELDORADO, Ark., June 28.—(I. N. S.)—Three persons died early today and three are critically ill. They ate toad stools which they mistook for mushrooms.

CREATION OF WORLD SPORT CAPITAL IS FRENCHMAN'S PLAN

Would Have Immense Stadium to Seat 100,000 Built on Seine for Olympic Contests.

By NEWTON C. PARKE
(International News Service Staff Correspondent.)
PARIS, June 28.—The creation of a world sport capital, where all future Olympic games should take place, is urged by Frantz Reichel, a well-known French writer, who is trying to enlist the support of French athletic organizations and members of Parliament.

Reichel would have France contribute this great center of athletics to the sporting world. He would have this modern Olympus built just outside the gates of Paris and it possible along the river Seine, so that aquatic events could be seen from the Olympic stadiums. He is urging the Government to get in time to have part of the new sport city built for the Olympic games in Paris in 1924.

The plans of the French writer are summed up as follows:

"The idea of recreating the Olympic games came from a Frenchman, and it was in Paris that the project for the first Olympic meet of modern times, the one held in Athens in 1896, was conceived. Now is the time for Paris to construct an Olympic city, on ancient lines, in such grandiose style that all nations will agree to have all future Olympic competitions here. Let us create at the same time and within the walls of this sport city a splendid international athletic institute, with the best instructors in the world, a real temple of sport to which athletic youths of the world will flock as they flocked to Athens in ancient times.

"We should have the most modern installations, with all facilities for training and for caring for great crowds at athletic events. There should be a gigantic stadium capable of seating 100,000 persons, with stands 100 feet high encircling the fields for football and other athletic games. Under this stadium should be great massage rooms, baths and well-furnished quarters, where the athletes might live during competitions, away from noisy hotels and city life.

"At one side of the stadium should be another vast terrain, where young athletes could carry on their exercises under the eyes of skillful trainers. There should be another stadium for swimming events, one for lawn tennis, a stadium for boxing and an open-air, as well as a covered, Gymnasium.

"Attached to this Olympic city should be doctors who know athletics and how to give advice to athletes."

PORTLAND MATRON IS VISITING IN HELIX

(East Oregonian Special.)
HELIX, June 28.—The people of Helix and surrounding district were plunged into sorrow Tuesday when little Dorothy Mae Rose, three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose, who was injured in an automobile accident on Monday, passed away. Dorothy Mae was an exceedingly bright child, beloved by every man, woman and child in Helix. She came into every one's presence like a ray of sunshine. The funeral was held at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon. Rev. W. A. Grossman of the Christian church of Pendleton conducted the service. The funeral was the largest ever held in Helix, the beautiful floral offerings being a silent tribute to the love every one held for little Dorothy Mae.

Mrs. J. S. Anderson who has been visiting in Portland for several weeks returned home Sunday. She was accompanied by her mother Mrs. Jennie Burrows who will be a guest at the Anderson home.

Miss Gertrude McIntyre who has been attending the U. of O. the past year, has returned home. She has accepted a position at the J. R. Thomas store for the summer.

The Ellison White Chautauqua has just closed a successful five days engagement here. Helix has signed up for an engagement again next summer. The fact that this is the smallest town they have visited reflects credit on the citizens of Helix.

Misses Pherssa Knox, Wanda Alspaach and Kathryn McIntyre attended the Girls Conference held at Milton this week.

Paul M. Reid left Tuesday for Seattle where he will attend summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Penland and children were visitors in Milton Sunday.

Mrs. Clifford Kendall is attending summer school in Pendleton.

Deloss Robertson was a visitor in Milton one day this week.

Roy L. Davidson, teacher in the Helix high school the past year is attending summer school at the University of Oregon.

The curb market in New York will be no more after July 19 when the New York Curb Brokers' Association will move into their newly erected building. Thereafter all trading will be done indoors. Thousands of sightseers will remember the mad throng which for thirty-five years operated on the actual curb in Broad street.

Among the eight hundred and forty members of the Northwestern University graduating class is a blind student who worked his way through.

M'GRAW CONCEDES CARDINALS GREAT CHANCE AT PENNANT

NEW YORK, June 28.—(I. N. S.)—John J. McGraw, manager and half owner of the New York Giants, who have lost three games to the Cardinals, told a reporter recently that the Cardinals have a wonderful opportunity to give St. Louis its first pennant.

"The Cardinals are a great ball team," he said. "It looks to me as if the race for the flag is between New York, St. Louis and Pittsburgh. Cincinnati, although down the list just now, probably will be heard from later in the season.

"I am wonderfully impressed by the fighting spirit of the crowds in the stands. They are great crowds. Everybody seems to be talking baseball. The Giants are playing to better crowds than ever before.

"And the Cardinals are getting the breaks—a thing that a team has to have."

DEMPEY DISOBEYS AND STAGES STIFF WORKOUT

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 28.—(A. P.)—The word has been passed out at Jack Dempsey's training camp that the champion would take a day off to rest 24 hours before punting into the final two days of training. Guards had been stationed inside the gates, which were locked to the public and newspapermen.

Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, had given explicit instructions that Dempsey do no work of any kind.

Late in the afternoon, Dempsey awakened from a refreshing nap. Then, to the surprise and disgust of his sparring partners, he ordered them to the stuffy hangar a quarter of a mile back of his camp and staged a secret workout that developed into the stiffest of his campaigns.

For 55 minutes the champion toiled with terrific speed, negotiating the equivalent of 13 rounds of boxing. He whaled away at the light punching bag for three rounds, then drove vicious rights and lefts into the heavy felt-stuffed bag for two rounds. When he finished, his sunburned body was glistening wet.

EVOLUTION OF NUDITY IS STUDIED IN PARIS

PARIS, June 28.—(I. N. S.)—Ever since the French senate decided to call upon the government to suppress "immoral" scenes in Paris theatres and to forbid nude women from appearing on the stage, French writers have been busy consulting history as to when women first appeared on the stage clothed only in "nature's robes."

They have discovered that women, and men as well, appeared nude on theatre stages as long ago as 2000 years B. C. In ancient Syria during the Venus celebrations women absolutely naked and not even wearing a string of beads, as they do in some places in Paris, would sing songs of praise to the goddess. It was the custom, in those days, with the Syrians, once a show was over, to call upon actors and actresses to disrobe and dance and sing. Objectors to such scenes were either asked politely to leave or were thrown out.

From nudity and morals these same French writers stepped over to the history of marriage and Napoleon the First's morals. It appears Napoleon was a pure moralist and did not believe in love. "I do more than deny the existence of love," he would say. "I believe it to be detrimental to society and to the individual happiness of man, and I firmly believe it does more harm than good." Evidently his wife, Marie-Louise, was of a different opinion, for she was thrice married and had at last two illegitimate children—one, Count de Montenuovo, being born three months after Napoleon's death.

WOULD STOP DEMPEY-CARPENTIER SCRAP

ATLANTIC CITY, June 28.—(A. P.)—Clinton N. Howard, secretary of the international reform bureau, went to Camden yesterday to appear before Vice Chancellor Leaming to seek an injunction to prevent the Dempsey-Carpentier fight July 2. If he fails to obtain a writ in the chancery court Howard said he would appeal to the state supreme court.

Would Be Waste of Time
JERSEY CITY, June 28.—(A. P.)—Governor Edwards declared that any attempt to stop the Carpentier-Dempsey fight would be a waste of time.

"Of course I do not know what Mr. Howard may have up his sleeve. This exhibition, I can say, will be conducted strictly according to law."

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigaretty aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.
