HOWDY MISTER SUNSHINE

Here's Howdy, Mister Sunshine, for you're welcome round the place, We're mighty glad to greet you and to see your smiling face, Just nose around the blossoms in the garden as you will, And do a little dancing on each dusty window sill, There's a sleepy boy up yonder that will give you back a smile, If you'll let your brightest sunbeam go and tickle him awhile.

Here's Howdy, Mister Sunshine, an' we're mighty glad you're back, Come along an' spill the roses an' the monies from your pack, There's a pair o' little robins in the elm tree nestin' high, That have waited for your coming; an' today I guess they'll fly, For I've heard their mother tellin' to those most impatient things, That the first day it was sunny she would let 'em try their wings.

Here's Howdy, Mister Sunshine! Oh, it seems to me our girls Are loveliest the mornings you are dancin' in their curls, An' though we must have sorrow an' there must be days of rain, The joy all the sweeter when you come to us again, So it's Howdy, Mister Sunshine, from the lips of man an' boy, An' the women folks who love you— here's a day we'll all enjoy.

THE FIELD IS BIG; OUR PROBLEMS PRESSING

There will be no lack of objectives before the federated commercial organizations of Umatilla county. In fact there will be so many things to do that the combined energies of the county may be profitably employed for a long time to come and yet not exhaust the program. The field is unlimited and the need of activity is pressing.

The most startling disclosure at the meeting here last evening was the announcement that there will be no money this year for the McKay project. That news is disappointing and the facts should be checked up to see what is the matter and what can be done to secure relief.

The road problem is of equal or greater importance. We have not yet solved this question and the state of affairs regarding the John Day Grade constitutes a crisis we cannot safely overlook. There is crying need of that road and the longer the improvement is delayed the longer will this county suffer. By united action we can put the job over and likewise care for other pressing road projects.

The Umatilla rapids project is distinctly a county-wide affair and by far the biggest subject to which people of this county can give their attention. We have at our door the possibility of the greatest single bit of industrial development in the west. It is up to this county to lead the fight and if we don't do it no one else will.

All in all there is so much for the federated clubs of the county to do that the wonder is we have not gotten together sooner.

"HAY BURNERS" STILL USED

If there is ever to come a time when the horse joins the dodo in oblivion, it is yet far off. Lovers of this intelligent and faithful friend of man will rejoice to hear that the number of horses in Nebraska has increased 314,708 in the last ten years. Motor cars, automobile trucks and tractors, numerous and popular though they are, have not impaired the usefulness of either the horse or the mule, the increase in number of the latter since 1910 amounting to 16,798.

There has been less reason to anticipate the disappearance of the need for horses than there has been cause for fear that breeding would fall below the requirements of industry so that a gap in motive power would be produced which could not be filled immediately by mechanical substitutes. The report of Leo J. Stuhr, secretary of the state department of agriculture, is reassuring on this point. As long as the need for horses continues, and there are many tasks for which they are considered still necessary, the supply promises to be available. Statistics on the number of purebreds in Nebraska suggest that competition with gasoline has resulted in a movement for better horses and that it is the poorest sort of a nag that is losing in the struggle for existence.—Omaha Bee.

Jack as a Chair Chauffeur

Some fellows have all the luck. There's Joe Bannen, for instance, timekeeper for the big fight. He's the guy in the chair at Atlantic City, and the "boy" pushing him is no other than Mr. Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion of the world.

NOT UP TO THE PENDLETON STANDARD

If a new industry bringing 50 new families to Pendleton should be offered the city on a silver platter it would be regarded as very acceptable. The joy over such an event would be heightened were it made known that there might easily be 100 new families or 500 instead of 50. The town would exert itself to help any such move along. We know that because Pendleton people gladly raised $30,000 to help finance the woolen mill when the mill employed less than 50 people, and we never lost anything by the move.

The motor tourist business had 50 additional families or parties in Pendleton Wednesday evening. The number will vary above and below that figure but we all know that the traffic at present is nothing to what it will be in the future. These people in some ways are better for the city than so many new employees would be. They all have automobiles and they must purchase supplies for their cars as well as for themselves. That means more work and more business. One man this week spent $60 here on repairs to his car. The money they bring is new money. They leave their money here and take nothing away excepting their impressions of the town.

Certainly it is good business to develop this traffic. It takes a very ordinary judge of arithmetic to figure out that every dollar spent on accommodations for these people will easily bring a return of $10 or even $100. It is much like being able to pick fruit without having to grow it. It is very satisfactory business to have and it is cash business.

We are now caring for this profitable trade by putting the motor travellers in a camp ground one man said was the worst he had seen, barring one, in three states. There are conditions there that are objectionable to civilized people and they won't tolerate them long. We can continue our neglect if we wish and drive this business away and be within our rights but we are not going to do it because Pendleton isn't that kind of a town.

"WAIT" AND "HUSH"

The Philadelphia Public Ledger (Rep.) continues to chide the present administration for its policy of "drifting." Under the caption "Nobody Knows," it says editorially:

"In Washington nobody knows just what the inner circles of the administration are doing about the three greatest of our foreign problems. There is silence, a silence that may mean anything or nothing.

"This is June 20. The Harding administration came into power on March 4. More than a hundred days have come and gone since. We are in the fourth month of a new administration pledged to action on peace, the limitation of armament and a world association of nations.

"What has been done? Just what are the accomplishments in these pledged matters?

"The house and senate are having a tug-of-war over the form and scope of a 'declaratory peace resolution.' The White House, to all appearances, is untroubled over that deadlock.

"The foreign policies of the Harding administration retain their wrappings of uncertainty and their mists of vagueness. There is a wall of silence around them. Cryptic utterances are the rule. The oracle when it speaks speaks as did the Oracle of Delphi.

"The passwords are two: 'wait' and 'hush.' But what of peace? Of the limitations of armament? Of the association of nations? Outside of the inner circle nobody knows.

"Is it possible the administration inner circle itself does not know?"
