

People Here and There

Charles Schatz, manager of the Inland Mercantile Co. of Adams, was a Pendleton visitor yesterday.

Harley Richardson has returned to his home in La Grande after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richardson of this city.

J. H. Ackerman, president of the Oregon State Normal School, says that with three summer normal schools on his hands he feels as if he were running a three-ring circus. President Ackerman, who is in the city today, says that the Ashland summer normal has 70 students enrolled and the State Normal at Monmouth, 108 students. One hundred four are enrolled here.

One of the youngest editors in Oregon is Douglas Mularky, editor of the Redmond Spokesman. Mr. Mularky, who was a Pendleton business visitor yesterday, says that Redmond, according to the census, has 700 inhabitants but that to an optimistic editor the number equals 1000. His paper is an independent weekly. Mr. Mularky is a University of Oregon man and was once editor of the Oregon Emerald.

The "Iron Hindenburg," a great wooden statue of the German field marshal, is offered for sale as firewood. It was erected with the idea of covering it with a coating of nails. A small charge was made for war charities for the privilege of driving each nail.

Nix on the "Parley-Voo" stuff!

A FRIEND of mine WHO COULDN'T speak. A WORD of French. WENT TO Paris. AND THE first time HE HAD to get A HAIRCUT and shave. HE PRACTICED an hour MAKING SIGNS. IN THE looking glass. SO THE French barber WOULD UNDERSTAND him AND THEN he went in AND WIGGLED his fingers THROUGH his hair AND STROOKED his chin AND THE barber cried AND FINISHED the job THEN MY friend thought

HE'D BE polite. SO HE gave the barber AN AMERICAN cigarette. WHICH THE barber smoked. AND MY friend pointed TO HIS mouth. AND SAID "I like you." AND THE barber roared. AND SAID "You SEE. I USED to smoke 'em WHEN I worked IN INDIANAPOLIS. AND BELIEVE me THEY SATISFY!" HERE'S a smoke that talks in any language and needs no interpreter. Light up a Chesterfield. Draw deep—and more plainly than words your smile will tell the world "They Satisfy". It's the blend that does it—and you can't get "Satisfy" anywhere except in Chesterfields for that blend can't be copied!

IRELAND IS BACKING DEMPSEY TO DEFEAT CARPENTIER IN FIGHT

If French Fighter Wins There Will be Lot of Empty Pockets; Dempsey Can't be Beat.

DUBLIN, June 29.—(L. N. S.)—Ireland is backing Dempsey to beat Carpenter to the last penny. If the fighter wins, there is going to be a lot of empty pockets in this country, but the universal opinion is "how can a man with the name of Dempsey lose."

In agricultural districts some men have even sold their farms and cattle to raise money to wager on the fight. It is common gossip in County Clare that Dempsey contributed a million dollars to the Irish cause. There are also stories about Dempsey's immense strength. One story is that Dempsey placed 12 men in a row, struck the first, knocked all 12 men down and it was half an hour before some of them recovered consciousness, according to the teller of the tale.

Wheat showed a better tone in the Chicago Grain Market today, July wheat, closing at $1.24 1-4 and September at $1.23. Yesterday's closing prices were $1.19 1-2 for July wheat and $1.17 1-2 for September wheat.

Following are the quotations received by Overbeck & Cooke, local brokers:

July	.58 1/2		.61 1/2
Sept.	.59 1/2		.62

Wheat—The action in the market today was a surprise to the majority of the trade, and demonstrated that liquidation yesterday was very thorough. Nothing new in the way of news was disclosed except that there was some evidence of an improvement in the export demand and cash markets displayed a firmer tone. Sales abroad were placed at 1,250,000 bushels. Offerings from Illinois points were said to be more liberal on the

HIS BONES ACHED TO VERY MARROW

Portland Man Couldn't Lift Glass of Water to Mouth Without Spilling It.

"It was about three years ago I found out what a great medicine Tanlac is, and it did me so much good I have recommended it to hundreds of others," said William D. Root, 1409 Powers St., Portland, Ore., well-known employee of the St. Johns Lumber Co. for the past nine years.

"I was just about 'all in' when I started taking Tanlac and knew I had to get better right away or give up my job. I didn't know that it was to get hungry and hardly ate enough to keep going. I felt weak, sluggish and drowsy, and was so tired out all the time my bones seemed to ache to the marrow. I was so shaky and trembly at times I couldn't lift a glass of water to my mouth without spilling it, and my sleep was so restless I felt worse mornings than when I went to bed. Rheumatism got in my arms and made my elbows so stiff I could hardly bend them.

"Tanlac soon had me eating like a wolf and enjoying every mouthful and I wasn't long in putting on twelve pounds in weight. The nervousness soon left me, my sleep became sound and refreshing, the rheumatism went away completely and I have kept in the best of condition ever since. I pin my faith to Tanlac; it's the greatest medicine ever heard of."

Tanlac is sold in Pendleton at Thompson's Drug Store and leading druggists.

basis of July prices to half cent over for shipment by July 29. Crop news was mixed but all advisers agreed that the northwest situation is critical, and good rains are needed to save the crop. Showers are predicted for the three northwest states, but will have to be general to be of any importance. One factor which has been overlooked to a large extent is the European crop outlook which is by no means favorable, and suggests that the import requirements next year will be nearly as large as in the year just closing, this means a decidedly strong situation in this country, ultimately, and although the marketing of the new crop and the lack of buying power may have a tendency to bring about declines from time to time, the general tendency of prices is very likely to be upward.
