

DAILY EDITION

The net press run of yesterday's Daily 3,210 This paper is a member of and audited by the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

DAILY EDITION

The East Oregonian is Eastern Oregon's greatest newspaper and as a selling force given to the advertiser over twice the guaranteed paid circulation in Pendleton and Umatilla county of any other newspaper.

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

VOL. 33

DAILY EAST OREGONIAN, PENDLETON, OREGON, SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 2, 1921.

NO. 9868

DEMPSEY WINS - KNOCKS OUT FRENCHMAN IN FOUR ROUND FIGHT

LARGE INCREASE IN TURKEY RED CROP THIS YEAR

10,000 Acres of This Variety Wheat Grows Between Pendleton and Echo on River.

CO. AGENT RECOMMENDS GRAIN FOR LIGHT SOIL

Wheat Matures Early and Crop Prospects Excellent; Will be Demand for Clean Seed.

There is 10,000 acres of Turkey Red wheat growing between Pendleton and Echo along the Umatilla river in comparison to the 900 acres of this variety grown in the region a year ago, says Fred Bennion, Umatilla county agent, who avers that all the wheat land of the territory should be in Turkey Red instead of any other variety. It has proved to be the best for the light soil, Mr. Bennion states. The Turkey Red is showing up well in comparison to the White Hybrid, says Mr. Bennion, who with G. H. Hyslop, professor of farm crops at O. A. C., and a group of Pendleton farmers, made a wheat tour yesterday. The wheat has matured early and crop prospects are excellent. Among the best fields were those of David H. Nelson, George Stainger and George Peterson, which fields, Professor Hyslop says, are eligible for certification.

Fields Near Town.
The farmers, Mr. Pennon says, were surprised at the good crops in the Echo and Nolin region and the fact that the Turkey Red fields are getting nearer to Pendleton than ever before.

Mr. Bennion and Mr. Hyslop are today inspecting B. F. Trombley's Turkey Red and the Hard Federation wheat grown by Otto Reiman. This is an Australian wheat for which the seed was obtained by Superintendent Stephens of the Moro experiment station in Sherman county.

Will See Federation.
The Hard Federation is acknowledged to be superior to other spring wheats. Two years ago Mr. Reiman sowed eight pounds of the wheat and got 555 pounds last year. He sowed additional seed this year and has 39 acres.

There will be a greater demand than ever for clean seed this year, Mr. Bennion believes. Some of the farmers who made the tour yesterday made arrangements to get Turkey Red seed from the clean fields.

A green parrot swinging in a tree in Evanston, Illinois, jammed traffic for blocks by calling out, "Not so fast—go slow! Stop!" The same squad of officers who captured the parrot rounded up an organ grinder who had a monkey trained to climb into second-story windows and pass out articles of value. When captured, the monkey had a valuable vase and lavalliere which he had stolen from a bedroom.

JACK DEMPSEY

HOW THE FIGHTERS SIZE UP.

Jack Dempsey is younger, taller, heavier and of larger proportions generally than Georges Carpentier, who challenges his right to the title of world's champion heavyweight. The following table gives the measurements of the principals.

DEMPSEY		CARPENTIER
Age	25	Age	27
Weight	172 (7)	Weight	172 (7)
Height	6 ft. 1 in.	Height	5 ft. 11 1/2 in.
Neck	16 1/2 in.	Neck	16 1/2 in.
Chest (Normal)	41 in.	Chest (Normal)	41 in.
Chest (Expanded)	43 1/2 in.	Chest (Expanded)	43 1/2 in.
Reach	73 in.	Reach	73 in.
Forearm	14 1/2 in.	Forearm	14 1/2 in.
Wrist	7 1/2 in.	Wrist	7 1/2 in.
Waist	31 in.	Waist	31 in.
Thigh	23 in.	Thigh	23 in.
Calf	16 1/2 in.	Calf	16 1/2 in.
Ankle	9 in.	Ankle	8 1/2 in.

PENDLETON CITIZEN DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

James Cornfield, aged 58, a resident of Pendleton for the past 18 years, died today at 5:10 a. m. at St. Anthony's hospital. Mr. Cornfield has been ill for the past month.

Mr. Cornfield was born in Hamilton, Scotland. He came to the United States at the age of four years and after spending some time in the east came to Pendleton in 1903. He had been engaged in the contracting and housemoving business.

Mr. Cornfield is survived by his widow and three daughters, Mrs. E. P. Riepe, of Hermiston, Mrs. O. T. Hanavan, of Pendleton and Mrs. Forrest Baker, also of Pendleton. He was a member of the Catholic Church. Funeral services will be held on Monday morning at 10 a. m. from St. Mary's Catholic church. Rev. Father Van Hoomissen will officiate.

GIBBONS TO MEET SOMMERS.

SPokane, July 2.—(U. P.)—Mike Gibbons meets Al Sommers in a 15 round bout for a purse of $10,000 on July 4. Mike Collins, Gibbons' manager declares Gibbons will be the next middleweight champion.

A twelve-foot box constructor, a showaway from some tropical port, recently arrived in New York Harbor where he was stamned by a fall caused when the Hoboken workmen tore away his resting place. He was boxed up and sent to the zoo. Floods have been prevalent in the tropics and it is thought he crawled through a port-hole from a drifting tree.

SULTRY WEATHER GREET'S FIGHTERS AT JERSEY CITY

Great Crowd Thronged Into Bowl at 9:30; Preliminaries Limited to Eight Rounds.

ALL SEATS TAKEN BY NOON; NO STANDING ROOM

Dempsey Slept in Millionaire Bed on Night Before Fight; Carpentier Was in Country.

RINGSIDE JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—(A. P.)—The gates to the big arena opened at 9:30 and in popped the crowd. The saucer of yellow pine, which when the sun was out glistened like a giant brass bowl, was soon flecked with humanity, but unlike ordinary saucers, it was filled from the brim down instead of the bottom up for the first to arrive was the gallery God with a periscope eye, who had camped all night outside for a $5.50 seat. Gradually however, the wave rolled down the ringside. There were many women in the crowd. The day was sultry following a humid night. The sun tried to pierce the "sea" of clouds that gave threat of rain. Many of the spectators had their sun glasses, field glasses and pillows.

Carnival of Blows Starts.
RINGSIDE, July 2.—(A. P.)—The carnival of blows, with tens of thousands massed about the 18 foot ring, opened at 12:12 with the preliminary bouts serving as cocktails for the feast of the battle between Dempsey and Carpentier for the heavyweight boxing title. The first bout was between Micokey Delmont and Jack Curtin. All six preliminaries were carded to eight rounds. Other bouts were Babe Herman versus Joe Metranza, Pavey O'Gatty versus Frankie Burns, Dick Griffith versus Midgett Smith, Gene Tappan versus soldier Jones and Jack Renault versus Billy Miske.

Would Marry Jack

NEW YORK, June 2.—(U. P.)—"I'll marry Jack," was the tonight or tomorrow no matter how the fight comes out," said Sylvia Jeevelin, of Hollywood California when seen at a hotel here, confirming the consistent report that the champion intends boarding the good ship matrimony.

Has Police Guard

JERSEY CITY, June 2.—(A. P.)—Georges Carpentier arrived here at 12:50 by boat. He ate a light lunch on board and also enjoyed an hour's nap on the trip. He was guarded by a large squad of motorcycle policemen when the challenger's party entered automobiles and were escorted to the arena.

Brother Attends Bout

RINGSIDE, July 2.—(A. P.)—At 1:15 he began to sprinkle. John Dempsey, the champion's brother took his

DRUNK, FORFEITS BOND, RELEASED FROM JAIL AND LOSES SET FALSE TEETH

To be jailed for being drunk is had enough, according to the belief of the association of tipplers, but to have to pay a fine of $10 for the indiscretion, and then on top of all that inconvenience to lose one's false teeth is the "end of the limit." That is what happened to John Turner who was incarcerated in the city jail last night by the police. Late in the evening, his freedom was secured by posting of a cash bond. This morning he appeared at the police station again, but he was by himself and he was sober. He wanted his false teeth, he told the police, and a search was made in the jail, and the set was found. The plate was broken, but Turner thought he could have the damage repaired.

seated at the ringside at 11:45. By noon the last four rows of the $5.50 seats had been filled and all standing space about the outer rim was occupied.

Carpentier Full of Pep.
MANHASSETT, July 2.—(U. P.)—Georges Carpentier, eager for the fight was up early, full of pep. He took a cold shower and greeted the reporters heartily. Carpentier took a short workout and then drove to Port Washington, where he embarked on a yacht and sailed for Jersey City. Great Crowds saw him off, though he managed to escape the throngs by embarking a short distance from the docks. He appeared extremely at ease and seemed unworried by the proximity of the battle.

Enthralled by Millionaire.
JERSEY CITY, July 2.—(Henry L. Farrell, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—Jack Dempsey spent last night at the house of William Heppenheimer, a millionaire sportsman, slept in the millionaire's bed, ate his breakfast in a luxurious atmosphere and took things easy. Thousands hung around the house, but the champion managed to get away for an early morning start and had a good sweat when he came in.

Dempsey Visits Arena.
RINGSIDE, July 2.—(Henry L. Farrell, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—Gray clouds are hanging over the city. The streets were quiet despite the proximity of the fight. The arena is water soaked from rain but the sun is expected to dry the seats thoroughly. Most of the fans bought reserved seats although crowds came to the arena last night and slept on newspapers during the night, waking early to fall in line.

Guards last night were dumfounded when Dempsey walked into the arena, looked over the place and beat it. It may have been a bluff, curiosity or a desire to show coolness. The crowds assumed enormous proportions as the time for the first preliminary drew near. None were permitted to enter until well along in the morning. Sport writers, businessmen, congressmen, women and representatives from all walks of life gathered at the gates early to take their reserve seats and fall around the circus wagons serving as ticket offices. Drops of rain fell occasionally. Workmen were busy in the ringside until late putting the finishing touches to the big bowl. Safety ropes were strung everywhere to keep

FIGHT EXTRA FIGHT BY ROUNDS

(By Associated Press.)
Dempsey Is Victor.

Georges Carpentier finished flat on his face, his legs and arms outstretched. In the fourth round Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, knocked him out in a few seconds after the round opened.

Dempsey sent Carpentier heavily to the canvas with a short right hook to the chin. The actual time of fighting in the fourth round was one minute and sixteen seconds. Previous to the knockout Carpentier was floored with a left to the body and a right to the chin. Carpentier took the count of nine before springing to his feet, where Dempsey measured him with a punch to the chin which ended the battle.

Dempsey stood over the fallen French idol until the count was finished and then tenderly picked up the bleeding and dazed Frenchman and dragged him to his corner.

Dempsey gave Carpentier an unmerciful beating. He opened up a cut under the challengers eye and battered him viciously around the head with vicious rights and lefts until Carpentier's face was swollen and bleeding. Carpentier fought gamely back at the champion but was outclassed.

Round One.

Round one started at 3:18. Carpentier landed a left and range in clinching. Dempsey was short with a left to the head, range in clinching. Dempsey was short with a left to the head. Carpentier missed a right but connected with a left hook. Dempsey punched him, beating him unmercifully.

Carpentier was groggy and bleeding at the nose. Dempsey missed a right swing, but beat Carpentier as they clinched.

Carpentier sent left to the body in a clinch. Carpentier landed light right to head. Clinched. Carpentier landed uppercut, right to chin. Carpentier jabbed to face with left. Clinch. Dempsey pounded back of head with right. Carpentier missed right to head. Dempsey pounded right to sides. Carpentier missed terrific right to head. Pounded Dempsey's body with left. Clinch. Dempsey holds and hits with right to head, staggering Carpentier. One punch cutting nose. Carpentier landed terrific right under eye. Dempsey hooked left to head. Clinch. Dempsey uppercutted face and hooked left to nose. Carpentier missed right to head, clinch. Dempsey smashed Carpentier with right. Carpentier missed with right, he fell through the ropes in trying to avoid a punch. He flew into Dempsey when he crawled back into the ring and landed several blows on Dempsey's body. At the bell Dempsey had the better of the round.

Round Two.

Carpentier missed with a left and they clinched, Carpentier backed away. Dempsey hooked him with a right to the jaw. Dempsey followed after him, beating him around the head with rights. Carpentier was short with a left hook but he staggered the champion with six rights and lefts to the jaw.

Round Three.

Carpentier ducked a left hook. Dempsey backed into the ropes and hit him with a short right. Carpentier landed two uppercuts to body in a clinch. As they clinched Dempsey punched the invader in the body and Carpentier nearly fell down when he missed a right swing. They missed lefts to the head and Dempsey punched Carpentier viciously in the infighting.

Dempsey landed left and right to head without a return. They exchanged left hooks to the chin. Carpentier's right swing was short and Dempsey clubbed him on the jaw with a left hook. In the clinches Dempsey battered Carpentier into a corner with rights and lefts at the bell.

The bell saved Carpentier from a knockout. Dempsey's round.

PANORAMIC VIEW (BY I. N. S.) SHOWING GREAT FIGHT STADIUM AT JERSEY CITY—MEN ARE RICKARDS, DEMPSEY, CARPENTIER.

Panorama View of Big Fight Arena in Jersey City.