PEACEMAKER IS NEW ROLE FOR BUCK JONES

"Straight from the Shoulder," a William Fox picture starring Buck Jones will be the attraction at the Pastime Theatre today. "Straight from the Shoulder" is about a big hearted westerner who has made a habit of being a peacemaker. His success in these efforts are due mainly to his ability to fight for peace; and he finds many who don't like his kind in the great wild west. He is quick with his fists and he is a No. 1 on speed in drawing a gun; and regardless of the knocks he gets he is always ready to keep at it. All the scenes are laid in the west and some pretty photographic effects have been made by Frank Good, the cameraman.

Helen Ferguson is Jones' leading woman in "Straight from the Shoulder." Norma Selby, well-known to the newspaper reading public as Kid McCoy, former heavyweight pugilist, plays "Wild Bill" Higgins. Herschel Mayal and G. Raymond Nye also have important parts. Nye being the "bad man," as usual. "Straight from the Shoulder" will be at the Pastime Theatre for two days.

ALTA TODAY

"Poor Dear Margaret Kirby," by Elaine Hammerstein's play, Kathleen Norris, will be Elaine Hammerstein's next Selznick Picture to be shown at the Alta Theatre today, and the readers of this novel will agree that nothing could be found which is better suited for Miss Hammerstein's personality.

Margaret Kirby is the wife of John Kirby, a man of considerable means. One of her admirers is Rutherford Pell, also a wealthy man. On day, through force of financial reverses, John Kirby is pressed for ready cash. He asks Margaret to negotiate a loan from Pell. She indignantly refuses. A few days later Kirby returns home a ruined man, and the first sight he witnesses is Pell placing a valuable string of pearls around Margaret's neck. Hastily jumping at conclusions Kirby attempts suicide by taking poison. He is frustrated, but the poison has entered his system and he becomes a physical wreck. Upon the reports of the loss of Kirby's money, their social friends desert them, and it devolves upon Margaret to become the breadwinner of the family. How she does this and keeps the pathetic results of their actual status concealed from John Kirby is said to constitute a most appealing story.

ARCADE TODAY

The greatest tragedy in life is that of a mother denied the love of her son.

Time, it is said, heals all wounds, but heart wounds never forgotten for her son, of the sort "that passeth all understanding," is never forgotten.

Jacqueline Floriot proves this statement in "Madame X," a Goldwyn masterpiece playing at the Arcade theatre. Turned from her home by the unjust suspicions of her husband she is denied the love of her son and seeks solace in the underworld of Paris. Years pass, but like Banquo's ghost, the love for her son will not down. And in the end she finds him, placed through a strange trick of fate as counsel for her defense for a crime committed to save her husband's career from ruin.

Pauline Frederick brings to the screen in the role of "Madame X," a superb portrayal of this pathetic figure. You will follow her life story with wet eyes and quivering lips, so near is it to perfect realism. But it is the sort of narrative that will appeal for it is built upon the elemental passions of life.

We want you to see "Madame X." We know that you will be impressed by its deep underlying truths, inspired by its theme and enchanted by its massive production.
